MRS. HANAMAN ENTERTAINS WITH DINNER PARTY

Mrs. W. W. Hanaman entertained at dinner Thursday evening at her home on East Main street, in honor of Miss Fannie Holt, director of Keystone Camp, who is spending some time in Brevard. Covers were laid for ten. Among the other guests were Rev. and Mrs. V. A. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lawrence and Miss Marguerite Robertson. A very beautiful program of piano and violin was rendered during the evening by Miss Robertson and Miss Elizabeth Hanaman.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB HOLDS MEETING

An enjoyable meeting of the Fortnightly club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. O. K. King. Announcement was made of the fact that the Fortnightly club won the five dollar gold piece offered by the district president, Mrs. J. S. Silverstein, to the club having the largest attendance in proportion to membership at the recent district meeting held in Asheville.

Following the business session, an interesting program on the subject of "The value of women voters to a community," was led by Miss Alma Trowbridge. A general discussion of the subject followed in which the club members participated.

INSTITUTE SENIORS ENJOY HIKE

Members of the Brevard Institute senior class enjoyed a hike and picnic supper at Glen Cannon Falls Wednesday evening, chaperoned by Mrs. Oliver Orr.

Twenty-seven members comprise the senior class this year, and the ordinarily grave and reverend seniors lost their accustomed dignity for this occasion and enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent.

MATHAASIAN CLUB MEETING IS POSTPONED

The Mathathasian club will hold its regular meeting Friday afternoon of this week instead of Thursday, at the home of Mrs. W. W. Hanaman. The change is made for this week in order not to conflict with the Week of Prayer services at the Methodist church on Thursday.

W. M. S. MEETS

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church held its regular monthly meeting last Tuesday afternoon at the church. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. T. P. Ward, who lead the devotionals. The subject of the program for the month was "Europe and the Near East," and Mrs. P. S. King was leader. A very interesting and helpful talk was made by Mrs. Ella Duckworth on "Peace," and the work of the Southern Baptist church in the different countries was discussed by several of the ladies. After a short business session the meeting adjourned.

DUNCAN-HAMILTON

A wedding, beautiful in detail, was that of Miss Larue Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hamilton, and Virgil Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Duncan, of Hendersonville, solemnized Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the home of their pastor, Rev. J. F. Scott.

The groom is a young Hendersonville business man, who has many friends, both in Henderson and Transylvania county, who will be interested in his marriage.

The bride is a charming young lady, very popular and attractive. Her many friends wish her much success and happiness.

The bride wore a very attractive gown of rose and tan satin-back crepe. She wore a charming hat and a beautiful coat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan left for Hendersonville, where they will make their home with Mr. Duncan's parents.

MCNEELY-BROOKS

Coming as a surprise to their many friends throughout the county was the marriage of Miss Lela V. Brooks to Mr. Charles R. McNeely, both of Lake Toxaway, the wedding being solemnized Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. S. Price, Jr., in Brevard. Rev. W. H. Hartsell, pastor of the Brevard Baptist church, officiated.

The room in which the ceremony was performed was beautifully decorated in autumn leaves and other suggestions of the season.

The bride was most becomingly attired in a dark blue satin-back crepe dress, with a traveling suit of crystal crepe in green and accessories to match.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McNeely left on a wedding trip of ten days, after which they will return to Brevard to make their home.

Those witnessing the ceremony were: Mrs. W. S. Price, Mrs. Joe Zachary, Miss Reubenia Nicholson, Lem Brooks, Whit Brooks.

J. O. Barrett moved his family this week from Asheville, and they are now located in the J. A. Bishop house in North Brevard.
