FARM NEWS

Important

Many will be wanting the best purebred cocks and cockerels, next spring, that they can get. We have some very good blood in the County now, and many fine prospects will soon go to the meat market if not sold for breeding purposes. Dan Merrill, Mr. Lowe, and others will be glad to swap chickens with those wanting better blood. Some want two pounds of poor blood for one of theirs, another wants reds or rocks for his, and various trades can be made. These men are not afraid of competition, and have the poultry business of the County at heart, and make these generous offers to help the poultry program along.

Whether to cultivate or not cultivate when there are no weeds and the surface dusty, has been the leading question for the week. We cultivate to kill weeds and keep a dust mulch to preserve moisture. These two things being done, you have done your part, so do not waste your time and turn what little moisture you have up to the sun. As soon as it rains and a crust is formed, then cultivate.

The queen bees were shipped in last week. One to Mr. Tom McKinna, two to Mr. Luther Aiken, and seven to David and Riley Merrill. That means better blood and more honey. The bee business is growing fast, but not half enough honey for home use yet.

The patent hives give fifteen dollars per hive, while the old gum or box hive average one fifty per hive, in the same yards. Mr. McKinna had one queen and her household that produced 150 pounds of honey, worth $41.25. This was an exceptional good queen, and it is our desire to weed out the old and poor queens and put in high bred queens.

This County was allotted ten dairy bulls to be brought in during the dairy campaign. I would not promise a hard campaign this year, but anyone wishing to buy a good bull, will help the County's record by buying now, and at a time while the market is lined up for getting the animals in car lots to nearby stations.

Jackson County

We will need feeders from Jackson County next fall. That county has not been T. B. Tested, so we can not run over and bring in a bunch as usual. If you know any of the officials over there, urge them to have their cattle tested, so we can do business with them.

Rain is hitting all around us, and we expect ours any day.

A. F. PAXTON DIES AT HOME IN CHERRYFIELD

A. F. Paxton, aged 78, of Cherryfield, died at his home Thursday, June 3, after having been in ill health for the past three years. Funeral services were held the following Sunday at the home of his son, Fielding Paxton, Calvert, with Rev. Richardson, pastor of the Roman Methodist church, officiating, assisted by Rev. Stanberry. His body was laid to rest in the Greenwood cemetery, Calvert.

Mr. Paxton was born and reared in Transylvania county, and was a resident of this county all his life with the exception of eight years. He belonged to one of the oldest and most prominent families in the county, and lived and died, a highly respected gentleman in the community.

Mr. Paxton is survived by his widow, four sons and one daughter. The four sons, all residents of Brevard, are: Cos, Ernest, Fielding and G. H., and the one daughter, Mrs. Carr Owen, is a resident of Cherryfield.

MRS. S. B. GLAZENER DIES AT HOME OF DAUGHTER IN TEXAS

Word is received here of the recent death of Mrs. S. B. Glazener, formerly of Brevard, which occurred in Trinity, Texas, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Artie Rains. Mrs. Glazener died very suddenly while visiting her daughter. Her remains were brought back to her home in Houston, where funeral services were held at the Baptist church, of which she had been a member for 60 years.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Glazener is survived by four children, 16 grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

FREE BAND CONCERTS BEGIN TUESDAY NIGHT

The first free band concert of the season given by the municipal band will be held in the bandstand next Tuesday evening, June 15, and will continue each Tuesday and Friday evening, June 15, and will commence.

T. E. L. MEETS TUESDAY

The T. E. L. class of the Baptist church will meet next Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. D. F. Moore, with Mrs. Moore and Mrs. S. E. Sterling as hostesses.

AMERICAN LEGION MEETS FRIDAY EVE

MEMBERS MUST RENEW OR LOSE CHARTER

While breakfasting with State Commander Steven in Charlotte recently, Ralph Fisher of Brevard, was informed that unless a reorganization of Monroe Wilson, Post No. 88 of the American Legion was immediately perfected, that the post will lose its charter, and that unless the service men of Transylvania county paid their dues by the fifteen of June of this year, that they will be barred from the trip to Europe, under the auspices of the American Legion.

