Columbus Can Well Accommodate All Who Attend Methodist Celebration, Officials Say

NO CROWD which has been proposed for the Methodist Centenary Celebration will swamp Columbus, according to Mayor George J. Karb, who has received some inquiries from distant points regarding the ability of the Capital City to take care of the hundreds of thousands of Methodists coming from all over the United States for the Centenary Celebration, June 20 to July 13.

Mayor Karb says: "Columbus has always been equal to any situation. We are not going to fail the exposition crowds, no matter how many thousand there are. Tell them to come to Columbus town. We are ready with open hearts and open doors. Columbus can do it."

James T. Daniels, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, says: "We can easily and satisfactorily accommodate three hundred thousand visitors." Organizing Secretary H. B. Dickson says: "Three hundred thousand my minimum estimate of attendance. Confident Columbus can take care of twice that number."

Collection of Indian Curios at the Methodist Centenary Celebration

WHAT has been pronounced the greatest private collection of Indian curios in America has been loaned to the Methodist Centenary Celebration at Columbus, O., by H.

Typewriter Used As a Pendulum. In the show window of a downtown typewriter concern stands an imposing looking clock more than six feet tall. It is attractive, but what especially invites the attention is the pendulum. The bob is unlike any other in the city, being a full sized type-

W. Palm, an Indian trader of Ortonville, Minnesota. Mr. Palm is here shown with some of his interesting relics.

Indian exhibitions will have a considerable place in the Celebration. Pueblos will unconcernedly mold pottery before throngs of curious spectators, just as their grandfathers did before the white man invaded their lands. Navajos will weave rugs and St. Regis make basketry—all actually living in their native homes, be they pueblos or wigwams.

NO SEATS RESERVED

First Come, First Served, at Coliseum at Methodist Centenary

At a conference of Director General S. Earl Taylor, Dr. Fred B. Fisher, H. B. Dickson and other members of the Centenary Exposition staff, it was decided that there will be no seats reserved in the Coliseum for "The Wayfarer" pageant presentations at the Methodist Centenary Celebration, Columbus, O., June 20-July 13.

All seats will be available to spectators as soon as the doors of the Coliseum are opened each evening. "It will be a case of 'first come, first served,'" says Mr. Dickson. Season tickets to the exposition grounds admit the bearer once to the pageant in the Coliseum. Single admission fees at the gate require an additional 50 cents for the Coliseum evening feature writer, one that could be set up on a desk and put in active use. The suspended typewriter swings to and fro all day long. Judging from the excellent time the clock keeps, the typewriter bob does its work faithfully and well.—New York Times.
