VOLUME XXV

BREVARD, N. C. FRIDAY, JANUARY 23rd, 1920.

NUMBER 4

NEW COURT HOUSE AND COUNTY JAIL

Both laborers and carpenters have commenced the falling of trees, the clearing of the ground and erecting the necessary temporary buildings on the court house grounds preparative to the additional building and improvement to the court house, and the erection of a new jail. Work on these buildings will be pushed just as fast as building material can be secured.

The additional room and improvement to the Court House and the erection of a new and up-to-date jail, have been needed for a long while but owing to the unsettled condition, scarcity of building material and labor, the commissioners did not deem it advisable to authorize the improvements until now. When completed, we will have a court house in keeping with similar buildings in adjoining counties.

GREAT REVIVAL IN BREVARD

The revival meeting that began in the Baptist Church December 28, 1919 closed January 19th, 1920.

It was the unanimous opinion of those who attended that it was the greatest revival ever held in Brevard.

The visible results were the entire membership greatly revived, 53 added to the church, pastor's salary increased to eighteen hundred by the unanimous vote of the church. Also in addition to this the splendid piousness amounting to some 50 dollars. There was organized a tilting band with 104 members. A number of those who came were men and women several of whom were above fifty years of age.

Evangelist Reese preached without fear or favor the truth as it is in the word. Evangelistic singer John O. Beall won his way to the hearts of our people by his sweet gospel singing and helpful talks and prayers.

Such a revival cannot fail to help the town in every way. There two workers departed Tuesday morning for Easley, S. C. where they at once enter into another campaign. They leave with the good will and best wishes of most of our people.

THE PRAYER CORNER

Perfect Trust in God

"There is but one thing needful to possess God."

All our senses, all our powers of mind and soul, all our eternal resources, are so many ways of approaching God, so many modes of tasking and of adoring Him.

To adore, to understand, to receive, to feel, to give, to act; there is our law, our duty, our happiness, our heaven.

Let come what will—even death. Only be at peace with self, live in the presence of God, in communion with Him and leave the guidance of existence to those universal powers against whom we can do nothing. If death gives us time, so much the better. If its summons is near, so much the better. If a half death overtakes us so much the better, for so the path of success is closed to us only that we may find opening before us the path of heroism, of moral greatness of resignation. In bitterness, there is sweetness; in affliction, joy; in submission, strength; in the God who punishes, the God who loves. Amiel.

A PRAYER

O, my God, Thou and Thou alone art all wise and all knowing. I believe that Thou knowest just what is best for me. I believe that Thou lovest me better than I love myself, that Thou art all wise in Thy providence and all powerful in Thy protection.

I thank Thee with all my heart that Thou hast taken me out of my own keeping and hast hidden me put myself in Thy hands. I can ask nothing better than this, to be Thy care, not my own.

O, my Lord, thru Thy grace I will follow Thee, whithersoever Thou goest, and will not lead the way. I will wait on Thee for Thy guidance and on obtaining it I will act in simplicity and without fear.

And I promise that I will not be impatient if at any time I am kept by Thee in darkness and perplexity; nor will I complain or fret if I come into any misfortune or anxiety. Amen.

MISER SAVER BIG SUM BUT ONLY TO LOSE IT

Man Did Not Follow Principles of Thrift—Sole Idea Was to Hoard His Money, Spending Nothing.

A modern Midas of Chicago, who had accumulated $300,000 by never spending anything, recently was declared incapable of handling his affairs. He became incapable not because he amassed $300,000 but because of the way he accumulated it. He estranged his family, went to bed with the chickens to avoid spending money on lights and lived on $55 a year.

Then he ran afoul of the puzzling income tax law and now his children are to handle his beloved savings. This modern Midas was not a thrifty man. He was a miser. True thrift enhances and increases the wealth of the world. Hoarding money benefits neither the miser nor his fellows. Wise spending is as essential as wise saving, and wise investment is as important as either; wise spending for the comforts and pleasures of life as well as the necessities makes for the thriftiest life and stimulates production. Wise investment makes possible the creation of new wealth.

The miser saves but spends nothing. He secures only the meager satisfaction of watching his pile of money grow. The wise exponent of thrift and sound investment has the comforts and pleasures of life and saves at the same time. The foolish man spends his money for what he neither needs nor really wants; does not attain the comforts and lasting pleasures of life and saves nothing.

If the modern miser of Chicago had spent wisely he would have had years of comfort and happiness instead of years of squalor and want. If he had saved wisely he would have had the love and respect of his family and associates. If he had invested wisely he would have been competent to handle his own affairs.

"Waste not—want not" is still the modern axiom of thrift but "want not" must not be interpreted to mean not wanting the things that make life worth the living. Don't be a modern Midas.

