

SOCIETY NEWS

MATHATASIAN CLUB

Mrs. E. H. Newwood was hostess of the MathatAsian Club Thursday evening January 22nd.

The club members responded to the passing around a celebrated dinner relating to German art. This was followed by a brief discussion of each picture.

During the business session, several matters of importance were discussed and passed upon. It was voted to endorse the project of the proposed Women's Building and to change the club's constitution.

The president inaugurated the program committee for the ensuing year, 1925-26. This committee consists of Mrs. Egan, Mrs. Long and Mrs. W. H. Galloway.

BREVARD WEDNESDAY CLUB

The Brevard Wednesday Club met at the home of Mrs. R. B. Lyon on January fourteenth, with fifteen members and five guests present.

A large majority of the members attended to roll-call with a current account, showing that more interest is being taken in this feature of the program.

The treasurer being ill, her report was read by the secretary.

Business of the committee appointed to see Mr. Clement about securing a picture to be housed in the Brevard Wednesday Club, was next in order, and the chairman, Mrs. Brooks, reported that Mr. Clement had promised us Sacramento.

The president announced the program committee for the ensuing year as follows: Mrs. O. L. Erwin, chairman; Mrs. J. M. Allison and Mrs. R. W. Everett.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Garrison, and the selections read of Ford and the incas, with their respective miniature gardens were intensely interesting.

MRS. PLUMMER'S SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ENTERTAINS

Mrs. H. A. Plummer's Sunday School class of the Methodist church met in the social room of the church Tuesday night.

Miss Amelia Galloway, president of the class, conducted the business session, after which games and contests were enjoyed by all present.

During the course of the evening, delightful refreshments were served. This class is growing very popular with the young ladies of the church, socially as well as religiously.

"FAREWELL" FOR REV. J. R. HAY

The Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church entertained for the men Friday night at the Hut, with a farewell party for Rev. J. R. Hay.

This was in the nature of a "Stag Party," the male members of the church being present, as well as a number of the prominent men of the town.

After a most sumptuous feast served by the ladies, there followed interesting talks relative to Rev. Hay and his splendid services to the church and people of Brevard during his stay in the town. These talks were given by Rev. Wallace Hartshill, Mr. J. S. Silverstein and S. P. Verrier. Mr. Hay then responded with most appropriate words.

This was unanimously voted as a very successful evening, as well as an extremely satisfying supper.

SUSIE HUNT HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

The birthday party for Susie Hunt was held at her home with a most enjoyable party.

The children spent the afternoon playing games of various kinds, and several high Victorian records.

Both refreshments were served and late hour the guests departed, wishing for their little hostess many returns of the day.

Those present to enjoy Susie's party were: Nell Love, Sarah Louise Andrews, Inge Shipman, Mark Taylor, Orr, A. H. Muel, Rachel Williams, James Lyon, Essie Norton, Mildred Norton, Celia Shuford, Hattie Sue Sinton, and also Miss Patton, Susie's teacher.

PERSONALS

Miss Dorothy Silverstein is home from Brevard College for several days during the session of the mid-year examinations, from which Miss Dorothy is exempt.

Mrs. F. E. B. Jenkins spent several days recently in Waynesville, visiting her sister.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mullen on January 18th, a nine pound boy.

Miss Annie Marshall spent the week-end in Asheville with her parents.

Mrs. C. C. Austin has been ill in the Brevard Hospital, but has sufficiently recovered to be able to return to her home on Broad street.

Miss Miriam Silverstein left last week for New York City, where she will enter Columbia University for the purpose of specializing in a course in Journalism.

Mr. Howard Hoover, of Marion, was a week-end visitor, with friends in Brevard.

Mr. Robert Kimsey is home from Davidson College for a brief vacation during the mid-year examinations, from which he is exempt.

The many friends of Mrs. G. E. Lathrop will regret to learn that she has been quite ill in a hospital in Concordia, Kansas, in which city she has been visiting friends for some time. Mrs. Lathrop's condition is reported as considerably improved, and it is hoped that she will soon be able to leave the hospital.

Misses McKee and Robinson, of the High School faculty, delightfully entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Cook with four tables of bridge.

On the streets Saturday were two truck loads of oranges selling for fifty cents per peck.

Mrs. L. Townsend returned last week to her home in Charleston, S. C., after an extended visit here with her sister, Mrs. M. A. Johnstone.

Miss Lela Brooks and Mrs. Wm. Ray, of Toxaway, were in town shopping one day last week.

Mrs. A. H. Harris and daughter, Mrs. Walter Duckworth, returned the first of the week from Knoxville, Tenn., where they spent several days visiting the former's father and other relatives.

Mr. Anthony Trantham left recently for Atlanta to resume his studies in a business college in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. C. Johnson, of Asheville, spent Sunday in Brevard with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kinipe, of Marion, spent the week-end in Brevard with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Sludge.

Mrs. A. H. Galloway was home from her trip to Asheville Friday evening.

Rev. E. R. Welch returned to Asheville Friday on business.

Mrs. Annie Wenderly and daughter, Mary, spent the week-end with friends in Cherryfield.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hart, of Little River, announce the birth of a daughter, January 17th.

Mr. W. E. Breese was in Raleigh several days last week on business.

