S. S. CONVENTION MEETS JULY 13-14

BE HELD WITH MACEDONIA BAPTIST CHURCH

Beginning Tuesday night, July 13, and continuing through Wednesday night, the Transylvania County Sunday School Convention will be held at Macedonia Baptist church, seven miles north of Quebec, N. C. Pastors, superintendents, teachers and officers of all Sunday Schools of all denominations in the county have been invited to attend the sessions of the convention.

The officers in charge of arrangements for the convention are expecting a large attendance of workers from all parts of the county. The convention is open to the public, and all who are interested in the Sunday School, whether they are actively engaged in the work or not, are invited to attend.

The convention is being held under the auspices of the Transylvania County and the North Carolina Sunday School Associations, and is one of a series of such conventions that will be held in each of the one hundred counties of the State this year. All of the counties in the State are organized into County Sunday School Associations and holding county and township conventions.

FORMER RESIDENT VISITS BREVARD

Eli Stancel, of Greer, S. C., and a former resident of Brevard some 28 years ago, was a Brevard visitor the past week, his first since leaving the state and becoming a resident of the Palmetto state.

Mr. Stancel expressed surprise at the decide changes and improvements in evidence in the town and county, and was of the opinion that Transylvania is one of the most progressive counties in the state. Mr. Stancel paid The News a visit during his stay here, and subscribed for his old home-paper.

WILLIAMS STOCK CO. COMING HERE FOR A WEEK ENGAGEMENT

COMPANY OF FORTY PEOPLE COMPRISE THE STAFF

The Williams Stock company is presenting a week of high class shows in Brevard in a new $10,000 tent theatre to be pitched on the grounds adjoining the high school building, the show to start next Monday July 12, and continuing through the week with nightly performances.

Forty people comprise the company staff which will present only royalty plays, including "Lightning," "It Pays to Smile" and featuring Marie De Gofferey and May Blossom Williams. Vaudeville will be shown between the acts. A change of program will appear each night.

The Williams Stock company is showing in Hendersonville this week and are booked for Asheville following the Brevard engagement. The company appears in Brevard under the auspices of and for the benefit of the local Sunday School baseball league.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NEWS

Did you miss the Bible school demonstration Friday night? If you did you missed one of the finest things ever held in this church. There were splendid Gospel songs, scripture recitations, questions on Bible geography, on the Bible and its books, questions on Bible doctrine, on the life of Christ, and on the life of Paul, questions from the child's catechism and from the shorter catechism. One class challenged the congregation to try to stump them on the first forty questions of the shorter catechism, but no one took them up.

Much credit is due Mr. Wayne A. Monroe, who promoted the Bible school and the faithful and self-sacrificial teachers whose loyalty made the school possible. The teaching force of this church consisted of Miss Nellie Rambo, Miss Jennie Chandler, Mrs. Charles Verner and Mrs. Vernon Crawford.

The celebration of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the eleven o'clock services next Sunday morning, July 11.