There will be a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce Friday night to perfect such organization. Eight or ten boys of this town expect to go to Europe in 1927 at a cost of $300 in full. If you have any inclination to go, pay your dues now and you have eighteen months to think the matter over.

DISTRICT MISSIONARY MEETS WITH BREVARD AUXILIARY

The Women's Missionary Society of the Asheville district held its annual meeting at the Brevard Methodist church Wednesday and Thursday of this week, with the local auxiliary as hostess.

Practically 75 delegates were present at the opening session Wednesday morning, at which the district president, Mrs. V. L. Stone, of Central church, Asheville, presided. The delegates at the opening session represented the societies at Weaverville, East Flat Rock, Hendersonville, Elk Mt., Central, Haywood street, and Chestnut street churches of Asheville, and West Asheville.

The Wednesday morning session opened with prayer by Mrs. Stone, followed by a prayer and praise service led by Mrs. W. W. Hanaman, of the Brevard Auxiliary. Mrs. Hanaman read several verses of scripture from the twenty-fourth chapter of Luke, choosing as her theme "Service," and stressing the necessity of taking Christ as the highest example of service. Quite a number of delegates and visitors present entered into the open discussion on the subject.

Other features of the morning program were one minute reports from the adult delegates, a discussion of Christian Stewardship by Mrs. J. W. Payne, of East Flat Rock.

Adjournment was made for the lunch hour, at which time members of the local society served lunch to visiting delegates.

The afternoon session included a report of the district secretary, and of the conference corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. A. Dunham, mission study and Bible study by Mrs. G. L. Steele, of Hendersonville, and a discussion of the Belle Bennett Memorial by Mrs. H. R. Steele, of Asheville. The superintendents of the various departments of the missionary work were heard from, in addition to discussions by Mrs. Fred Reeves, of Asheville, and Mrs. R. P. Hollinshead, of Brevard.

The last thing before adjournment was the taking of adult pledges for the ensuing year, led by Mrs. Stone. After adjournment, a number of cars were on hand to drive the visiting delegates to various places of interest over the town and vicinity.

A record of the remaining two sessions of the conference was not possible to secure before going to press.

FRENCH BROAD PARK IS OUTSTANDING IN ITS DEVELOPMENT

SEVERAL COTTAGES ALREADY STARTED

One of the outstanding and more recent of the many subdivisions surrounding Brevard is that of French Broad Park, a community of 500 homes, situated 8 miles from Brevard on the Hendersonville-Brevard highway. The property is owned and being developed by a syndicate of prominent capitalists from Montgomery, Ala., comprising W. T. McGowan, T. J. Salter, J. C. Salter, and W. R. McKee.

The French Broad river is the southern boundary of the property, through which the Southern railway and State Highway No. 28 both pass. Good surfaced roads with easy grades lead to each home and all are connected with the main paved highway.

The development when completed will accommodate 2,000 people, with its 500 cottages of three, four and five rooms, each located on a large lot overlooking the beauties of the surrounding mountains. While the homes are mainly of the rustic type and vary in outside appearance, they are similarly constructed inside, all being fully equipped with water, lights, sewerage, front and back porch and a garage underneath the porch. Each cottage is surrounded by trees, shrubbery and mountain foliage.

The first development of the property began less than four weeks ago, and there are at (continued on second page)

REV. HAY AND BOY SCOUTS HERE THIS WEEK

Rev. J. R. Hay and 30 of his Boy Scouts from Clover, S. C., are on their annual camping trip to Brevard this week, and are now located at Camp Transylvania. They arrived Tuesday and will remain in camping quarters until the first of next week.

MISS ELIZABETH WELCH IS HIGHLY HONORED AT COLLEGE

Miss Elizabeth Welch, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Welch, was graduated from Greensboro College for Women the past week with first honors in a class of 39.

She was president of the senior class, vice-president of the Y. W. C. A., in addition to holding a dozen or more other offices representing the various activities of college life. Besides finishing the literary course with highest honors, she also studied pipe organ, making her senior year an altogether strenuous one.

Miss Welch has been elected to the position of head of the Latin department of Brevard High School for the coming year.

REVIVAL STARTS AT METH. CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY, 13

REV. THURSTON B. PRICE TO HAVE CHARGE

Rev. Thurston B. Price, general evangelist of the Methodist church, South, with his party will hold a two week's revival meeting in the Brevard Methodist church, starting next Sunday morning June 13.

