

Nerves All Unstrung

My back ached and for days I was unable to get up. I was in constant pain until my back was treated with Doan's Kidney Pills. I was in constant pain until my back was treated with Doan's Kidney Pills. I was in constant pain until my back was treated with Doan's Kidney Pills.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

WATERBURY CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

Keep a Bottle Handy

Pain whether it comes from rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, headache or sprain is usually most acute at night.

If you have a bottle of Yager's Liniment handy and use it you get quick relief. Price 35c.

YAGER'S LINIMENT

RELIEVES PAIN

GILBERT BROS. & CO., Baltimore, Md.

WATCH THE BIG 4

Stomach-Kidneys-Heart-Liver

Keep the vital organs healthy by regularly taking the world's standard remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles—

GOLD MEDAL HAZELDEN OIL CAPSULES

The National Remedy of Holland for centuries and endorsed by Queen Wilhelmina. At all druggists, three sizes. Look for the same Gold Medal on every box and accept no imitation.

PELLAGRA

CURED WITHOUT A STARVATION DIET AT A SMALL COST

If you have this awful disease, and want to be cured, do not delay. Write for FREE BOOK giving the history of pellagra, symptoms, results and how to treat. Send in plain, sealed envelope. A guaranteed treatment that cures when all others fail. MEDICINE COMPANY, Dept. 51, Atlanta, Ga.

Leggett's King Pin CHEWING

The tastiest tobacco you ever tasted.

SELDOM SEE ABSORBINE

A big knee like this, but your horse may have a bunch or bruise on his hock, side, knee or throat.

will clean it off without laying up the horse. No blister, no hair gone. Concentrated—only a few drops required in an application. $2.50 per bottle delivered. Absorbine, 100 West 12th Street, New York, N. Y.

MR. VICTOR'S SYRUP

The most powerful cough medicine ever made. Children grow healthy and free from colds, coughs, croup, whooping cough, and other ailments. Price 25c a bottle. W. F. Young, P. O. Box 210, Springfield, Mass.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Herbert Hoover Clears His Political Position and Announces He Will Accept Republican Nomination.

GERMANY GROWS MORE QUIET

Emir Faisal an Accomplished Troublemaker—Mustapha Kemal Stirring Against Christians—Denmark in the Limelight—Daylight Saving Confuses.

By E. F. CLIPSON.

Mystery regarding the political position and party affiliations of Herbert Hoover has been dispelled by the announcement of his conditional willingness to accept the Republican presidential nomination. He has said that he will accept it if it is felt that the issues necessitate it and it is demanded of him, and further clarifies his attitude in the following words:

"If the Republican party—with the independent element, of which I am naturally affiliated—adopts a forward-looking, liberal, constructive platform on the treaty and on our economic issues, and if the party proposes measures for sound business administration of the country, and is neither reactionary nor radical in its approach to our great domestic questions, and is backed by men who undoubtedly assure the consummation of these policies and measures, I will give it my entire support."

Although Mr. Hoover's declaration created somewhat of a sensation, it relieved the tension existing in the camps of other candidates. Surrounded by silence and secrecy, his attitude had become more or less a matter of speculation. Each party wanted his support and the competition had been so keen as to take on the characteristics of a race, with each side endeavoring to get to him and land him first.

Mystery entered the situation some weeks ago when Secretary of the Navy Daniels, positively refusing to give a name, but speaking most emphatically and authoritatively, said he knew who the next president of the United States would be. The most active guessers were practically unanimous in the theory that the secretary had in mind Mr. Hoover, and that the food man had made promises or had definitely committed himself to the Democratic party. The theory as to the definiteness was modified later when Mr. Hoover, pushed to some extent by a declaration as to his political affiliations, stated that he had of late years been aligned with the Progressive Republicans. In the congressional elections of 1918 he appeared in favor of the Democrats, and made some statements endorsing the leading policies of President Wilson.