PICKING UP THAT PIN

A story of E. H. Harriman, who died leaving an estate of $75,000,000 credits him with one day picking up a small steel letter clip dropped on the floor by a careless employee.

"I'd like to have as my annual income," said Mr. Harriman, "the value of material thrown away every year by indifferent workers in the offices and factories of America. In a few years I'd be the richest man in the world."

"LIKE UM" and "LICK UM"

From faraway Tulsa, Okla., comes the story that War Savings Stamps are tremendously popular among the Indians who have grown rich from oil wells discovered on their properties.

"Stick-em-on" competitions are popular among the Indian Rockefeller, who buy the $5 stamps in sheets, arrange their cards neatly and start licking and sticking at a prearranged signal.

After all the stamps had been stuck on during a recent contest the Indians capped the "field meet" by lining up and racing to the post-office to get the stamps registered. Blue Nose Smells-No. Meat won the race and had his stamps registered first. He had pasted on $485 worth of War Savings Stamps in six minutes and fourteen seconds. His time to the postoffice was 56 seconds flat.

Put your money where it will do double duty for you—in War Savings Stamps.

Money saved is what counts. Invested in War Savings Stamps it grows day and night.

In a multitude of thrifts there is safety from worry. Buy wisely, save intelligently, and invest in Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps.

BREVARD CLUB CALLS MASS MEETING

At the regular meeting of the Brevard Club, it was decided to hold a mass meeting in the Court House of Transylvania County at Brevard on Monday Jan. 26. This meeting is for the purpose of discussing and deciding upon the future policy of

FIVE DEPARTMENTS ARE AIDING THRIFT

Government Bureaus Are Co-operating to Promote Widespread Savings Among All Classes of People.

Co-operation and co-ordination of government departments in aid of the national movement to promote regular saving, wise buying, sound investment and reinvestment are shown in a recent report to the Treasury Department.

Five departments—Treasury, Labor, Commerce, Agriculture and the Interior—are always carrying out plans characteristic of their special domains of work designed to accomplish the general aim—thrift. Not only are the same principles held in common, but ideas and material are interchanged and employed to further the particular lines of each department's work.

In the Treasury Department the Savings Division is endeavoring to bring home the value of sensible economy as a principle of living; to interpret thrift, not as miserliness, but as the wise management of one's affairs, taking heed of present and future needs and steadily saving for worthwhile purchases, to take advantage of an opportunity or against a rainy day. The Savings Division offers the Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps a practical inducement to acquiring the power of a financial reserve.

Realizing that saving is greatly stimulated by having a definite object in view, the Department of Labor has launched an OWN YOUR HOME movement.

The Department of Commerce, in conjunction with the Council of National Defense, is engaged in a BUY NOW, BUT ONLY WHAT YOU NEED, campaign.

The Department of Agriculture has undertaken to have its county agents and home demonstration agents, numbering several thousand men and women, include the message of thrift in all their work.

In the Department of the Interior the Bureau of Education is making thrift an important part of its Americanization program and of its schools and library work. The Indian Bureau has issued material and called on all agents to assist in bringing home the value of intelligent saving and safe investment to the Indian service.

THRIFT TABLE

25 Pennies=1 Thrift Stamp.
16 Thrift Stamps=1 W. S. S.
20 W. S. S.=1 Hundred Dollar Stamp.
5 Hundred Dollar Stamps=First installment on your home.

Thrift Stamps will stick when a fellow needs a friend.

Make Thrift a happy habit through War Savings Stamps.

INTEREST

Here is what one man did. If you don't know him you know some one just like him in your community.

Twenty years ago he owned the clothes he stood in and that was about all.

He saved fifty dollars the first year; the next year, with a little better wages, seventy-five.

One thing with another—a wife and family included—he has saved an average of five dollars a week for twenty years.

What he saved in twenty years was about five thousand dollars. What he has is twice five thousand—like the man in the parable.

His dollars working for him now bring him more than his yearly saving.

Make Thrift a happy habit through War Savings Stamps.

Money spent is money gone; invested in War Savings Stamps it stays with you.

BETTERMENT ASSOCIATION WILL MEET

BRICK MANUFACTURING PLANT

Brevard is soon to have a brick manufacturing plant. Ground just beyond the Transylvania Tanning Company has been secured and machinery has been purchased. The necessary buildings will soon be erected and the machinery installed. The plant, when in operation will have a capacity of 50,000 brick per day and will have a pay roll that will be of great benefit to the business and professional world of Brevard.

The gentlemen who are behind this enterprise are H. P. Verdery, Greenville, S. C., Chas. Cook, and Al M. Verdery of Brevard. These gentlemen will probably have other Brevard men associated with them in the business.
