REMINISCENCES

Ninety-one years ago to-day there was a man child born to John and Elizabeth Hamlin in Buncombe Co., North Carolina. He was born in a log house with two doors and one window, hard by the big road on the Glady branch thirty-five miles west of Asheville in the foot hills of the Blue Ridge on the south and the Balsam and the Pink Beds on the west and north. His birth place was under the shade of Mt. Mitchell and in the midst of the wild beasts of the forests.

He was a goodly child, his veins were full of blood of the John Bull variety on the father's side and Canadian Dutch on the mother's side. Hence his genealogy is somewhat far-fetched. His Great Grandfathers had crossed the great expanse of salt water in a sail boat and miraculously escaped getting drowned. One of them was James Hamlin and the other was John Ragean. So the child was named James Ragean. He grew up like calves of the stall, nourished on the milk of the flock and such things as grew out of the ground that was good for food.

He grew and waxed strong. In the course of time he taketh to wife one of the King's daughters, and sons and daughters were born to them.

While his offspring were yet of tender age, he gathered all together and went into a far country. He made a league with the native of that country and being under the tongue of good report, his wife and daughters fair to look upon, his sons well favored, and he being smooth of tongue and of good face, he soon became a teacher to whom they gave heed.

After seventy years of active life, but now retired, the son of the Glady branch sends greetings to the land of his nativity.

Oh the transporting rapturous scene,

That rushes to my sight,
Your fields arrayed in living green,
Your rivers of delight—

The old North Carolina Home,
Sweet, Home.

REV. A. J. VALLERY MAKES STATEMENT

Says Tanlac Has Overcome His Troubles And He Feels Like A New Man.

"I feel that it would be helping others to tell what Tanlac has done for me," said Rev. A. J. Vallery, living at 834 Chelsea ave., Memphis, Tenn.

"About three years ago," he continued, "I had a general breakdown that made me very nervous. I had a sour stomach and would spit up undigested food. The pains in my stomach hurt so much at times that I thought they would kill me. I also suffered with rheumatic pains in my joints and my kidneys were in bad shape, my sleep was poor and I felt so tired all the time that I could not do my work.

"Since taking Tanlac I have been relieved of indigestion and those pains are all gone. My kidneys don't trouble me any, I am not so nervous like I was and I can sleep fine every night. My strength and energy has been restored and I feel like a new man."