Dr. Price is an able preacher and draws large crowds with his unique style of presenting the old-fashioned gospel, and never fails to hold a successful meeting. Several years practice at the bar as a successful criminal lawyer has given him a style of appeal that is most irresistible.

It is considered very fortunate that Dr. Price could be secured for Brevard, since all his dates were taken for large cities and he was able to come at this time only through a shift of dates.

It is hoped that the meeting will be a union meeting of all the churches, pastor and people, and is assured that if all will co-operate no one will have occasion to regret it.

NEW SWITCHBOARD IS INSTALLED BY LOCAL CO.

The Citizens Telephone Company installed Monday night a new and enlarged switchboard, and other improvements are being made by the company.

A detailed account of the various improvements will appear in next week's issue of the News.

WOMANS BUREAU ARE ON CAMPAIGN

SEVERAL MATTERS OF IMPORTANCE DISCUSSED

At the regular meeting of the Woman's Bureau held Monday afternoon several matters of importance to the welfare of the town were discussed and acted upon.

Following a lengthy discussion relative to the unkempt condition of the streets of the town and to the proper method of procedure in remedying same, the president appointed a sanitary committee consisting of Miss Florence Kern, Mrs. J. W. Smith, Mrs. Beulah Zachary and Mrs. C. E. Orr to act in co-operation with the town officials in keeping the streets of the business district, especially, in a more clean and presentable appearance.

In accordance with this action, the Bureau voted to appropriate a portion of its treasury funds in paying a boy to keep the papers and trash off the business streets and sidewalks, this to be done under the supervision of Policeman Jamison. The boy was hired for full time work for three weeks, and began his duties Tuesday morning.

Mr. Jamison came before the body of ladies assembled in meeting and pledged his assistance and co-operation in trying to make Brevard a cleaner and more sanitary place in which to live. He will directly supervise the work of the boy in combined effort with and through the backing of the Woman's Bureau in its earnest attempts toward keeping the town clean and attractive.

The ladies also requested Mr. Jamison that he enforce more rigidly the ordinances regarding the throwing or sweeping of trash on the streets and sidewalks.

The Bureau went on record also of endorsing the establishment of the proposed school for illiterates in Brevard, and voted to pay its proportionate part in the expenses thereby involved. The four women's organizations of the town have voted to endorse the creation of this night school to be held in Brevard during the fall and winter months, and it only remains now to find the proper teacher who is willing to qualify herself for this position.

WOODMEN TO HOLD MEMORIAL

The annual memorial services of the local camp Woodmen of the World will be held at the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11. Rev. W. H. Hartsell, pastor, will have charge of the service.

KIWANIANS HOLD 'LADIES NIGHT'

'ALL KIWANIS' MEETING HELD AT FRANKLIN

Ninety-eight thousand Kiwanians throughout the United States and foreign countries, representing more than twelve hundred clubs met in "All Kiwanis Night" meeting Monday evening. The meetings of all the clubs were held simultaneously and "Zero Hour"—7 o'clock Eastern time—was observed by Brevard Kiwanians in accordance with the suggestion of the convention committee, for at this hour the keynote address by International President Moss was made in opening the Montreal convention. President W. E. Breeze called the meeting to order at the appointed hour and the meeting continued throughout the evening until 10 o'clock.

An added feature of "All Kiwanis Night" was the first "Ladies Night" given by the Brevard Kiwanians, meeting which included a dinner at the Franklin Hotel, attended by forty Kiwanians and their ladies, was a happy affair. W. E. Breeze welcomed the ladies and following a custom of Kiwanis to introduce guests at the beginning of dinner, the ladies were presented soon after entering the dining room. During the evening every lady and Kiwanian was called upon for a minute talk and many happy responses were made, particularly by the ladies. Miss Rowena Orr presided at the piano accompanied the singing, which is always an outstanding feature of Kiwanis meetings. Mrs. C. P. Wilkins entertained with musical selections, well rendered and enjoyed immensely. Through the courtesy of W. E. Breeze, a radio courtesy of W. E. Breeze, a radiola was installed in the dining room and at intervals many stations broadcasting musical programs were tuned in, adding much to the entertainment of the evening.

