Patterson's Removal Sale

HENDERSONVILLE

Railroad Fare

We will pay your fare both ways upon the purchase of $20.00 or over.

Read what this means to you! We will not move any of this stock to our new store. That means that nothing will be undone to sell all goods regardless of former cost or value. Now don't this sound good to you? It should. It means that you can buy goods here at prices absolutely less than a merchant can buy for in the market today.

Right in the heart of the season, just when you need merchandise, and when goods are scarcest ever known in the history of merchandising and prices on every article keep going up from day to day, we are going just to ignore these hard facts by inaugurating a sale that will be of the greatest saving for you. You ask why? The answer is plain: We are going to move into a Brand-New Beautiful Building on January 1st, 1918, and as a last token of appreciation of the people's patronage here in our old stand, we are going to give you a sale such as you yourself would wish for. Now, good people, do not overlook this wonderful opportunity; but we ask you to make every effort possible to come to our store during our last sale in the old stand. The stock will be arranged in such simple and plain way that a child will be able to buy. Every article will be marked in plain figures and not one article in the store which will not be REDUCED.

Sale Begins Wednesday, December 5th, and Continues Until Monday, December 24th.

We will need extra help. If you are at leisure and feel that you can sell goods, of course you would be able to sell, as the goods will be marked in plain figures. But we want both ladies and men, who can hustle and smile, as we will be busy. Come in and see Mr. J. B. Saddin, who is in charge of this wonderful Bargain Event. If you can't come, drop a card, and explain what you can do.

The prices we are quoting you below are only a meagre idea what we have in store for you. It is impossible to print with printers' ink just what we have. We are quoting you these few items just to give you an idea of the vastness of savings to you.

And you know that when you can save NOW, you should do it. Then be Here!

LOOK!
