LISTENERS

- | Simeon Strunsky pleads for more and better listeners in society. He thinks it would be a great thing for any social gathering if there were one good listener present. This listener must confess that he has not read "If Winter Comes," He has not read anything, in fact, says the Wichita Eagle. Thus he gives the others a chance to tell all about it, and everybody is happy. There is much to be said for the listence. If he is a good "feeder" he helps to make those about him feel important, And, feeling thus, they are happy. Also, the good listener is levce by all. The fellow who has a state story to tell loves the man who adult's engerty that he has not heard i property, in the hope that this sentiof The listener, however, must be cent may find its way into the jury tung as well informed and as wen i equipped as the talker. ### Dear Mr. Band:

Asheville Citizen, and which appears o have been sent from Brevard on anuary 22, 1923, and given promisence in that widely circulated melium, appears to have been desigcolly prepared and forwarded that might find its way into many homes n Transylvania county just on the ve of calling some case involving the liability of the owner of Toxaway property for damage done to farms, crops, homes, bridges and other property on the waters of Toxaway river below where the dam was located. This method on the part of someone has become habitual and this same propaganda finds its way into some ewspaper just before each term of ourt when some Toxaway dam case about to be called, and it can be for an other purpose than that it ay, in some measure, influence pube sentiment in Transylvania county in favor of the owner of Toxaway how. All such attempts on the part 'race offered, under rules of law riven by the court, should be frewn of down upon by every law abiding he wished with his property. A waiting public has hoped that he would less the listener listens intelligently, against him to hinder him. The farmers who lost lands, crops, homes,
