"WHAT A SHAME"

Editor Brevard News:

It sure is a pity that a keeper of a restaurant should be called on to face the mayor at the mayor's court because he considered it a good deed when after the fire last Monday night, he served members of the fire department with hot coffee and soup after twelve o'clock:

Coming back from the fire, the engine stuck in the red mud right below the Stowers place, and after working hard in the cold and being liquor laws. exposed, it was after twelve when the engine was brought back to the

Isn't it deserving a VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT to be served with hot rations, at a restaurant, though it was way in the night, and the new town ordinance calls for all restaurants to be closed at twelve?

The firemen are giving their time and labor, doing a good deed for humanity, not getting a red copper in pay, but, being exempt from street tax. A hard night's work like last Monday night is worth more than the exemption of this tax.
