

PUBLIC NOW TOLD ALL ABOUT TANLAC

Authorities Now Show Just What
This Medicine Really Is

In a recent issue of this paper announcement was made that Tanlac now has the largest sale of any medicine of its kind in the world, and that more than twelve million bottles had been sold during the past four years.

These are unusual figures and the question naturally arises in the mind of the reader why this phenomenal success and why has this preparation so far out-stripped all other medicines of its kind. It is only natural therefore that the the manufacturers should offer some explanation to satisfy the public.

In the first place Tanlac is manufactured in one of the largest and most modernly equipped laboratories in this country. Its formula is purely ethical and complies with all national and state pure food and drug laws. Although there are ten ingredients in Tanlac, each of which is of recognized therapeutic value.

Many of these ingredients have been individually known and used since civilization first began, and some of them have been used and prescribed by leading physicians everywhere but until they were brought together in proper proportion and association as in the Tanlac formula, humanity had not heretofore realized their full value and effect.

In referring to one of the more important ingredients of Tanlac, the Encyclopedia Britanica says: "It has long been the source of the most valuable tonic medicines that have ever been discovered." In referring to others of the general tonic drugs contained in Tanlac the 13th Edition of Potter's Therapeutics, a standard medical text book, states that—"they impart general tone and strength to the entire system, including all organs and tissues."

This same well known authority in describing the physiological action of still another of the ingredients of Tanlac which is of value in treating what is commonly known as "a run-down condition" uses the following expression: "It is highly esteemed in loss of appetite during convalescence from acute diseases."

There are certain other elements in Tanlac which because of their influence upon the appetite, digestion, assimilation and elimination improve the nutrition and vital activity of all the tissue and organs of the body and produce that state of general tonic which is called health.

In discussing another ingredient the Encyclopedia Britanica says: "It is one of the most efficient of that class of substances which act upon the stomach so as to invigorate digestion and thereby increase the general nutrition. It is used in dyspepsia, chlorosis, anemia and various other diseases in which tone of the stomach and alimentary canal is deficient." Concerning still another ingredient this same standard authority says: "It causes dilation of the gastric blood vessels, increases secretion of the gastric juice, and causes greater activity in the movements of the muscular layers in the walls of the stomach. It also tends to lessen the sensibility of the stomach, and so may relieve gastric pain."

The United States Dispensatory makes the following comment regarding another ingredient: "It may be used in all cases of pure debility of the digestive organs or where a general tonic impression is required. Dyspepsia, atonic gout hysteria, and intermittent fever are among the many affections in which it has proven useful."

There are certain other ingredients described in the Dispensatory and in other standard medical text books as having a beneficial action upon the organs of secretion, whose proper functioning results in the purification of the blood streams passing thru them. In this manner objectionable and poisonous ingredients of the blood are removed, and the entire system is invigorated and vitalized.

Tanlac was designed primarily for the correction of disorders of the stomach, liver, and bowels. At the same time, however, it is a powerful reconstructive tonic and body builder for it naturally follows that any medicine that brings about proper assimilation of the food and the thorough elimination of the waste products must therefore have a far-reaching and most beneficial effect upon the entire system.

Although Tanlac's claims for supremacy are abundantly supported by the world's leading authorities, it is the people themselves that have really made Tanlac what it is. Millions upon millions have used it, and have told other millions what it has done for them. That is why Tanlac has become the real sensation of the drug trade in this country, and that is also why it is the most widely talked-of medicine in the world today. Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

THE PRAYER CORNER

The League of Nations

At Chateau-Thierry, the Argonne Forest and St. Mihiel America assumed new responsibilities. The Land of the Free heartened European nations with soldiers with munitions and with her vast organizations. But the most heartening contribution she made to them was the declaration of the principles for which she fought.

At a little cottage on the hillside a broken hearted mother wept over the loss of her first born. There was another little cottage on another hillside and others and others, thousands of others. Those mothers' boys were lying beneath the sod of France. The men and women in these little cottages want future families spared the agonies thro which they have passed.

Human nature prompts a brotherhood, a sisterhood. There will never be another war if human nature has its way. It is proposterous to declare that the League of Nations is contrary to human nature. It is contrary only to bestial nature.

Human nature is responsible for the "Peace Conference" and it is due to the promptings of human nature that Woodrow Wilson has taken such a prominent part therein. The enemy has been beaten but as long as one nation is determined to wage war, Democracy cannot be assured without such a document as The League of Nations. No longer is there independence in isolation.

A PRAYER

Unto Thee, O Lord, we cry, in the night of the world's darkness for the coming of the dawn of peace. Is not the earth Thine? Are not the hearts of men in Thy keeping?

Remember the desolate homes, the growth of hatred, the hindrance of good, and make an end of war. By the love we bear to fathers, brothers, lovers, sons, by the woe brought home to the hearts of mothers and by the orphaned children's need hasten Thou the coming of the ages of good will. Quicken our consciences that we may feel the sin and shame of war. Inspire us with courage that we may lift up our voices against private greed, social injustice, the aggression of the strong on the weak and whatsoever else work enmity between man and man, class and class, nation and nation. Create within us a passion for the reign of righteousness, the spread of brotherhood, and good will among the nations so that we may hasten the fulfillment of Thine ancient word, "Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore." Amen.

GALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts Like Dynamite on a Sluggish Liver and You Lose a Day's Work.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.—Advertisement.

Mrs. D. Davis, Main St., Brevard, says: "I had a bad case of kidney trouble some time ago. My back was weak and when I would bend over sharp pains would shoot thru me. I often got dizzy and black specks came before my eyes. Mornings I was lame and sore and didn't feel like doing much. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and they made me feel much better. Continued use entirely cured me of this trouble."
