WEDNESDAY BOOK CLUB FAVORS LEAGUE OF NATIONS

The following telegram was sent to Senator Lee S. Overman by the ladies of the Wednesday Book Club asking him to use his influence in behalf of the League of Nations:

Senator Lee S. Overman,
United States Senate,
Washington, D. C.

As a club of women who are vitally interested in the good of the nation we wish to add our moral support to the League of Nations and to ask you to use your influence in securing the passage of the League according to President Wilson's wishes.

Brevard Wednesday Club,
Mrs. O. L. Erwin, Cor. Secy.

Following is the Senator's reply.
Secretary, Brevard Wednesday Club,
Brevard, N. C.

Dear Madam:
Replying to your telegram of Oct. the 3rd, I beg to assure you that it will afford me pleasure to continue to exert every influence at my command in behalf of the early ratification of the proposed League of Nations Covenant and Treaty of Peace with Germany.

Thanking you for your telegram I am
Respectfully yours,
LEE. S. OVERMAN.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

There will be a Halloween Party on the 31st of October to be given under the auspices of the U. D. C. at their Chapter House on Main Street.

The amusements of the evening will consist of a bon fire, games, fortune telling and a rummage sale.

Refreshments will be sold; wench-rabbit, sandwiches, chestnuts and apples. The public is invited to attend this party, all those desiring to do so may come in costume.

The proceeds will go to diminish the $100.00 debt which now rests on the library. The addition which was made two years ago in the building has been used for the past six months by the county demonstrator as her office and any contributions, large or small from residents of the county will be greatly appreciated by members of the U. D. C.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. In Serbia.

As far back as the first winter of the war, the Red Cross sent to Serbia a sanitary commission that effectively checked the scourge of typhus, but after the United States entered the conflict the Red Cross was able, in August, 1917, to send a full commission that carried on extensive relief operations among the suffering refugees of the tortured nation. Hospitals were established, the refugees fed, clothed and given medical attention, the army supplied with much needed dental treatment, farm machinery, and seeds provided to help the Serbs redeem their land to productivity, and, not least, measures undertaken for the succor of the children. The terrible condition into which these helpless victims of the war had fallen is well portrayed by this photograph of a little Serbian girl wearing the rags and expression of hopeless dismay that were all she possessed when the Red Cross came.

EARN MORE INTEREST ON CONVERTED BONDS

Government Will Receive Older Issues in Exchange for Newer Securities Yielding Higher Rate of Income.

More than $300,000 in increased interest will be paid within the next six months to owners of bonds of the Second Liberty Loan and the First Liberty Loan Converted, if they present their holdings at once for conversion into 4 1/4 per cent bonds. This announcement, which of course applies only to those bond holders who have not converted their securities already, has just been made by the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond. Government statistics show that there are outstanding in the United States about $750,000,000 of these bonds which have not been converted, a block of no small size being owned, it is believed, in this state.

Owners of bonds of the Second Liberty Loan should have them converted before November 15, 1919. Bonds of the First Liberty Loan Converted ought to be presented for conversion before December 15, 1919. These securities will be received by local banks in exchange for either coupon or registered 4 1/4 bonds. The new rates of interest will begin on the dates given.

However, unless the bonds are presented for conversion before November 15, and December 15, respectively, the 4 1/4 per cent rate of interest will not begin until May 15, 1920, in the case of the Second Liberty Loan and not until June 15, 1920 on the bonds of the First Liberty Loan Converted. In other words, by waiting until after November 15 and December 15, respectively, the holders of the converted bonds, as indicated, would lose six months interest at one-fourth of one per cent, which on all the unconverted bonds outstanding of the issues named would amount to more than $900,000.

Bonds of the First Liberty Loan originally paid 3 1/2 per cent. Bonds of the Second Liberty Loan carried interest at the rate of 4 per cent. Holders of the First Liberty Loan were therefore allowed to convert their 3 1/2 per cent bonds into 4 per cent securities known as First Liberty Loan Converted. A great many subscribers took advantage of this offer. Now those who did so and all holders of bonds of the Second Loan may again increase their interest return by converting their holdings into 4 1/4 per cent bonds, this being the interest rate of the Third and Fourth Liberty Loans.

QUAKER ACROSTIC

(Read both ways)
The man who saveth money Hath his future guaranteed. Remorse o'er substance wasted Is unknown to him, indeed. Fortune smileth on him. Things he hath, as he may need.

The man who spendeth wisely; Hath no idle, wasted hour; Ruleth cities—even nations—Interest for him doth flower. For he learneth as he liveth Thrift succeedeth—THRIFT IS POWER.

Thrift is the surest and strongest foundation of an empire; so sure, so strong, so necessary, that no nation can long exist that disregards it—Lord Roseberry.

It is true that many loans, money, and cups of sugar, are forgotten or unpaid. Uncle Sam, however, gives us a bond for our little loans—"lest we forget" he even pays interest on it to make it interesting.

TEXT BOOKS WILL BE FURNISHED TEACHERS

Two Courses Are Issued by Treasury Department and Will be Sent Free Upon Request.

To further the teaching of thrift in the schools the United States Treasury Department has issued two text books, copies of which may be had by any teacher desiring them. One is designed for use in elementary schools. It gives a suggested outline, the purpose being to shape the habits and character of the school child in the formative period of his life. The second book known as "Fifteen Lessons in Thrift" is to be used in the high schools and naturally is more advanced in the treatment of the subject.

The books are being handled in this district by William R. Timmons, director of the Educational Division of the War Loan Organization, at Richmond, Va. Mr. Timmons will be glad to send copies of the books free of charge to all principals, teachers and instructors who are interested in the subject.

In both pamphlets the lessons are sufficiently flexible to permit the introduction of such local material as has particular interest and value.

Thrift and the principle of saving are now being taught in hundreds of schools throughout the country, having been incorporated in the regular work and assigned a place on the schedule ranking with other more important subjects, it being now recognized that the study of thrift is becoming more and more necessary in order that the pupil may be better equipped for the problems of life.

MORE THAN ONE WAY TO PRACTICE SAVING

There are ways and ways of barring the door against the wolf. But until six months ago David Broderick, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., had never learned how to slip the bolt into place. Convicted of a minor offense last January, he was placed on probation, and ordered to take $12 a week to the probation officer.

Broderick protested, saying that it was impossible for him to pay so much, but agreed to try when he realized that a jail sentence was the alternative. Each week since that time he has paid in his twelve dollars, and at the expiration of the six months term he was handed $220.50 worth of War Savings Stamps, the result of his saving.

When the justice entered his court room the next day he found on his desk a cigar wrapped in the following note signed by Broderick: "You're a friend of mine. Good luck, Judge." Broderick is now under a voluntary probation period of indefinite length, promising to bring in $10 a week to continue his savings investment.

WHAT BEN DID

Ben Franklin was a thrifty man. To this you'll all agree; Instead of squandering what he got He used frugality.

His wealth increased from year to year. He won fame and position. But not alone did he succeed In gaining his ambition.

To smooth the way, to help him on, There stood his saving wife. And 'twas this partnership of thrift Gave him a happy life.

Some folks attribute wealth to luck—'Tis fortune's known foundation—His luck to find a thrifty mate Was Ben's interpretation.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarh. Catarh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative power of Hall's Catarh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J.
