

Merchants Here To Handle War Stamps

Members of the Plymouth Merchants Association unanimously agreed to cooperate with the National Retailers Association in halting sales at all stores in the nation for a 15-minute period on Wednesday, July 1, to promote the sale of War Savings Bonds and Stamps. The action was taken at a special meeting of the local association Tuesday, and President E. E. Harrel later wired govern-making a determined effort to unseat Bonner, while friends of the latter have rallied to his support throughout the district and are waging a real fight to keep him in Congress. Little has been heard of Mr. Edwards, although he has been here several times and made a very favorable impression on those who talked with him.

Richard T. Fountain, of Rocky Mount, is generally given very little chance in his race against Josiah W. Bailey, of Raleigh, for United States Senator, and very little attention has been paid to this scrap by the people of this section. It is known that Fountain has some supporters in the section, however, and the neighboring county of Martin likely will give him a big vote.

On the Republican ballot, Sam J. Morris is opposing Stoner W. Klutz for the U. S. senatorial nomination. Very few Republicans are expected to vote for either of them in this county, according to present prospects.

Miss Virginia Norman Honored Wednesday

Miss Virginia Norman, bride-elect, was honored Wednesday evening at a weiner roast given in Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Norman's flower garden by the young ladies who work in the office of the North Carolina Pulp Company. Miss Norman was presented several wedding gifts at this time.

ment officials that Plymouth merchants would cooperate 100 per cent in the movement.

Mr. Harrel had a telegram from the national association asking that stores halt sales from 12 to 12:15 p. m., and devote that time to the sale of War Bonds and Stamps. Since the local stores close at 12 noon on Wednesdays, however, it was decided to halt the sales here from 11:45 to 12 in the morning in order to comply with the request.

At the meeting Tuesday, most of the merchants also agreed to carry War Stamps at all times and to suggest that customers take a portion of their change in stamps. It is believed the sale of stamps will be greatly stimulated here if all the merchants cooperate in this respect.

SENATOR J. W. BAILEY'S RECORD

Read and Think—

1. Opposed First Farm Relief Bill (Triple A) 1933.
2. Opposed Bankhead Cotton Control Bill 1934.
3. Opposed amended AAA Farm Bill, 1935.
4. Opposed and worked against paying soldier bonus.
5. Opposed old age security with destructive amendments.
6. Opposed bill prohibiting issuing tax free securities.
7. Opposed anti-Holding Co. Bill.
8. Opposed soil conservation and domestic allotment (new Farm Bill).
9. Opposed PREPAREDNESS AND OUR DEFENSE
10. Opposed Pepper resolution transferring 24 obsolete warships to England.
11. Opposed transfer of Axis ships to England for defense.

Senator Bailey did not support the President on a single one of 10 test votes on domestic issues during this present term as Senator. (See statement of New Republic carried in News and Observer May 17, 1942.) Only three Senators of both parties are listed as opposing the administration on all these votes. The other two were Bridgers, of New Hampshire, and White, of Maine, both Republicans. Bailey has not introduced a single important bill for the relief of our people during his twelve years in office.

Coal Users Advised To Buy Supply Now

People who use coal for fuel are being advised by government officials to lay in their supply now for next winter in order to eliminate any possibility of rationing. There is no shortage of coal, but there will be a shortage of transportation, especially next winter, and if coal consumers wait until later to buy their supply, they may not be able to obtain it.

Donald M. Nelson, head of the War Production Board, is authority for the advice to buy coal early. He says that the railroads will be required to devote most of their equipment to moving men and materials needed in various war zones, and that the coal situation will become serious unless immediate steps are taken to relieve it.

BOY DROWNS

(Starts on Page One)

A few weeks ago, the boy took an immediate fancy to the river at Jamesville, and was said to have gone there in anticipation of getting a ride on a speed boat. He was accompanied by his brothers, but after waiting some time for a ride without success, they returned home. A strong current in the river is making the search difficult, but a number of volunteers were still on the job there this morning.

Mr. Davenport is employed at the plant of the North Carolina Pulp Company here. The family formerly lived on Highway 64 about half way between Plymouth and Roper.

S. S. Rasmuson Appointed Army Second Lieutenant

Silas Stebbins Rasmuson, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Rasmuson, of Plymouth, was one of the 146 graduates from the Officer's Candidate School at the Ordnance Training Center, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., recently and has been given an appointment as second lieutenant in the Army Ordnance Department. The graduation exercises were held Saturday of last week.

Lieutenant Rasmuson is a graduate of the University of Alabama and served as chemist in a paper mill before enlisting in the Army on October 14, 1940. He was serving as a supply clerk at the replacement training center before he was appointed to the officer candidate school.

SOYBEANS
Preliminary reports from Wilson County farmers indicate a substantial increase in the soybean acreage this year, says J. C. Tomlinson, assistant farm agent.

TIN
Deliveries of tin cans for home canning will not be affected by the recent curtailment order, since the Government hopes that an increase in home preserving will relieve pressure on commercial canners.
