

WESTERN CAROLINA
BASEBALL LEAGUE

Brevard and Asheville Playing For The Pennant While Hendersonville Enjoys Bleachers Bench.

Since going to press last week, there have been many new developments in the league ball controversy.

Canton withdrew from the league last week after playing a game with Hendersonville, which they claim was awarded to Hendersonville by unfair methods. Then president Brooks declared the season closed with Hendersonville the winner of the second half of the season. Canton, Asheville and Brevard protested and a meeting of the club directors was called to meet in Hendersonville last Thursday night. All of the clubs were represented with the exception of Hendersonville. President Brooks was notified to attend this meeting, but refused as did the director of the Hendersonville club.

After electing R. R. Fisher as chairman, the directors proceeded with the business.

The game protested by Canton was allowed and the game thrown out which left Asheville four points ahead of Hendersonville, therefore Asheville was declared winner of the second half of the season, and a schedule of seven games was arranged to be played between Asheville and Brevard beginning last Monday, Sept. 12, the first two games to be played in Asheville, then two in Brevard and then rotate until one team has won four games.

Brevard won Monday by the score of 4 to 2 with Bludworth pitching. Tuesday Asheville won 9 to 3, knocking Brewster out of the box in the third inning. Gudgey relieved him and pitched a beautiful game the remainder of the game.

Wednesday the two clubs met on the home field for the third game of the series.

INJUNCTION

Tuesday the manager of the Hendersonville club, Sam Hodges, procured a temporary restraining order to prohibit Asheville and Brevard from playing the post-season series of seven games. The order permits the teams to play until our team has won three games, but prohibits the playing of the deciding game until after the court decides the case.

Hendersonville feels that she has been unjustly treated and that she has won the second half of the season, while Asheville and Brevard claim that Hendersonville, by her refusal to be represented at the meeting and refusing to play out the remainder of the season, forfeited her rights the same as Canton. Unless the temporary restraining order is made permanent or not allowed before one of the teams win three games, there will be only one result and that is for Asheville and Brevard to disband for the season, leaving the championship undecided, as neither one of the teams could afford to hold the teams with pay until the court rendered a decision.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The Sunday evening sermons for the month of September at the Baptist church being preached by pastor Rev. Chas. C. Smith, is creating a good deal of interest, the congregations hearing the first two being unusually large. The subject for next Sunday evening, Sept. 18th, is, "Why Our Prayers Are Unanswered." The closing sermon in the series will be preached on the evening of the 25th., and the subject will be, "One Prayer That Is Always Answered."

This church has changed its hour of its evening meetings to 7:30 o'clock beginning next Sunday.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION IN SEPT

Transylvania Sunday School Workers To Hold Convention In Brevard Baptist Church.

Sunday School workers of Transylvania County will hold convention in the Baptist Church of Brevard on Thursday and Friday, September 22nd and 23rd. The meeting is arranged for Sunday School workers of all denominations in the county. The first session of the convention will be held on Thursday night, September 22nd at 7:30 o'clock. Three sessions will be held on Friday, the 23rd, morning afternoon and night, closing with the night session.

Arrangements for this convention were made several days ago when Mr. D. W. Sims, General Superintendent of the North Carolina Sunday School Association, visited Brevard and had a conference with the pastors, Sunday School Superintendents and many of the Sunday School leaders. Sunday School workers from all parts of the county are invited to attend the sessions.

The principal speakers will be Miss Flora Davis, Assistant Superintendent of the North Carolina Sunday School Association, and Mr. D. W. Sims, General Superintendent of the North Carolina Sunday School Association. Both Miss Davis and Mr. Sims are recognized leaders in Sunday School work, not only in this state but other states.

Mr. Sims has had charge of the work in North Carolina as General Superintendent of the State Sunday School Association about one year. Under his leadership the Association is doing progressive Sunday School work throughout the state. Similar meetings to the one arranged for Transylvania County are being held in a number of other counties of the state during the summer. Kindred county conventions have been held in the past few months in Raleigh, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Winston-Salem, Durham, Charlotte, Gastonia, Asheville, and Burlington. In its work the North Carolina Sunday School Association is interdenominational, for in its conventions on institutes leaders from the various denominations take part. But in results it is denominational for if a worker puts into use the methods discussed in these conventions he increases the efficiency of his own denominational Sunday School. The officers of the Association are among the leading Christian business men of the state. The President of the Association is Mr. Gilbert T. Stephenson, of Winston-Salem; Vice President, Mr. Joseph G. Brown, Raleigh; Treasurer Mr. E. B. Crow, Raleigh; Chairman Executive Committee, Mr. J. M. Broughton, Raleigh.

