

LOCALS and PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Milan Nicholson and family attended the funeral of Mrs. Nicholson's uncle, Mr. B. C. Hall, in Anderson, S. C., Monday.

Miss Mary Bosse, who is teaching at Converse College, is spending the spring vacation with her mother, Mrs. L. H. Bosse.

Mrs. Lamar Lewis and little daughter will leave Friday for their home in Wilmington. Mrs. O. L. Erwin will accompany them to Wilmington and remain for a short visit.

Mrs. C. F. Misenheimer and baby, who have been quite ill with the flu, are both improving.

Mrs. Leonard Simpson, who has been in Stokes hospital, was able to return to her home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gash moved last week to their country home at Davidson River.

Rev. Albert Thompson, rector of St. Michael's church, Charleston, is spending a few days at his summer home here in West Brevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Dabbs and children, of Florence, S. C. are guests of Mrs. Dabbs' brother, Mr. W. H. Duckworth. Mrs. Dabbs will be remembered by many before her marriage as Miss Mollie Duckworth.

Mrs. Nita Norton, matron at Winthrop College, has returned to resume her duties after undergoing an operation at Brevard hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Kilpatrick are moving this week into the Johnson home on Jordan street.

Joe Clayton and his room mate, Fred Emerson, students at Wake Forest College, will spend the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clayton.

Mrs. J. M. Thrash, of Davidson River, was in Brevard Thursday.

Mrs. Clarence Poole and Mrs. Guthrie Kilpatrick were shopping in Hendersonville Friday.

Miss Smith, of Ruby, S. C., a graduate nurse, is now in charge of the operating room at Transylvania hospital.

Mr. Rush Whitmire, who has been quite ill in Brevard hospital the past week, is reported as improving.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Starrette and little daughter, Betty Jean, Mrs. Kate Starrette and Mrs. D. F. Moore motored to Statesville, Charlotte, Moresville, and other points for a week-end visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Galloway and two children spent the week-end in Asheville.

Mrs. Mamie Verdery and daughter, Marv, were week-end guests in Cherryfield.

Mrs. J. M. Tatum and Miss Swannee Hedrick spent the week-end in Charleston, S. C., and visited the famous Magnolia gardens there.

Mr. T. H. Shipman has been confined to his home the past week on account of illness.

L. H. Bosse, of Spartanburg, spent the week-end here with his family.

Miss Pauline Sitton, of Mars Hill College, spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Sitton.

Mrs. T. H. Galloway visited her daughter, Mrs. Greenwood, at Mills River the past week.

Mrs. Garland Merrell, who has been in Transylvania hospital for the past several weeks, returned Saturday to her home in Cedar Mountain.

Miss King returned last week from Weaver College and will remain at home for the remainder of the school year.

Mrs. J. S. Silversteen and daughter, Miss Dorothy, returned Saturday from Wilmington, where they attended the meetings of the state D. A. R. convention last week.

Mr. James F. Barrett and Mr. J. O. Barrett were in Charlotte the past week-end.

Mrs. Russell Young and little son of Weaverville, are spending several days this week with Mrs. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Snelson.

Mrs. B. J. Sitton, who has been quite ill, is improving.

Of the ten Brevard girls who are attending N. C. C. W. at Greensboro this year, eight of them are at home this week for their spring vacation, including, Edna King, Ruby Hamilton, Mildred Trantham, Eliza Henry, Annie Sitton, Christine Snelson, Marv Johnson, Catherine Osborne. The other two, Geneva Neill and Annie Yongue, are spending the vacation elsewhere.

Miss Burleson, of Albermarle, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Nicholson.

Miss Grace Piercy has been ill with the flu the past week, but is able to be up now.

J. W. Cobble was called to Knoxville Saturday on account of the death of his brother's wife.

Friends of Mrs. E. S. English will be glad to know that she is improving nicely after her serious illness of the past few weeks.

Mrs. Armfield, of Spartanburg, is visiting Mrs. L. H. Bosse.

Miss Iva Sanders, a student at Brevard Institute, was called to her home at Lake Toxaway last week on account of the death of her great grandmother, Mrs. Naomi Lowe, who was in her 97th year.

Miss Alma Trowbridge spent Saturday in Weaverville and Asheville with relatives and friends.

Mr. J. S. Silversteen left Tuesday for New York.

Mrs. Tom English and daughter and son Ellen and Dan, and Miss Jackie Clayton, were Greenville visitors Saturday.