The action of Mr. Hoover has brought the political pot from a more or less smoldering state to an actual boiling point. His entry makes him a serious contender for the Republican nomination, and his declaration of principles will have much to do with preventing both parties from adopting either extreme reactionary or extreme radical viewpoints. He has stated that no one should be able to dictate the policies of great parties, yet every man and woman has a right to decide what issues and measures he will support. He thus creates a position which makes it possible for him to repudiate both parties after their national conventions. Some observers see in this a hint that if the candidates and platforms of the two parties do not satisfy the liberal thought of the nation, Mr. Hoover will be willing to support a third and independent ticket, and while several theories have already been advanced, his entry into the race, his supporters are engaged in an active campaign. In the meantime primary where it was necessary to write or paste his name on

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Herbert Hoover Clears His Political Position and Announces He Will Accept Republican Nomination.

GERMANY GROWS MORE QUIET

Emir Faisal an Accomplished Troublemaker—Mustapha Kemal Stirring Against Christians—Denmark in the Limelight—Daylight Saving Confuses.

By E. F. CLIPSON.

Mystery regarding the political position and party affiliations of Herbert Hoover has been dispelled by the announcement of his conditional willingness to accept the Republican presidential nomination. He has said that he will accept it if it is felt that the issues necessitate it and it is demanded of him, and further clarifies his attitude in the following words:

"If the Republican party—with the independent element, of which I am naturally affiliated—adopts a forward-looking, liberal, constructive platform on the treaty and on our economic issues, and if the party proposes measures for sound business administration of the country, and is neither reactionary nor radical in its approach to our great domestic questions, and is backed by men who undoubtedly assure the consummation of these policies and measures, I will give it my entire support."

Although Mr. Hoover's declaration created somewhat of a sensation, it relieved the tension existing in the camps of other candidates. Surrounded by silence and secrecy, his attitude had become more or less a matter of speculation. Each party wanted his support and the competition had been so keen as to take on the characteristics of a race, with each side endeavoring to get to him and land him first.

Mystery entered the situation some weeks ago when Secretary of the Navy Daniels, positively refusing to give a name, but speaking most emphatically and authoritatively, said he knew who the next president of the United States would be. The most active guessers were practically unanimous in the theory that the secretary had in mind Mr. Hoover, and that the food man had made promises or had definitely committed himself to the Democratic party. The theory as to the definiteness was modified later when Mr. Hoover, pushed to some extent by a declaration as to his political affiliations, stated that he had of late years been aligned with the Progressive Republicans. In the congressional elections of 1918 he appeared in favor of the Democrats, and made some statements endorsing the leading policies of President Wilson.

The action of Mr. Hoover has brought the political pot from a more or less smoldering state to an actual boiling point. His entry makes him a serious contender for the Republican nomination, and his declaration of principles will have much to do with preventing both parties from adopting either extreme reactionary or extreme radical viewpoints. He has stated that no one should be able to dictate the policies of great parties, yet every man and woman has a right to decide what issues and measures he will support. He thus creates a position which makes it possible for him to repudiate both parties after their national conventions. Some observers see in this a hint that if the candidates and platforms of the two parties do not satisfy the liberal thought of the nation, Mr. Hoover will be willing to support a third and independent ticket, and while several theories have already been advanced, his entry into the race, his supporters are engaged in an active campaign. In the meantime primary where it was necessary to write or paste his name on the ballot, he showed unexpected strength and the boom strong in several state primaries which are to come. The money question, as usual, enters into the political situation. Senator Borah charges the managers of General Wood and Governor Lowden with using unwarranted sums. Denials come from both candidates, with an expression of willingness to have their expenditures probed. Inasmuch as the legitimate expenses of such campaigns require large funds, it is difficult to see how any candidate can make much of a showing without them. Former Secretary McAdoo reflects this condition when he states that he has no fund, therefore is not a candidate.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Herbert Hoover Clears His Political Position and Announces He Will Accept Republican Nomination.

GERMANY GROWS MORE QUIET

Emir Faisal an Accomplished Troublemaker—Mustapha Kemal Stirring Against Christians—Denmark in the Limelight—Daylight Saving Confuses.

By E. F. CLIPSON.