The following committee was appointed for the Transylvania County Sunday School Convention in Brevard:

Mr. Welch Galloway, Superintendent of Methodist Sunday School, Chairman; Mr. F. D. Moore, Superintendent of the Baptist Sunday School; Dr. E. W. Blythe, Superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday School and Prof. O. H. Orr.

GALLIAS WRITES ABOUT COTTON

Says Cotton Crop Has Prospered The South and Not The G. O. P. Pities Democrats.

As we travel the pathway of life we meet with a lot of things. Some that mars the beauty of the land scape, and others that grate upon your feelings and make you say and think a lot of ugly things that you wouldn't otherwise.

Sometimes the neighbor's dog barks all night, or the old hen scratches up your garden, or the price of cotton goes down.

But we've got to hand it to President Warren Gamaliel Harding or the boll weevil for the present prices of cotton. He has got in behind the boll weevil and made him cut the crop short several millions of bales, thereby running the price up from nine cents to twenty-two cents per pound. — We, in our ignorance, don't know which one of them to lay the high prices of cotton too; but the way we look at it, President Warren Gamaliel is responsible for it. In coming years people will say he has a financial head on him like Solomon. For he has made the big business as rich as Croesus, and his name will be used to conjure by with all who have been leg up to the pie counter, which is now spread in the presence of their enemies, there to eat their full while their enemies look on in wistful hunger, something like the longing a sound dog has when he sees a greasy slop bucket, or a cat when he beholds a cream jar.

Hunger is a devastating, raging wolf inside of a man, be it for knowledge, political pie for eats to nourish the body.

Old David had this in mind when he wrote, "He prepared me a table in the presence of mine enemies." He knew those half-fed natives, clothed in the skins of animals, when they saw him feasting from the table laden with all the good things the heart could wish; that their envy and hatred would be multiplied to its fullest extent.

Now when the democrats see the host of republicans walking up to the pie table, their envy and hatred will fill them up and they will remember the eight full years of Wilson's administration while they are eating husks with the swine, and next November coming (a year) they will come as did the prodigal son to his father's house. There has never been such a rush, not since the days of fortune.

We can and we will welcome them back into the democratic fold though they may come with battered heads and old clothes skinned up or rubbed raw. "There's yet a balm in Gilead."

BREVARD INSTITUTE NOTES:

School opened on Thursday, Sept. 1, with a full attendance and students have been coming in ever since. It looks as if we should be filled to our capacity.

Miss Elva Reece, our new assistant music teacher arrived on Thursday. Miss Reece and Miss Long, our bookkeeper, are the only new teachers on the faculty this year.

Miss Mary Vining, a student here for the past four years, who has also had charge of the housekeeping for the past two summers, left on Monday to take a position in College, Demorest, Ga., where she will also go on with collegiate studies.

Miss Margaret Boylan, who has spent the summer with her mother, Mrs. Boylan, at the Institute, returned on Monday to the Woman's College at Greensboro, to resume her work.

The Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. societies gave a reception to the new students, Saturday evening. The committee in charge of the program arranged some very clever "stunts", and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed. These "get-acquainted" socials are always given on the first Saturday night of the opening week of school, and are of great value in promoting friendliness among our students, between the old and new pupils.

JUDGE ALLEN PASSES AWAY.

Governor and Many Prominent Citizens Attend Funeral — Other Raleigh News.

The death on Thursday of last week of Hon. William R. Allen, for ten years associate justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court, surprised and shocked the people of this city and the State. He was a great man and a great jurist. Widely known over the State, Judge Allen was held in the highest esteem by men in very walk of life. The end came suddenly at his home in Goldsboro without the slightest warning. The interment occurred in that city on the day following and was witnessed by the largest concourse of people ever seen at a funeral in Goldsboro in many years. Many of the state officials, including Governor Morrison, went down and prominent citizens from practically all over central and eastern North Carolina were there to pay their respects to this beloved and departed friend. It is said that the legal profession was represented to the full extent, in number of the membership of the North Carolina Bar Association. The lawyers loved and respected Judge Allen, as did everybody else who knew him.

