CAT, OLD TOPER, ENJOYS 9 LIVES

Rastus Gets His Share of the Stills in Every Stilly Night.

FOND OF HOME BREW

Russy Acquires Fondness for Booze by Licking Moist Corks From Confiscated Liqueur in Police Station in Detroit.

Detroit.—This cat has gone to the dogs.

His name is Rastus! He is jet black. He lives at the Grand River avenue police station. And he is a drunkard.

Rastus responded to his first alcoholic temptation several weeks ago while basking in the sun near a window in the office of Inspector James McNamara. A large haul of whisky stills and home brew was inspected in the office. Rastus, quite innocently, offered his assistance as official tester, by licking the moist corks and lapping the dregs from the stills.

Sleeps Off Jag.

A few minutes later Mr. Cat was seen staggering across the floor. He crawled up on the switchboard and purred his jag to sleep.

With his appetite whetted for alcohol, Rastus was frequently discovered snooping around the confiscated stills, licking the bottles of home-brew and lapping the stills. While he was sleeping near a basket of home brew one day a cork popped off one of the bottles and Rastus imbibed in the flowing liquid regardless of his capacity. One raid netted 362 quarts of liquor for Rastus. With half-closed green eyes he viewed the layout and wished for more than nine lives.

"But I don't want Rastus scandalized," Inspector McNamara said. "He is a good cat, and his taste for liquor is both harmless and amusing."

Thirteen Unlucky Enough.

Last week Rastus created considerable merriment when 13 colored men were arrested for shooting craps. Rastus was feeling in an extremely affectionate mood and rubbed his head against one of the prisoner's feet. The prisoner happened to be superstitious, and jumped three feet in the air when he saw Rastus, a black cat, cross his path.

Rastus does not neglect his household in spite of his habitual debauches. Since he strayed into the station about one year ago he has completely exterminated the mice which infested the station, basement and barn.

THE PRAYER CORNER.

Honouring Parents.

Children should honour their parents. Nothing more sadly mars the beauty of a life than anything that shows want of filial love and respect. Children never come to an age, while their parents live, when they may cease to treat them with affection and honour, in return for their unselfish devotion, self denial and care for them in the days of infancy and childhood. These are debts we never can repay save by love that stops at no cost or sacrifice, nor flags in its faithfulness until we have laid away the revered forms to rest in the grave.

If we are blessed with wealth or with plenty, they should share it who shared their all with us in days gone by, perhaps pinched themselves that we might not want, or that we might be better fitted for life. If we have risen to higher position and greater honor than our parents had, we should bring them into the sunshine that is ours, that the benediction of our favoured life may brighten and sweeten their old age. If they are a little peculiar, or odd in their ways, lacking some of the refinements of our more fashionable life, we should remember that these are only outside disfigurements, and that beneath their beat hearts of love, and dwell spirits that are noble with the nobleness of Christ likeness.

A PRAYER:

Our Father Thou hast commanded us to honour our parents, and we know that nothing more sadly mars the beauty of our life than anything that shows want of filial love and respect. May we never come to an age, while our parents live; when we may chose to treat them with affection and honour in return for their unselfish devotion, self denial and care for us in the days of our infancy and childhood. These are debts we can never repay save by love that stops at no cost or sacrifice, nor flags in its faithfulness, until we have laid away their revered forms to rest in the grave.

If we are blessed with wealth or with plenty, help us to share it with those who shared their all with us. Enable us to brighten into the sunshine that is ours, that the benediction of our favoured life may brighten and sweeten their old age.

May no filial untenderness of ours ever wring from their hearts the agonizing cry of the old dazed, heart-broken, tempest beaten king.

"How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is To have a thankless child."

And this we ask in the name of Him whose filial love and devotion is ever before us as a pattern and example of what Thou, Our Father, would'st have us be and do, Amen.

DOG JOINS PAL THROUGH PANE

Mistress Calls Veterinarian to Remove Glass From Willie's Paws and Bandage Wounds.

Cleveland.—Willie, a Boston terrier, stood in the big bay window and barked a cordial greeting to Buster, his friend next door, who stood out on the sidewalk wagging his tail.

"Come on out," Buster bow wowed. "Can't," said Willie. "Mrs. Kohler has gone to the store and left me on guard."

"Well, can't you stand watch outside just as well as in the house?" Buster queried.

Willie glanced around nervously and then made a flying leap for Buster and liberty. He went straight through the window and landed in a shower of broken glass.

A neighbor ran to notify Mrs. Kohler, wife of Fred Kohler, county commissioner, who was on her way to the grocery. Mrs. Kohler returned and called Dr. F. W. Shaffer, veterinarian. He pulled splinters of glass from Willie's paws and bandaged his wounds.
