Criminal Docket Being Cleared-Drunk Cases Remanded to Magistrate's Court

SHUFORD IS CHOSEN HEAD GRAND JURY

o Important Criminal Cases-Judge's Charge Scored Reckless Driver— Safeguard Travel

Superior court convened Monday morning at ten o'clock, with Hon. Raymond G. Parker presiding judge, and Hon. J. Will Pless, Jr., prosecuting attorney for the State, Trial of the criminal cases was taken up first, and as soon as the docket is cleared the civil calendar will claim the attention of the court. There are no important cases on the criminal docket, and all public drunkenness cases awaiting trial were remanded to the magistrate's court in conformity with the legislative enactment at the last general assembly. Grand jury chosen was headed by C. B. Shuford as foreman, H. Garren, C. K. Osborne, Oat Bryson, J. A. Brown, W. M. Ball, Perry Galloway, M. G. Duncan, A. C. Lyday, Dave Holiday, J. C. Orr, V. C. Judge Parker's charge to the grand jury was most impressive, not only upon that body, but upon all the spectators and lawyers in the court room. The jurist declared that the highways of the state must be made, safe for the traveling public. Drunken drivers, reckless drivers, and young boys and girls who, while driving for fun, manipulate their cars in such manner as to menace other people, must be hailed into court and given purnishment, and if proven guilty of violations of the traffic laws must be griven punishment that will stop such practice.

Judge Parker asserted that the dangers of travel on our highways is equal to, if not greater, than the dangers presented in the European war, and called upon the grand jury to investigate cases of reckless driving or driving under the influence of whiskey and to return true bills against them:

The embezzler was given a scorching by Judge Parker. The man who acts as agent for another and embezzles the principals and the things belonging to him is more than a thief, because he is not only taking money but he is proving false to those who had given him his confidence. The destruction of property, the Judge Parker impressed upon the grand jury that it matters not whether homes in peace, safety and security.

Referring to the liquor laws, Judge Parker impressed upon the grand jury that it matters not whether homes in peace, safety and security.

Referring to the liquor laws, Judge Parker impressed upon the grand jury that it matters not whether helm wo not, so long as it is a law people must be prosecuted who violate it, and that every criminal law should be enforced that good government may survive.

He instructed the grand jury to see to it that the county institutions, the form of the cloud it that the county institutions, the county institutio

DR. ANDREWS PAYS

Brevard entertained a distinguishod visitor Monday when Rev. Dr. George Reid Andrews, of New York C ty, visited his sister, Mrs. R. E.

Lawrence.

Dr. Andrews is one of the outstanding figures in the activities of the Federal Council of the Churches in America. He is vice president and general manager of the Religious Motion Picture Foundation, an organization whose purpose is to purify the world drama.

For several years Dr. Andrews was pastor of St. Paul's Congregational church in Brooklyn, later being named as general secretary of the Congregational Educational society, and had charge of the educational work for the church in eleven different states. It was from this position that he was called to take an active part in the Federal Council of Churches.