Mystery regarding the political position and party affiliations of Herbert Hoover has been dispelled by the announcement of his conditional willingness to accept the Republican presidential nomination. He has said that he will accept it if it is felt that the issues necessitate it and it is demanded of him, and further clarifies his attitude in the following words:

"If the Republican party—with the independent element, of which I am naturally affiliated—adopts a forward-looking, liberal, constructive platform on the treaty and on our economic issues, and if the party proposes measures for sound business administration of the country, and is neither reactionary nor radical in its approach to our great domestic questions, and is backed by men who undoubtedly assure the consummation of these policies and measures, I will give it my entire support."

Although Mr. Hoover's declaration created somewhat of a sensation, it relieved the tension existing in the camps of other candidates. Surrounded by silence and secrecy, his attitude had become more or less a matter of speculation. Each party wanted his support and the competition had been so keen as to take on the characteristics of a race, with each side endeavoring to get to him and land him first.

Mystery entered the situation some weeks ago when Secretary of the Navy Daniels, positively refusing to give a name, but speaking most emphatically and authoritatively, said he knew who the next president of the United States would be. The most active guessers were practically unanimous in the theory that the secretary had in mind Mr. Hoover, and that the food man had made promises or had definitely committed himself to the Democratic party. The theory as to the definiteness was modified later when Mr. Hoover, pushed to some extent by a declaration as to his political affiliations, stated that he had of late years been aligned with the Progressive Republicans. In the congressional elections of 1918 he appeared in favor of the Democrats, and made some statements endorsing the leading policies of President Wilson.

The action of Mr. Hoover has brought the political pot from a more or less smoldering state to an actual boiling point. His entry makes him a serious contender for the Republican nomination, and his declaration of principles will have much to do with preventing both parties from adopting either extreme reactionary or extreme radical viewpoints. He has stated that no one should be able to dictate the policies of great parties, yet every man and woman has a right to decide what issues and measures he will support. He thus creates a position which makes it possible for him to repudiate both parties after their national conventions. Some observers see in this a hint that if the candidates and platforms of the two parties do not satisfy the liberal thought of the nation, Mr. Hoover will be willing to support a third and independent ticket, and while several theories have already been advanced, his entry into the race, his supporters are engaged in an active campaign. In the meantime primary where it was necessary to write or paste his name on the ballot, he showed unexpected strength and the boom strong in several state primaries which are to come. The money question, as usual, enters into the political situation. Senator Borah charges the managers of General Wood and Governor Lowden with using unwarranted sums. Denials come from both candidates, with an expression of willingness to have their expenditures probed. Inasmuch as the legitimate expenses of such campaigns require large funds, it is difficult to see how any candidate can make much of a showing without them. Former Secretary McAdoo reflects this condition when he states that he has no fund, therefore is not a candidate.

BOY SCOUTS

(Conducted by National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.)

NOW HE'S FOR SCOUT CAMPING

"Right now I'm enjoying winter camping in the Adirondacks, author of 'The Boy Scouts of America' is known to all boys.

"For I have spent a day at the winter camp maintained by the Boy Scouts of America at the Bear Mountain reservation, nine miles from Tuxedo, and I went there when the mercury was hovering just above the zero mark. I found sixty Manhattan and Bronx scouts quartered in a log cabin with a roaring fire in an open fireplace in the center of the room. I found the gang of boys, chopping wood and bringing it in for the fire. I found another gang preparing the next meal. I found another gang building an outdoor cooking oven.

"I found another gang preparing to sleep that night while they had slept for two other nights—out in the open under a lean-to. And I found everybody just about having the time of their young lives to camp and to find the reason why was not hard to find. They were dressed for this kind of weather—a wise man saw to that. And they were kept cheerfully occupied. The same wise man saw to that. Dress a boy warmly and turn his hands to something that he likes to do, and he'll laugh at all the zero weather in the world.

"A few years ago had any man suggested that boys should go into the mountains and camp during the winter he would have been led away and put into a cell. But times have changed. We know now about the virtues of outdoor life and we are building a sturdier group of boys."

