Transylvania County, N. C., Board of Health

ORDERED AND RULED THAT:

All Dogs in Said County, if allowed to run at large, should be properly muzzled unless accompanied by the owner of such dog or dogs at large. If not so muzzled all dogs in the county shall be securely confined to the owners premises.

FAILURE TO COMPLY

With this order of the Board of Health shall be a misdemeanor and any person or persons convicted of such misdemeanor shall be liable to a fine of Fifty dollars or confined in the County Jail for thirty days.

IT SHALL BE THE DUTY OF ANY OFFICER:

Of Transylvania County to kill any dog or dogs running at large unmuzzled or not accompanied by owner or owners.

Further, any citizen of said County shall have the right to kill any such dog or dogs.

THIS ORDER SHALL BE IN FORCE

In Transylvania County for ninety days from this 14th day of May 1921, and may be extended or reinforced at any time in the discretion of the County physician or health officer.

REVISAL 1908, SECTION 3305:

"If the owner of any dog shall know or have good reason to believe, that this dog, or any dog belonging to any person under his control, has been bitten by a mad dog, and shall neglect or refuse immediately to kill the same, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars to him who will sue therefor; and the offender shall be liable to pay all damages which may be sustained by any one, in his property or person, by the bite of any such dog, and shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days."

Signed: . . . COUNTY BOARD OF HEALTH.

W. J. WALLIS, Health Officer.