Shortly after the published announcement of the sudden passing of Judge Allen endorsements of various men, who would not mind succeeding to his mantle, began pouring into the Governor's office. The Governor is in Charlotte today to make the opening address at the "Made in Carolina Exposition" and his office is unable to give any information concerning the vacancy further than the fact that Judge W. J. Adams is probably leading in the number of endorsements, with attorney General Manning a close second. Others whose names are mentioned in this connection are Judge Francis D. Winston, of Windsor; Hon. Thos. D. Warren, of Newberne; Chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee; Hon. Tasker Polk, of Warrenton; Hon. Percy McCullen, Elizabeth City; N. J. Rouse Esq., Kingston; Judge O. H. Gion, Newberne, (the latter two being candidates for the vacancy last year occasioned by the retirement of Judge Brown), Hon. L. V. Basset, of Rocky Mount; Thomas M. Pittman, Henderson; W. A. Finch, Wilson; Judge B. F. Long, Statesville; Judge Thos. J. Shaw, Greensboro and Hon. Harriott Clarkson, Charlotte. It is not believed that more than three of four of these are active candidates, the consensus of opinion being that either Adams, Manning, Warren, or Winston will be selected. The Supreme Court is now in session for the fall term and the vacancy will necessarily have to be filled at once.

The long dry season here this summer has well nigh depleted the capital city of its water supply. Recent showers have partly replenished the loss to Lake Raleigh from which the city receives its water, but the consumers are still admonished to "save and conserve." No water is allowed for purposes not absolutely necessary and weather indications today hold out little hope for "more water" in the immediate future. Showers the last few days have revived the parched lawns, but automobiles still go unwashed and a number of industrial plants remain closed. Crops of various kinds have suffered incalculable injury and sections more favored than central Carolina will be called upon to supply the wants of the unfortunate of the dry area when the supply of necessities becomes exhausted next winter.

Unemployment conditions are thought to be improving in the State as the free employment system is being developed. During the month of August the offices in Charlotte, Greensboro, Raleigh Wilmington and Winston-Salem reported 969 placements. Last week these offices found positions and jobs for 285 applicants for work.

Two citizens of dark town, Leroy Streeter and Billie Calhoun, were up before the Court last Monday. Calhoun was bound over to the Superior Court for tinkering around Leroy's heart with a razor to start him a boneyard of his own.

BREVARD CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Transylvania County Fair Not To Be Held This Year — Banquet Postponed.

The regular meeting of the Brevard club was held Tuesday night. The meeting was well attended and several things of importance were disposed of. The question of whether we would have a county fair this fall was discussed freely. Mr. Lindley, the county agent, made a short talk in which he explained that the fruit crop was a failure, no preparation has been made to have a fair; that we should have begun the preparation last June and that it was the opinion that no fair was really better than a bad one. Therefore he thought we should call it off to prepare for a big one next fall. Upon a vote the majority voted not to have the fair.

Sec. Ranson was instructed to have Mr. Barnhill of the Barnhill studio's in Asheville return to Brevard at an early date to make some additional views for the new booklet under preparation for next summer, also to find out how many boarding houses wanted a cut of their home in the new booklet.

Our new application for membership was received and the Club can now boast of over a hundred members. A report from the secretary detailing the work accomplished during the advertising season just closed was read and approved. In comparison to other towns this report showed that Brevard had enjoyed her full share of the tourist trade which was due in part to the systematic way in which the advertising was managed. All requests for information was answered promptly and when necessary a personal letter was written, a carbon copy made and a file opened until the party was located.

The proposed improvements at Brevard Dispensary was discussed and a committee appointed to use their good influence to secure local architects, contractors, carpenters and laborers.

BANQUET POSTPONED

The banquet that was to have been given at the Franklin Hotel Thursday night has been postponed until a future date. The management of the Franklin Hotel informed the committee that they could not give us the banquet for $1.00 per plate as was decided by the committee to be a very liberal charge but that they would have to have $1.50 per plate. This the committee decided was entirely too much and as no other place that would accommodate 200 or more could be found and prepared by Thursday night it was postponed until a future date.

