Dorothy Phillips in the five-part photoplay
"THE PRICE OF SILENCE"

A villain, possessed of a wife's secret, demands as the price of his silence that she give him, as his wife, her only daughter. The degraded wretch, three times the girl's age, insists the mother is distracted, shuddering from fear of exposure and dread of her daughter's unhappy future. Come and see how fate intervenes and saves mother and daughter.

A TWICE-TOLD TALE

One of Interest to Our Readers.

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long laps of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of a Morganton woman is confirmed after six years.

Mrs. A. E. Payne, Green street, Morganton, N. C., says: "I suffered from pains in the small of my back and my kidneys acted irregularly.
Finally I bought Doan's Kidney Pills and they relieved the pains and made me feel much better generally."

OVER SIX YEARS LATER, Mrs.
Payne said: "I always keep Doan's Kidney Pills on hand. Whenever my back gets lame I use them and they quickly relieve me."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Payne has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co.,
