NEW HOUSES IN SELICA

House building at Selica is just now in a flourishing state. Beside the new house on the farm sold by H. N. Blake to the commissioners for a county home, two other houses are being erected.

H. N. Blake is building a 7-room house on a lot near the railroad on the east side of Cathey's creek. It is a wooden building with a cobblestone basement.

C. C. Duckworth is also putting up an eight-room house for his own use on his land a short distance south of the school building. The basement and first story will be of cobblestone, the second story of cut rock.

W. B. F. Wright and E. F. Moffett are in charge of the stone and carpenter work respectively in both these houses.

Five of the guarantors have gone to the front, others are subject to call; don't let us lose anything for them. The Daughters of the Confederacy are selling the tickets, and Transylvania Chapter expects every Daughter to do her duty and sell at least three tickets. Brevard Institute has bought a block of 100 student tickets; keep up with the Institute. Every cent of the money stays in the state—$285.00 goes to the Piedmont Lyceum Bureau of Charlotte; $62.50 pays for the Auditorium; the balance (if there is any) pays for this advertisement and goes to the Daughters of the Confederacy to pay for rent, for insurance, for scholarships, for books and for librarian's salary due and overdue. Your summer visitors admire your town library and support it. Keep up with the visitors.

If you can't read buy a ticket anyway and your contribution shall go towards paying for a teacher for illiterates. If you can't pay for a season ticket, get your friends to join you, pay the $1.50 and go to at least one performance.

Mail orders for season tickets received up to Monday, when single tickets will be on sale at Clement's.
