MR. DUCKWORTH COMES AGAIN

Editor Brevard News:
Some one said to me last Saturday: "Have you read the Brevard News this week?" I answered "no". "Well you want to read it because there is two articles in it sitting up side by side, they look like twin brothers." And let me suggest Editor that we leave them to remain as twin brothers and lets call them Esau and Jacob and lets be right quiet and let the people say if time goes on which is Esau and which is Jacob.

Now there is a few things Editor that I want to say to you through your paper what I have said about the ladies the people will read for themselves just as soon as the new paper is established, let it be one year or five years, the bulletin that I gave you for publication known as the Associational Director's fifth message will go forth to the public without any changes. And may I say that I take no offence from you on the pro-German, why do you know Mr. Len G. Broughton call the Hon. W. J. Bryan that name in the Grove Park dining room. Why do you know a good brother Baptist called me that to my face at the State Baptist Convention held in Durham. And will you write down that all the bulletins will go forth again to the people if God so directs. Why Editor you may have the privilege some day of reading and rereading and hearing read my second and fourth bulletin that you so generously and kindly let go through your paper. Just so often as the Children of Israel and the seed of Abraham has read of the account of God bringing the children out of Egypt. Editor I fear the great and vital trouble with the Brevard News is its legal attorney. So don't think for a moment that I don't wish you from the depths of my heart success and don't think that I referred to your father any other way than he was my friend. I shall never forget the encouragement he gave me to go and preach the gospel neither shall I ever forget the last talk I had with him on his front porch. I believe he was one servant that loved his Lord and I pray don't think I was offering any bluff when I offered you a gift of $250.00 would take from $500.00 to $1000.00 common stock in buying out the Brevard News plant. Times will prove as to our true calling, you as an Editor and myself as a preacher. Editor, I close pray tell us who wrote the answer to my article. A great many of the people are saying that our friend Wm. E. Breese wrote the the answer. I beg of you be fair with Mr. Breese as I have tried to be with our friend C. B. Deaver that he has not had any part in writing the associational bulletins because I say once more that he had nothing to do with it except he handed to you my second bulletin and he did modify it by marking out two words I had said: "Hell sent scheme" and he marked out "Hell sent" and it read "scheme" which I thanked him for doing. I want every one to consider that C. B. Deaver is my friend and I don't think for a moment he is your enemy. I consider him a fine citizen and an upright and Christian gentlemen and I think he will prove himself to the people of this county. It just takes time, that's all, also Editor let me say I meant no slur to you or the Episcopal Church when I said you had drifted into said church, I used that word it is commonly used when we depart, you know there is a song, no doubt you have heard it with these words, "Drifting away from God" I think I am broad enough Baptist and fair enough that any Americans, thank God, have the free privilege given to this country, by our forefathers that we should worship God according to the dictates of our heart. But I was narrow enough as a Baptist to say that you had drifted away from the faith that was once delivered to the Saints, read Jude. I know that I highly esteem all church people of all denominations when they are sincere to their beliefs. So may I beg to remain your friend.

Would-be preacher,
C. C. DUCKWORTH.

Mr. C. C. Duckworth:
Now, my reply to your last episode is going to be very brief as I do not care to take up but one question and that question is "Tell me who wrote that reply to my article?" You accuse Mr. Breese of having written it I can truthfully say that Mr. Breese knew absolutely nothing of either of the articles until the paper came out. I take the whole responsibility of that reply and I solemnly affirm that I had no help in the preparation of of the same.
With no hard feelings, and with the very best wishes for the success of the 75 Million Campaign, I am,
Yours very truly,
C. B. OSBORNE.

ROSMAN NEWS

W. Winchester and son, Leo, of Pickens, S. C. have been visiting in Rosman for several days. Dewey, an other son of Mr. Winchester is carrying them back home in a car and expects to remain in South Carolina for a few days.

Mesdames A. O. Kitchen and W. E. Shipman spent the greater part of last week in Hendersonville on account of the very serious illness of their brother, Mr. Bud Glazner.

We are sorry to announce the death of Mrs. Joe Revis who died Monday evening at the home of her father, Mr. M. B. Chandler. Mrs. Revis has been sick for some time and a few days ago was brought to her father's home at Rosman in order that she might have the constant attention of a physician.

All efforts to save her life failed and we were brought to the stern realization that

There is a vacant place on earth Which no one else can fill, A precious soul has passed away into The realms of God's own will.

Mrs. Revis leaves a husband and a large family of children.

Misses Lucile Wilson and Carrie Mae Raxter were the guests of Mrs. Jordan Whitmire last week.

Mrs. Jim Brackens, who has been in ill health for some time, is now improving rapidly.

We are pleased to announce the great interest being manifested in the big revival now going on at the Baptist Church. All honor to Mr. King and others who are devoting their time and efforts to the success of those who are now joining with this noble band of Christian workers.

Joe Hooker of Canton, N. C. and his brother, Wriley, of Rosman spent a greater part of last week at the home of M. H. Jackson.

J. Z. Stroupe, chief of Revenue Officers, J. A. Galloway and J. H. Reed made a raid last Friday in the southeast corner of Old Toxaway near what is know as the Devil's Hole. They captured all fixtures of a large distillery and small quantity of been. The still had been removed. Also on Monday of this week J. A. Galloway and Chief Stroupe made a raid above Rosman in answer to a report but parties seemed to have moved out everything a day or two previous to their arrival except an ax and a hoe, flake stand, fermenter and one bucket. The plant was located about 2 and one half miles from town on the north prong of French Broad river on Dead Fall branch. Chief captured and brought in the axe and hoe. Any one claiming them can get them by only coming to them and describing them.
