BAPTIST REVIVAL IS REVIEWED BY PASTOR

Rev. Mr. McDaniel Reviews Revival At His Church; Feels That Great Good Has Been Accomplished; Meeting Closed Friday.

By request of the News, Rev. A. W. McDaniel, pastor of the Brevard Baptist church, makes the following review of the revival of two weeks at that church.

"The Special meetings at the Baptist church closed last Friday evening with a large attendance and good interest. Rev. W. D. Nowlin of Knoxville, Tenn., endeared himself to the people of the community both by his pleasant personality and his earnest forceful preaching. His propositions were clear cut and grew directly out of his text. His sermons were usually what the homilist calls textual, though a few were topical and some were largely expository. Having an aversion to sensational methods, or to playing on the emotions of his auditors, Dr. Nowlin placed strong and convincing proof of the claims of Christ on the individual life.

"Mr. E. L. Wolslagel, who conducted the music, is a whole team of himself. He is a good conductor and an effective soloist. He is a good leader of the preliminary service and a tireless personal worker. He has a fund of anecdotes and ready for instant use.

"The weather was bad the most of the time during the twelve days of the meetings but the audiences were large notwithstanding. People of all denominations attended and enjoyed the services. The spiritual life of church members was quickened and a considerable number of new members were received into the Baptist and Methodist churches and others are to be received soon.

"Judging by the crowd who gathered at the depot to see these brethren take their departure, and by the appreciative words heard spoken since, one thinks that they will be long and affectionately remembered in Brevard.

"One feature of especial notice is the complete and mutual capture effected of Rev. Nowlin and Mr. Wolslagel by the Brevard Institute and vice versa. Besides large individual attendance the Institute attended on masse three times and the revivalists held services with the Institute twice."

THIRD LYCEUM COMING HERE ON FEBRUARY 7

The third of a series of entertainments by the Redpath Lyceum Bureau will be given at the Auditorium on Wednesday, Feb. 7.

The evening will be given over to Miss Evelyn Bargelt, rapid-fire cartoonist and artist in readings and interpretations.

She is reputed to be one of the best known entertainers in the lyceum and chautauqua world. For some time she appeared with other attractions but later yielded to the insistent demand that she give an entire evening and her success at this has been pronounced.

The program will not begin until 8:30 so as to give church attendants an opportunity to be present.

METHODIST MEETING WILL BEGIN SUNDAY

Rev. Mr. Poovey Outlines Plans For Revival to Begin at Methodist Church Sunday; Pastor Will Do Most of the Preaching.

At the request of the News, W. E. Poovey, pastor of the Methodist church, gives the following statement concerning the revival to begin Sunday at his church:

"The special services will begin at the Methodist church on Sunday morning. The Sunday services will be at the usual hours, 11 a. m. and 7:15 at night. During the week the pastor will preach each evening, and beginning Tuesday, Prof. Miles Reece will make a series of four "Quiet Talks" each afternoon at 3 o'clock.

"In addition to the regular chorus choir, which will be made up from the best talent of the various churches, there will be a children's choir in the afternoons, and a senior choir in the evenings. Mr. Milam will meet the children and youth for the first time on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the graded school building. The senior choir will be made up of those who know and love the old songs. This will be organized on Monday evening at 7:15. Those who will volunteer their services for the meeting in the chorus choir are invited to meet with Mr. Milam Saturday evening at the church.

"Those who know Prof. Reece will look forward to his "Quiet Talks" as a rare spiritual treat. And if those who are not acquainted with this quiet man of God will attend this series of "Talks," they will doubtless come to be better acquainted with God.

"This is the first meeting to be held during the present pastorate. And feeling that if the pastor will lead in his first meeting himself, and have hearty support of his people, better and more lasting results will be secured. He will do most of the preaching.

"Read Numbers 10-29."

CEMETERY GROUNDS WANTED

The real estate firm of Galloway & Minnis, according to an advertisement in this week's News, is in search of suitable grounds for a cemetery near Brevard. It is understood that a movement is on foot to make preparations for many years to come and to encourage the use of one cemetery rather than many, as at present.

ALLEN'S PRINCESS COPPER IRON BEARING RANGE

"And mine is a beauty. Besides having the same reliable baking qualities and fuel saving features as mother's, it has many new conveniences that weren't heard of then. For instance my new Princess has two large cabinets (instead of shelves) which provide a handy place in which to warm the dishes and set things. The 10-gallon direct-heating copper reservoir joins the fire box, giving an abundance of instant hot water. Pipe behind warming closet gives greater comfort—more cooking surface. In fact I just couldn't cook without my Princess. These Ranges are on special display in our store. Call and see them."
