YOUR HEALTH

The State of North Carolina in its devotion to the welfare of its citizens has passed resolutions in regard to the disposition of human excrete. These resolutions are important in that any person living within 300 feet of another shall equip his premises with a fly proof closet, full instructions for which will be furnished free of charge to any citizen. The Board of Health of Transylvania Co. passed a resolution that all industrial plants operating in the County and housing employees shall dispose of such matter in a similar manner. We should see also that our school buildings over the county are provided with means for the proper disposition of excrete. All and any incorporated town should also be compelled to provide means for every resident to get rid of such waste that could in any way be detrimental to the public and further should oblige every resident to connect properly with such lines as may be provided for this purpose. In view of the menace this is before us in neglecting such evident need Brevard would do well to provide at an early date for this purpose. It is common knowledge that open privies are in use at a very short distance from the seat of justice in Brevard in the southern end of the town the residents are so far without sewer facilities in the northwestern end, inhabited chiefly by colored people there are no such privies available. This condition should not be tolerated in a town alive to the dangerous possibilities existing in such circumstances and particularly in a section whose topography lends itself to a relatively low cost of installing and maintaining a sufficient water system. I would add that the resolution referred to in the beginning of the article are not merely advisory but they are mandatory.

Very sincerely,
W. J. WALLIS.

Thanksgiving Peace and Plenty

1919

In the 298 years between America's first Thanksgiving and the Thanksgiving of 1919, there has been no time in American history when we have had as much to be thankful for as we have today.

Peace reigns once more. Our boys are back home with us again. Bumper crops and high wages have contributed to the greatest era of prosperity this nation has ever known. There is Peace,

Prosperity and Plenty of
