The next meeting will be held with Mrs. J. W. McMinn.

Mr. Ranson Entertains Philatheas.

Henry C. Ranson entertained the Philathea class of the Brevard Methodist Sunday school, of which he is teacher, on last Friday night with an oyster supper at the Aetna club hotel.

Mr. Ranson was determined to increase the class attendance and as a stimulus promised to give an entertainment when the attendance reached twenty five. It did not take long to enlarge the class and now more than 30 members are enrolled with a good attendance every Sunday.

Despite the unfavorable weather there was a good attendance of Philatheas Friday night and music and readings were enjoyed along with the supper. Miss Bertie Ballard and Mrs. J. R. Hamlin gave readings and Mrs. W. E. Poovey and Miss Maud Allison rendered musical selections.

At the business meeting it was decided to have a box supper on the night of March 17 to raise money to be invested in carpets for the church.

The current issue of the Baraca-Philathea Herald carries a picture of the Philathea class and in the account of the class work the following interesting announcement is made:

Plans have been perfected for a class room and pledges taken. The class room will probably cost $300 with two class rooms, one for the Baracas and one for the Philathea class. The Baraca class will assist in this venture.

T. E. L. Class to Meet

Mrs. C. K. Osborne will entertain the T. E. L. class of the Baptist Sunday school at the home of Mrs. W. M. Henry on Tuesday March 13, at 3:15 o'clock. This meeting has been changed from Monday to Tuesday, because the Mission study class meets on Monday. Some of the members want to attend both meetings.

ROMANCE IN REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

Registrar of Deeds G. C. Kirkpatrick comes in for more of the romantic side of life than merely issuing license to candidates for matrimony. Some times the applicants want the little formal ceremonies over without any flourish of trumpets and so the registrar is accommodating. Cona Lee, aged 23, and Miss Flora McKinnon, aged 17, both of Lake Toxaway, appeared for license on Tuesday and wanted a quick job done and the registrar called in Squire Henning, who makes a specialty of such matters, and soon it was a happy ending—husband and wife, who went on their way rejoicing.

Use for the Broken Clock.

If a small clock is beyond repair do not throw it away. An excellent idea is to set it aside to be used in case of illness. It will be found just the thing to place in the sick room to indicate the next time for taking medicine. As each dose is given to the patient turn the hands to the hour when the following dose is to be given. In this way all danger of errors is eliminated.

SPARTANBURG TALENT AT AUDITORIUM FRIDAY NIGHT

Miss Irene Montgomery Arranges For Interesting Entertainment At Auditorium For Benefit Of Public School and Library.

Miss Irene Montgomery has arranged for an entertainment on the night of March 9 at the Auditorium. It will consist of readings, violin and voice selections by three young ladies of Spartanburg.

Miss Montgomery has about 100 children in the primary grade, which is divided into two sections, morning and afternoon, and the entertainment is for the purpose of raising money with which to furnish supplies for this department of the school work and for the benefit of the public school library.

The program will be rendered by Miss Marie Eaton, violinist; Miss Louise Epton, reader, and Miss Marie Dean, singer, all of Spartanburg and friends of Miss Montgomery. They will come supported by strong endorsements as to their talents in the parts they will take in the entertainment.

Miss Montgomery has been providing supplies for her department without calling on the school authorities for help and funds realized from the entertainment more than necessary for such supplies will be applied to the library, in which the school children are taking considerable interest.

Oh, Hush!

An authority on zoology, Ellen Velvin, author of "From Jungle to Zoo," says that there are only two absolutely dumb animals in the world. They are the giraffe and the kangaroo.
