

Two City urchins on a farm were overheard in the following dialogue. Joe, why can't chickens talk? Aw, they don't have to. When they they want anything they just pull their wishbones an they get 'thers wish.

Blinks; Gonns join the boys in a little game tonight? Jinks-Nope; Can't. Gotta spend the evening with my wife. Been out three nights already this week and I'm way behind in my listening.

It's Attractive, Too!

At last a heater that will add to the attractiveness of any room in your home! A heater that circulates fresh warm air throughout every room! A heater that is as beautiful as it is efficient and economical.

This new kind of home heating plant—the Sunbeam Cabinet Heater—will abundantly heat five to seven rooms. It takes the place of two or three stoves and doesn't require a basement. It burns either hard or soft coal or wood. It occupies no more space than a phonograph.

Come in today and let us show it to you, or ask us to send you descriptive literature.

EAST FORK NEWS

Land trading on East Fork keeps going. Mr. B. A. Gillespie recently bought the G. J. Bradley place. Mr. Dodd, of Greenville purchased six acres of land from J. A. Gillespie. Dr. Johnson of Greenville, Mr. S. H. Gillespie's place. Messrs Singleterry and Smith of Greenville, E. A. Batson's home place, and Messrs. W. R. Kimzey and L. E. Bagwell have purchased a three hundred acre tract from W. W. and W. C. Gravelly. Several others have given options on land.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gravelly and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Durham, of Pickens, S. C., recently visited Mr. Gravelly's and Mrs. Durham's uncle, Mr. W. W. Gravelly, Sr.

Rev. Mr. Monroe, of Brevard, was in our section week before last, spending a day and night. We are glad to have him visit our community.

Most our folks were kept busy Saturday gathering up green beans, tomatoes and pepper, getting ready for frost.

Mr. Jim Gravelly took a load of cabbage to South Carolina last week. We suppose he got home safe, as he was seen later giving "Ford driving lessons."

Who knows what "Confound" means? We heard of the word being used lately and would like to know the meaning.
