William Fox presents Sonia Markova and David Harklin in the five part drama:

A Heart's Revenger

This play is full of action and thrills. It begins in Washington where a crafty Russian Baron aided by a Chinese doctor, with his Chinese medicines, is trying to win the hand of the daughter of an attaché of the Russian Government. The girl is in love with and is engaged to marry an American who is in the service of the U. S. as an aviator. The end comes in one of those daredevil motorboat chases. The water scenes are particularly attractive. A somewhat new element in pictures is that of a Chinese, who enters into the scheme of things nicely and lends much celestial color to the picture.