The continual flow of spontaneous wit for which President Breeze has made an enviable reputation, was decidedly the life of the first "Ladies Night." Other meetings to which the ladies will be invited will be held throughout the year.

LAW OFFICES OF R. L. GASH ENTERED; SAFE PILFERED

Unknown persons entered the law offices of R. L. Gash in the Brevard building some time from Saturday night at 10:30 and Monday morning and opened the safe, bursting the strong box and leaving strong evidence of "knowing their business."

All doors leading into the offices were locked and windows fastened Monday morning, according to Mr. Gash, no trace of entering or leaving being left by the intruders. No papers were missing from the safe, many valuable documents being left untouched.

Mr. Gash was known to have had currency to the amount of $8,000 in his possession Saturday, and this is thought to have been the motive of the would-be thieves—thinking possibly to make a haul. However, no money had been left in the safe.

REV. J. R. HAY TO PREACH AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. J. R. Hay, pastor of the Clover, S. C., Presbyterian church, and former pastor of the Brevard Presbyterian church, will preach at the local Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.

THE PRAYER CORNER

A DAY IN JUNE

May I share with you, my dear friends, a sweet poem by James Russell Lowell? The true mission of poetry is to increase joy. It must, indeed, be sensitive to sorrow, and acquainted with grief. But it has wings given to it in order that it may bear us up into the ether of gladness. That is why I ask you to share Lowell's poem with me, that it may increase your joy and bear you up into the ether of gladness.

What is so rare as a day in June?
Then, if ever, come perfect days,
The Heaven tries the earth, if it be in tune

And over it softly her warm ear lays;

Whether we look, or whether we listen,

We hear life murmur, and see it
glisten:

Every clod feels a stir of might,
An instinct within it that reaches
and towers,

And groping blindly above it for light,

Climbs to a soul in grass and flower,
The flush of life may well be seen,
Thrilling back over hills and valleys,
The cowslip startles in meadow
green,

The buttercup catches the sun in its chalice,

And there's never a leaf nor a blade too mean

To be some happy creature's palace.
The little bird sits at his door in the sun,

Attil like a blossom among the leaves,

And lets his illumined being o'er run
With the deluge of Summer it receives.

His mate feels the eggs beneath her wings;

And the heart in her dumb breast
flutters and sings.

He sings to the wide world, and she
to her nest.

In the nice ear of Nature which song is the best?

A PRAYER FOR A DAY IN JUNE

Our Father, we thank Thee for the inspiration, and light, and joy of our gifted poets. Today we thank Thee for that one whose sweet poem on "A Day in June" we have just read. May it increase our joy, and bear us up into the ether of gladness, so that we may meet the daily trials, and the sorrows and griefs of life with a sweet and courageous spirit, remembering that no star we have seen will cease to shine.

Open our ears, we pray Thee, that we may hear the message that each day in June has for us and for all who will hear, which Thou hast given her, and hearing it, may heed it. And this is her message from Thee: "Behind the roses hid, I smile and smile the live long day. I breathe in ever; roses' breath, and sing in every bird's glad throat, and make the earth look fresh and gay; but back of me, a Higher Power has showered gifts on me. My heart beats large and warm above the wind, above the storm, and silvery stream and rivers, run and sing His praise—His voice obey. The Rose of Sharon is His name, and I have come to bid the earth looking up to Him, take heart anew, and like the rose, exalt His fragrance till it rise in incense to the throne above."

So hearing and heeding the message of the Days in June, Thou wilt put a new song into our hearts, O our Father, and strengthen and uphold us, and give us courage to endure unto the end, in the Name and for the sake of Him, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee, and the Holy Spirit, One God forever and ever. Amen.

LON GALLOWAY GETS LIFE SENTENCE FOR MURDER

O. S. (Lon) Galloway, charged with the murder of Al Ramey at a still house in the Horsepasture section, just over the Transylvania line, on February 12, was convicted of murder with recommendation of mercy in the general sessions court at Pikesville, S. C., Tuesday. The verdict carries a sentence of life imprisonment.

The jury brought in the verdict after a deliberation of over three hours.