Little Bobby Simpson, the third son of Rev. and Mrs. O. L. Simpson, had his tonsils removed at Transylvania hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. Paul Smathers, Mrs. Rush Whitmire and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Whitmire motored to Asheville Friday for the day.

Mrs. Cordia King had her tonsils removed at Brevard hospital last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Allison and children visited Magnolia gardens at Charleston, S. C., the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Spurge Hamlin and children of Asheville, visited friends here Sunday.

Homer Orr, of Little River, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at Transylvania hospital, is improving.

Miss Althea Crawford, of Candler, who was bitten by a snake Friday while on Mt. Pisgah, was brought to Brevard where she was given treatment at Transylvania hospital. Her condition was not regarded as serious, as she was able to return to her home the same day.

Mrs. W. T. Head, of Greenville, underwent an operation at Brevard hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. R. Y. Neel substituted for Miss Swannee Hedrick at the elementary school during the latter's absence several days the past week.

Capt. T. T. Patton, who underwent an operation at Transylvania hospital several weeks ago, was able to return Monday to his home at Pisgah Forest.

J. H. Tinsley has been on the sick list this week.

Cleon Williams, who spent the winter in Florida, has returned to his home at Lake Toxaway.

Mrs. Hinton McLeod taught Mrs. J. M. Tatum's grade during the latter's absence the past week.

Dr. Roy Long has been confined to his home the past week on account of quite serious illness with the flu.

Mrs. Nathan Morris and Mrs. M. D. Foxman were Hendersonville visitors Tuesday.

Friends have received word from Mrs. G. E. Lathrop in New Orleans, where she has spent the winter, that she is gaining rapidly from a continued illness, and expects to return to her home here the last of the month.

Joseph Patterson of Hendersonville, spent Monday with his aunts, Mrs. N. Morris and Mrs. Luther Pughell.

P. B. Downing of Cardiff was left $500,000 by his grandfather, but with the provision that he would forfeit it if he changed his religion.

Mrs. Harriet Thayer of London, spent $2,500 for a radiophone conversation with her son in New York.

Court Week Next Week!

We want you to make our store your headquarters while you are in Brevard. There are plenty of comfortable seats, and most of the time there will be music on the famous Orthophonic Victrola. You'll be so welcome, and we'll appreciate your coming.

Another car load of Kitchen Cabinets and Roman Ranges just in.

We want you to see these matchless home necessities, anyway.

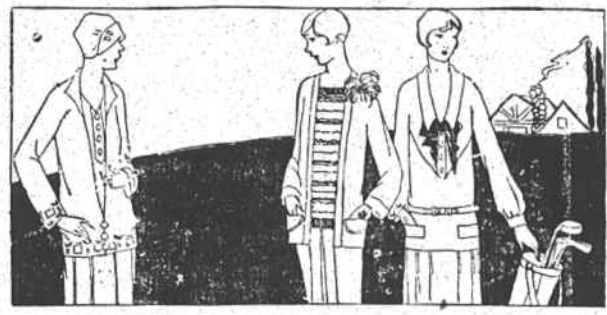

Medford Furniture Company

CORDELL RUSSELL, Manager

KODAK SAFETY FILMS
 Kodak Safing
FOXMAN JEWELRY CO.
 THE DEPENDABLE STORE

PATTERSON'S SPRING OPENING

Charming Dresses

Smartly modeled Dresses and Coats in beautiful colors. Moderately priced. May we show them to you?

Dresses: $9.95 to $32.50

Coats: $14.95 to $42.50

New Easter Bonnets

A display of desirable creations in colors that blend in harmony with Spring.

$2.95 to $9.95

A Wonderful array of Ladies Ready To Wear, tailored clothes for men, shoes and slippers await you here.

The values offered maintain our reputation of excellent quality at a reasonable price.

We invite you to inspect our display.

FASHIONABLE FOOTWEAR

See our display for Fashions Favored Footwear.

"For the man Who Cares"

New Spring Buster Brown Styles for Boys and Girls.

CLOTHCRAFT Tailored Clothes

Style is the Keynote in our Clothcraft Tailored Clothes — all the Season's distinctive touches add to the smartness of these models. When you see them you'll find just the suit you've been looking for at the price you've planned to pay.

$25.00 TO $35.00
 Other makes $14.50 Up

HOLEPROOF HOSIERY FOR MEN

A fine selection of Men's Hose in plain and fancy colors. 35c to $1.00

Holeproof Hosiery