THOUSANDS JOIN BOY SCOUTS.

Thousands of applications for associate membership in the national council continue to pour into the office of the Boy Scouts of America, 200 Fifth Avenue, New York, since boy scout week came to a close.

Checks ranging from $1.00 to others running into several figures continue to pile up the results of the nationwide drive which has already enlisted 1,000,000 men and women.

The new financial auxiliary, thus created brings the total membership of the Boy Scouts of America up to a million and a half, which includes approximately 400,000 active scouts and 100,000 leaders.

Notwithstanding the tremendous size of this organization, it is conducted with a professional force of but 300 paid workers, mostly scout executive staff by the business men of the larger cities. The rest are volunteers, and according to James E. West, the chief scout executive, they give from three to thirty hours a week to scouting, adding in the joy of the work alone more than sufficient compensation.

SCOUTING CURES LAWBREAKING.

"The constant reports of young men from states to eighteen breaking the laws in various parts of the country seem to tell the story, and show that there must be an intensive campaign carried on to teach our young boys loyalty, patriotism and respect for the laws of their country," says Whitman E. Smith, who has recently taken up the work in Portland, Me., of a boy scout executive.

"From my experience in the work for the last four years, it seems to me that the community as a whole has a greater need for the scout program for boys than at any time today."

"I find in communities where particular attempts have been made to give publicity to the work that people are awake to the possibilities of the scout program and believe that the future of the movement is greater than it has been since its inception."

Mr. Smith is the first scout executive to be employed in the state of Maine.

SCOUTS BETER "HICK WALKERS."

"Protect the 'hick walkers,' despite themselves," is the slogan adopted by the boy scouts of Philadelphia, who have been working in conjunction with the Rotary club in the "Cross at Crossings" campaign.

When the scouts covered the business part of the city in mass form several irate shoppers protested when advised for safety's sake to cross at the crossings. Despite the protests of the "hicks" and "hick-walkers," Scout Executive Goddard said the scouts were determined to help that element.

"UNCLE DAN" WAS "PREPARED."

While speaking before a large audience Daniel Carter Beard was suddenly asked to tell the difference between a "hick" and a "hick-walker."

Although an national commissioner of the Boy Scouts of America, "Uncle Dan" closely follows the motto of "Be Prepared." In this case he had had time for a second.

Then from his lips came the appropriate answer: "A hick is a hick, a hick-walker, while a hick is a hick, a hick-walker is a hick-walker."

Doan's Kidney Pills

Doan's Kidney Pills are the most powerful kidney medicine ever made. They cure all kidney troubles, such as backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, headache, and all other ailments caused by impure blood.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Doan's Kidney Pills are the most powerful kidney medicine ever made. They cure all kidney troubles, such as backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, headache, and all other ailments caused by impure blood.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Doan's Kidney Pills are the most powerful kidney medicine ever made. They cure all kidney troubles, such as backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, headache, and all other ailments caused by impure blood.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Doan's Kidney Pills are the most powerful kidney medicine ever made. They cure all kidney troubles, such as backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, headache, and all other ailments caused by impure blood.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Doan's Kidney Pills are the most powerful kidney medicine ever made. They cure all kidney troubles, such as backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, headache, and all other ailments caused by impure blood.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Doan's Kidney Pills are the most powerful kidney medicine ever made. They cure all kidney troubles, such as backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, headache, and all other ailments caused by impure blood.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Doan's Kidney Pills are the most powerful kidney medicine ever made. They cure all kidney troubles, such as backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, headache, and all other ailments caused by impure blood.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Doan's Kidney Pills are the most powerful kidney medicine ever made. They cure all kidney troubles, such as backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, headache, and all other ailments caused by impure blood.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Doan's Kidney Pills are the most powerful kidney medicine ever made. They cure all kidney troubles, such as backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, headache, and all other ailments caused by impure blood.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Doan's Kidney Pills are the most powerful kidney medicine ever made. They cure all kidney troubles, such as backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, headache, and all other ailments caused by impure blood.