IN MEMORY OF LITTLE MARY FRANCIS SUMMEY.

Mary Francis Summey on the 14th of August departed this life at the age of 5 years. She was a winsome child just out from the cradle roll in the beginners class. A beautiful bud just opening its fair sweet petals to life's love and sunshine, but Jesus said "Suffer Little Children to Come Unto Me", and He has called her from her little friends unto Himself. Do not grieve for her, but look up with love and see her "Safe In The Arms of Jesus. — A FRIEND.

Little Mary Francis Summey died Aug. 14, 1921 age 5. After a brief illness of diphtheria the angel of death did not hover long over her little bed. The God who gave her to us was merciful and almost before we realized it the angels bore her spirit to her eternal home. But oh how we miss her; the home is no more the same; the dear voice we loved to hear is hushed in death, but Heaven seems nearer since she is there. She was only a bud on earth to bloom in Heaven.

Oh for the touch of a vanished hand and a sound of a voice that is still. One who loved her.

Rev. and Mrs. Smith Horden and son, Walter, of Bradenton, Fla., were recent visitors here, having included Brevard in their motor trip extending as far North as Pennsylvania and covering several thousand miles.

MEETING OF COUNTY TEACHERS

Object Of Meeting To Organize Reading Circle — Plan Work Of State Teachers.

A meeting of the County teachers was called by Supt. A. F. Mitchell on last Saturday in Brevard.

The object of the meeting was two fold: to organize the Reading Circle work for the year, and to plan for the local work of the State teachers.

Assembly — It was planned to carry on the required work of the Reading Circle for the County in five groups as follows:

Brevard becomes the center for one group under the leadership of Miss Tyner.

The Rosman group under the leadership of Mr. J. E. Ockerman. Penrose group with Mr. A. L. Ponder as leader. Pisgah Forest group, with Mr. McCloud as leader. Lake Toxaway group with Mr. F. L. Wilson as leader. The leaders of these groups together with Mr. Verner and Miss Jenkins constitute the committee to select books and plan for the meetings of which the State requires five in order to secure credit for the work.

The local organization of Transylvania Unit of the N. C. State teacher's Assembly was affected as follows:

Supt. A. F. Mitchell was chosen as President; Mr. J. E. Ockerman, Secretary - treasurer; Miss Cora Tyner, Vice - President.

The following committees were appointed by the President:

Progressive Committee, S. C. Verner, Mr. McCloud, Otto Alexander, N. L. Ponder, Miss Jennie Godfrey, Miss Julia Deaver, and Miss Janie Gillespie.

Committee on Resolutions: F. L. Wilson, Norma Chapman, Miss Genet James, Miss Elizabeth Morton, and Miss Christine Allen.

After a very pleasant talk by Prof. Haynes the meeting was adjourned to convene at the call of the executive Committee.

J. E. OCKERMAN, Sec'y - treas.

EX - SECRET SERVICE MAN TO SPEAK:

Prof. Jack Power of Washington, D. C., who spoke in Brevard to a capacity audience at the Methodist Church on the night of Sept. 4th, will address men, women and children in the Court House on the night of Sept. 18th at 8:15 P. M. Friday. Power has addressed large audiences throughout the country and is considered a magnetic speaker.

His past experience in Secret Service affords him an insight into the lives of folks that is almost unbelievable.

He spoke in the churches and auditorium at Asheville for more than four weeks and always to large audiences.

The audience at the 1st Baptist Church, Hendersonville, last Sunday night was delighted with Power's attack upon vice. Also his address at the Court House to Men only was well received. Power invites all the ladies with babies to bring them out next Friday night; as he can make more noise than all of 'em.

Friday night at 8:15 o'clock in the Court House for Everybody. Subject — GRIT.

WHITMIRE-ISRAEL

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock when Miss Hass' Whitmire of Rosman became the bride of Mr. George M. Israel of Asheville, N. C., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Whitmire. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dupee in the presence of a number of invited guests.

The bride was the recipient of some beautiful and valuable presents.

She is one of Rosman's most lovable and attractive young ladies. The bride groom is a very popular and estimable young man who came here from Asheville sometime ago and has made many friends in Rosman.

The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for Asheville and other places of interest.