Mrs. Kay King left last week for Winston-Salem, where she visited relatives for several days.

The following item was clipped from the Lakeland (Fla.) Star-Telegram of Jan. 23:

W. E. K. Ballard, of Brevard, N. C., reached Lakeland Tuesday for a visit of several months and is pleasantly located at 615 West Lemon street.

Miss Nettie E. Lewis has accepted a position with the Citizens National Bank of Hendersonville.

Mr. Jerry Jerome, who has been ill with the "flu," is improving.

Mr. Arthur Harrel is ill with the "flu" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Nichols.

BOJANEY - SAPPHIRE

Dr. and Mrs. Parsons are spending the winter at their beautiful home, Sapphire Inn, instead of returning to their former home at Charleston, S. C., as they have done for several winters past. Dr. Parsons is an eye specialist and has been active in his practice for the past twenty-five years in Charleston.

Mr. Hall Hinkle has accepted the position as manager of the commissary recently opened by Mr. P. P. Johnson. Mr. Hinkle has done clerical work in Greenville, S. C., for several years, and we wish for him much success in his new position.

Mr. Andy Woods and family are among the new comers in our community, and are now occupying the James P. Hinkle residence.

Mr. Mark Hinkle, of Oklahoma, who has been visiting his cousin, Mr. Carl Robinson has accepted a position with Mr. Johnson.

Mr. John Howard was a visitor at Mr. W. H. Hinkle's last Sunday.

Mr. Carl Robinson spent the week-end at the home of his father in Salem, S. C.

Several of our people went to Toxaway Sunday to hear the lecture given by Professor Melton, of Fruitland Institute.

We are all glad to see Mrs. Parsons, who has been ill, out again.

NEW PRICES

NEW models--record-breaking sales and production--have made it possible for Studebaker to reduce prices without lowering quality.

Think twice before buying any car upon which reductions may soon be announced.

Think twice before buying any car that has reduced its quality along with its price.

Insist upon knowing all the facts about any car you're considering.

REDUCED Prices on All Ford Models

STANDARD SIX	SPECIAL SIX	FORD SIX
Country Club Coupe $1775	Country Club Coupe $2150	Country Club Coupe $2150
Coupe 1775	Coupe 2150	Coupe 2150
Sedan 1875	Sedan 2650	Sedan 2650

Henry Motor Co.

PHONE - 23

Brevard, - - N. C.

STUDEBAKER

THIS IS A CONSIDERABLE YEAR

Patterson's January Clearance Sale SPECIALS

Floor Mats, 18 by 36 inches, Special	10c
50c White or Colored Oilcloth	33c
85c Guaranteed Window Shades	55c
Cotton Batting, Clearance Sale Price	10c
Alarm Clocks, Guaranteed One Year	98c
Good Quality Sheeting, 40 inches wide	10c
15c Dress and Apron Gingham, Sale Price	10c
Grey Cotton Single Blankets, Sale Price	89c
Babies "Fairy" Soft Sole Shoes, Per Pair	49c
Men's Leather Palm Gauntlets, Sale Price	29c
Men's Canvas Gloves, Special Price	10c
Childrens Brush Wool Toboggans, Sale Price	45c

PHONE

208

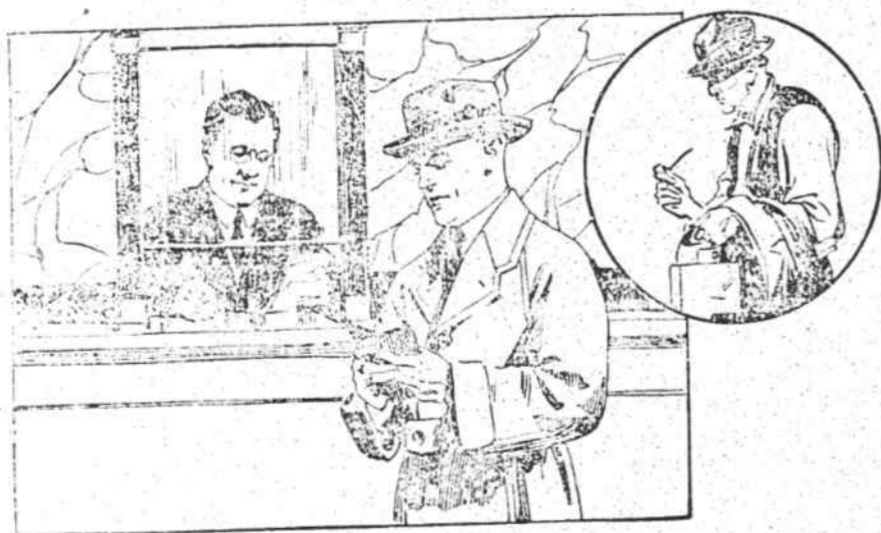

BREVARD'S ONLY QUALITY DEPARTMENT STORE

Patterson's DEPARTMENT STORE

MAIN STREET BREVARD, N. C.

N. MORRIS, Mgr.

THRIFTY YOUTH

Thrifty youth means old age comfort, so why not prepare now for your old age, when your productive days will be over, and you can enjoy yourself in comfort? It costs only a little to start a Savings Account--and a little added each pay-day soon adds up into a most comfortable sum. We add interest at 4 per cent.

BREVARD BANKING CO.