JUDGE FAULKNER HAS BIG TATERS, BY GOLLY

In digging a bushel and a half of potatoes from his patch the other day, Judge W. H. Faulkner was so impressed with the fine appearance of some of the lot that he selected nine of them for weighing. They weighed 9 1/4 pounds.

Comparing notes with A. E. Smith, who was also reasonably proud of his crop, the judge found that nine of Mr. Smith's potatoes weighed 7 1/4 pounds. "Now," asked the judge, "ain't that what you call a record breaker? By golly!"

Something to sell means something to advertise.

The instrumental parts were played by Mrs. P. N. Simon.

BOY SCOUTS LEAVE FOR CAMP LOOKING GLASS

About 20 boy scouts under the leadership of Scout master J. R. Hay left Monday afternoon for the upper Davidson river valley for a ten days encampment. Woodford Zachary accompanied the party in the temporary capacity of assistant scoutmaster.

The site selected for the camps is at the fork of the Carr Lumber Company railroad, a short distance below Looking Glass falls. There the tents will be pitched and a shack made of rough lumber. The party will remain in camp for the remainder of the week, spending Sunday there, and returning next Tuesday.
