

THE ROANOKE BEACON

Friday, May 24th, 1918.

BEACON FLASHES.

Mr. J. E. Sexton of Roper was in town yesterday.

Mr. J. C. Gatlin of Creswell was in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Clifton of Perry were in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bateman of Roper was in the city yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Halsey of Roper, were in the city on Wednesday.

Mr. T. H. Woodley, wife and daughter of Columbia were in our town this week.

Mrs. C. L. Blount of Winton is visiting Mrs. M. G. Darden on Washington Street.

It's not a question of what "we" have done, but what "I" have done that counts.

News has been received here that Corporal Linwood Hassell has safely reached France.

Miss Della Williams of Washington is the guest of Miss Annie Brown on Jefferson Street.

Mrs. Ida Blount, Miss Gussie Carstarphen and Mrs. N. B. Mizell of Roper were in town this week.

The work done by America during the past four days has struck Kaiser Bill a genuine solar plexus blow.

Messrs W. B. Watts, Thos. L. Smith and R. P. Walker are attending a Masonic meeting in Durham this week.

Mrs. H. S. Midgett of Norfolk is in the city visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gilbert on Washington Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Dock Robertson left Saturday to spend a few days with Mrs. Robertson's people, near Williamston.

The Commencement exercises of Plymouth Graded School will be held in the Christian Church this evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Thos. G. Moore who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. A. M. Ayers, returned to her home in Bath last Sunday.

Misses Lola Tetterton, Ruth Bateman and Maude Allen returned Monday after spending a few days with friends in Williamston.

The question now asked all over the country is, not "Have You Gone Over The Top?", but "How Much Have You Gone Over The Top?"

Mrs. Fannie Moore died in her rooms at Mrs. Claud Read's on Wednesday morning, after a brief illness. The remains were taken to her old home in Bridgeville, Del., for interment.

The Loving Cup and a $5.00 gold piece given by the State Normal for the best short story written by a High School pupil in North Carolina, has been awarded to Miss Marion Owens of Plymouth.

Thrift Stamps Selling Fast.

The Sunday Church Campaigns are doing a great work to promote the sale of Thrift Stamps. The Zion's Chapel Church, near Roper, will have a meeting Sunday at 11:00 o'clock a. m., at which time Mr. H. M. Jacobs will address the people.

At the Roper Methodist Church Sunday at 11 a. m., there will be a union service for Thrift Stamps and Rev. J. H. Abernethy will be the speaker.

Everything "Over the Top."

The Red Cross campaign was opened here on Tuesday afternoon with a telling speech by Mr. C. B. Branch, who is connected with relief work at Camp Green, at which time about $300.00 was raised. On yesterday afternoon we had with us Mr. Roland Campbell, a young man who has had actual service at the front, and at this meeting something over $500.00 was raised. This, together with what has already been subscribed outside, puts Plymouth well over its quota. But we are not going to stop there, and on Saturday afternoon a big Red Cross Parade will be had, and on Sunday afternoon a big open air Patriotic Musical program will be given on the lawn at the Methodist Church.

Everybody, especially those in Plymouth Township who are allied with the Plymouth Chapter, are cordially invited and urged to be present and participate in both of these functions.

The reports are that Roper and Creswell went over at their first meeting, and that both of them are expecting to double their quotas.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The third monthly meeting of the Washington County Church Committee for War-Savings Stamps will be held at Mackeys on Thursday, May 30th at 2:30 o'clock P. M.

This is Decoration Day, therefore a legal holiday, we ought to have a large attendance. If any should desire to meet at their home churches for prayer and humiliation in response to the President's Proclamation, they may do so in the morning or at night.

Besides our regular business we will have appropriate exercises for the two occasions above referred to.

The public is invited to meet with our committee.

J. H. ABERNETHY,
Chairman.

"I'm Afraid That's all I Can Spare"

You're a regular, red-blooded, true-blue American. You love your country. You love that flapping, snapping old flag. Your heart thumps hard when the troops tramp by. You're LOYAL--100 per ct.!

You intend to—you WANT to help win the war in a hurry.

"Sacrifice? Sure," you've been thinking, "Just you wait till they really need it." And you've honestly thought that you MEANT that too.

But—look yourself in the eye, now, and search up and down inside of your heart—did you mean it? Did you really mean "sacrifice"?

Listen: You feel poor. This third Liberty Loan, the high prices, the Income Tax—you've done your bit. You feel that you've given all you can spare.

What? Then what did you mean? What's that you said about loving your country? What did you think the word "sacrifice" means?

Surely you didn't mean, did you, to give only what you can spare?

What about our boys who are giving their lives in the trenches? Are they giving only what they can "spare"?

How about those mothers and little "kiddies" in the shell-wrecked towns of that war-swept hell;—hungry—ragged—sobbing—alone? Giving up their homes, their husbands, their fathers.

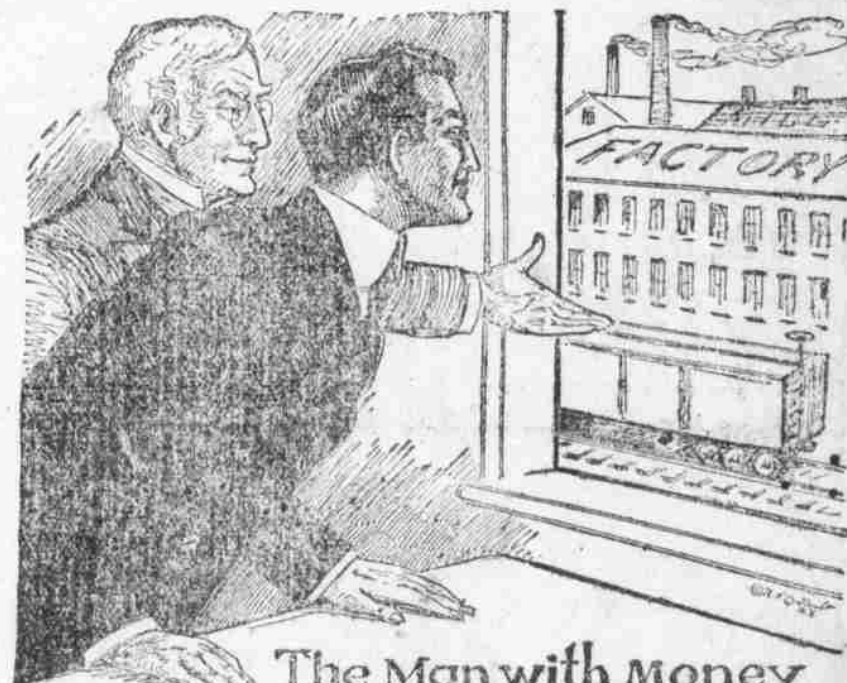

While we—over here with our fun and our comforts—we hold up our heads and feel patriotic because we have given—what? Some loose bills off the top of our roll. "We've given all we can spare!"

Come, come! Let's quit fooling ourselves. Let us learn what "sacrifice" MEANS. Let us give MORE than we can spare—let us "give till the heart says stop"
