

The Farmer to Feed the World

Uncle Sam

Demands that we raise bumper crops this year to feed ourselves and the starving millions in Europe. Can we do it? We can, if we have the equipment, but we can't unless we are prepared.

Come to our store and let us show you what we have in farming tools—and we sell them for just a little less than the other fellow.

We have Shovels, Forks, Hoes, Rakes, Mattocks and Picks.

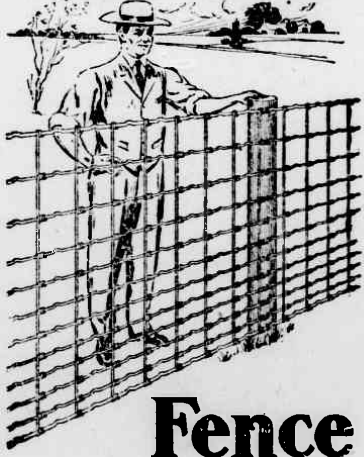

WE HAVE BROWN'S IMPROVED CULTIVATOR

We have in stock at present and at all times a full supply of the famous AMERICAN FENCING wire for all kinds of fences—Poultry, Hog, Cattle.

Now is the time to begin to fix up your fences to keep the stock out of your corn field or garden.

Come in and let's talk it over. We will save you some money.

PLUMBING and PLUMBING SUPPLIES

ROSMAN NEWS

J. Z. Stroupe and R. K. Powell have made two other successful raids on blockade stills in the Reed's Siding section. Last Tuesday they raided a large distillery across Toxaway River about 3 miles from Reid's Siding and captured the still and outfit of 100 gallons, 300 gallons of beer and two large mashers. Also raided same section Thursday and captured a distillery outfit of 75 gallons and a large quantity of mashers of about 7 bushels. Officers say that they seem to have an incentive for stills in that section.

Last report for Dillie Fisher was that he was improving nicely.

C. Pharr, returned to his home near Olin, N. C. last week.

Mr. Owenby has taken charge of the Rosman Hotel which was recently vacated by Mrs. Burgess.

Miss Harriet Platt, who spent several months in Va. is again here with her sister, Mrs. Claude Green.

Mary Current returned recently from Olin, N. C. where she visited relatives and friends.

EAST FORK FACTS

Mrs. Wade Summey and little son, Louis spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Garren.

V. L. Neill had the misfortune to lose a fine horse near Charlie Garren's last week.

J. A. Gillespie has gone to Columbia S. C. to visit his son Elmer who is expected to arrive from France about the 17 of this month.

Mrs. A. A. Cassell has been suffering with rheumatism but is better at this writing.

R. A. Garren has traded his mule for a fine young mare.

Boy Garren, son of Joe Garren, who has been making his home for some time with R. A. Garren has gone to spend a while with J. S. Garren of Pickens S. C.

Mrs. Chas. Garren spent a few days in Brevard the first of the week.

LET US "TELL YOUR FORTUNE"

We are experienced in "Fortune Telling," having served the people of Transylvania in this respect for a number of years, and we guarantee to be more accurate than most fortune tellers. Besides, if your future doesn't look as bright as it should, we can show you how to make it brighter.

The man whose future is brightest, and the man who is, and should be, most contented these days, is the man who is planning for the future—the man who puts aside a certain amount of his income each week or each month so that when he grows old or becomes disabled he will not have to depend on relatives for support.
