A Near Serious Accident.

What came near being a serious accident occurred last Saturday afternoon just before the Red Cross parade started.

Mrs. R. W. Johnston was coming down Washington Street when she saw Mr. Johnston coming in his car, and wishing to speak to him ran out in front to stop him. In doing this she ran so close in front that he could not stop the car in time, knocked her down and ran completely over her, one of the rear wheels passing over her body. She was taken into Brinkley Hotel and was examined by Dr. Disoway, who found that no serious injury had been sustained, but on account of bruises and soreness the lady was confined to her home for a few days.

In compliance with President Wilson's request practically all business was suspended here yesterday, and last night a union service of song and prayer for the success of our cause and the safety of our soldier boys was held in the Methodist Church. This meeting was well attended and was presided over by Rev. B. O. Myers of the Baptist Church. Short timely talks were made by Prof. A. T. Allen, Mrs. T. E. Johnson and Supt. J. W. Darden.

Leggett-Harrison.

A quiet marriage was solemnized in the Methodist Parsonage at high noon Wednesday, when Mr. J. H. Leggett and Mrs. Nina Harrison were married in the presence of a few special friends, Rev. E. N. Harrison, in his most serious manner reading the impressive ring ceremony of the Methodist Ritual.

Immediately after the ceremony the newly weds boarded the North bound N. S. train for Norfolk, enroute to Washington D. C., Baltimore and other points for a short bridal trip.

These two young people are too well known to our people for us to elaborate upon their several merits.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Harrison, an exceptionally well beliked young lady, and the groom, while a town man, is a successful farmer, and is likewise beliked and highly esteemed by all our people.

Our sincere wishes for them is a long, prosperous and happy life.

Off For Camp.

Forty four, the largest draft of white boys going from this county to camp, left here on Tuesday morning over the A. C. L., for Camp Jackson, S. C.

As the most of the emen were from the lower part of the county, many of them came up Monday afternoon and spent the night in town, and on Tuesday morning, although the hour was early, a number of our ladies and men gathered at the depot to extend to them the glad hand and best wishes for their safety and success while away. Among the crowd was Mr. Harry Stell, loaded down with cigars, cigarettes, chewing gum, etc., which he distributed with a lavish hand to cheer the boys on their way.

On Monday night Rev. E. N. Harrison held a prayer service in the Methodist Church especially for these boys, and many of them took advantage of it, others attending the movies or fraternized with friends around the drug stores until bed time.

If we could place a million such men as these, well drilled, in France to-day the Stars and Stripes would undoubtedly float over Berlin before Christmas.

CLUB NOTES.

Now that the canning season is near, the women should see that their jars are in perfect condition, and that they have good rubbers. A large percentage of the loss in glass is caused by inferior rubbers. To effect a perfect seal it is absolutely necessary to have good ones, so do not economize on rubbers.

We hope to have a splendid exhibit of canned products for the fairs this fall. Keep this in mind and let every club member put up some pretty packs for this exhibit. Use the square Queen jars for these packs, or the No. 5042 jar. The latter is nice for berries.

MR. WILLIAMS WOODLEY HAS PASSED AWAY

Cyprian Williams Woodley, son of Hardy and Assenath (Alexander) Woodley, was born in South Fork Township, Tyrrell County, N. C., on June 6th, 1833. He was married to Miss Malissa E. Davenport August 4th, 1860. To this union were born five children: W. H. Woodley, Mrs. Pentie E. Clifton and Mrs. Malissa A. Davenport who survive him, and Malissa Debroe and Charles Levi who preceded him to the grave. He was converted about 1893, and joined the Methodist Protestant Church at Logan's Academy, Tyrrell County, near where Woodley's Chapel now stands, to which he moved his membership and remained a member of this church until his death.

He held his strength and activity remarkably well until a few weeks before his death when he suffered an attack of a gripe and bronchitis, from which he never recovered. His mind was clear and his memory excellent till the last of his earthly existence. On Wednesday, May 1st, 1918, at 1:30 P. M. his spirit took its flight into the eternal world. His age was 84 years, 10 months and 25 days.

The funeral service was conducted at the home on May 2nd, by his pastor, Rev. J. H. Abernethy of Creswell, and the remains were laid to rest in the graveyard near his home in Scuppernong Township, Washington County, near the body of Mr. Phelps, the discoverer of Lake Phelps.

He will be missed in the home, the community and the church. May his influence live for good and heaven's richest blessings rest on the grief-stricken relatives and friends.
