SOCIETY

MRS. ROY LONG HONORS HOUSE GUEST

Mrs. Roy Long was hostess at an informal tea Saturday afternoon at her home on Broad street, entertaining in honor of her sister, Mrs. W. D. Reaves, of Greenville, who was her guest the past week.

Receiving at the door were Mrs. Walter Duckworth and Mrs. T. H. Shipman. Mrs. Long was assisted in receiving the guests by her sister, Mrs. H. L. Wilson invited the guests into the dining room, where the block cream, cake and mints were served by Miss Nancy Macfie and Miss Elizabeth Shipman. The cream was cut at the dining table by Mrs. Hume Harris and Mrs. Harold Norwood.

An attractive color scheme in yellow and white was carried out in the dining room, the table being prettily decorated in sweet peas and candles. The rooms were very effective in their decoration of a profusion of cut flowers and mountain laurel.

Adding to the pleasure of the occasion were the piano selections rendered by Miss Marguerite Robertson during the reception hours. Forty guests were present.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS HOLDS PARTY

Little girls of the Sunday School class of Miss Odell Nicholson of the Baptist church, enjoyed a party at the home of their teacher on Caldwell street Friday night. Games and other forms of recreation were enjoyed during the evening, after which refreshments were served.

CAIRNES-CODY

Miss Mattie Cody, of Pisgah Forest, and Mr. Otho Cairnes, of Inman, S. C., were united in marriage Monday at noon, the ceremony being performed at the home of Mrs. Hazel Murray, on Whitmire street, by Justice of the Peace, F. D. Shuford.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cody, of Pisgah Forest, and the groom is well known here, having been connected with Simpson Barber shop for the past several years.

MISS HELEN DUCKWORTH WEDS MR. CORDELL RUSSELL

Coming as a surprise to their many friends was the marriage of Miss Helen Duckworth and Mr. Cordell Russell, the ceremony being performed Friday afternoon at five-thirty o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Duckworth. In the absence from town of the bride's pastor, Rev. W. H. Hartsell, pastor of the Brevard Baptist church, the ceremony was performed by Rev. O. L. Simpson, pastor of the Methodist church.

The house was prettily decorated in mountain laurel, ferns and daisies. The bride and groom entered unattended to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, played by Miss Rowena Orr. During the ceremony, Miss Orr played softly, "To a Wild Rose." Witnessing the ceremony were members of the immediate family and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell left immediately for a short wedding trip to Greenville, Atlanta and other points, after which they will return to Brevard where they will make their home, having leased a cottage in West Brevard.

MATHATASIANS HOLD FINAL MEETING OF CLUB YEAR

Members of the Mathatasian club met Thursday afternoon at the home of the President, Mrs. H. L. Wilson, to transact the necessary business relative to completing the work of the club year.

The club decided to study the subject of "Homemakers" as their study topic for next year. The club refused to take action on Mrs. Paul C. Benedict's resignation, on account of her expected absence from Brevard during the greater part of next year, requesting that her name be kept on the roll as one of the charter members, and that a substitute be appointed in her place. It was agreed to send a basket of fruit to Mrs. Julia Trowbridge, who is one of the charter members of the club and now on the honorary list, in view of the fact that she is confined to her home on account of her recent accident. A program committee was appointed as follows: Mrs. Ernest H. Norwood, Mrs. Roy Long, Mrs. Oliver Orr.

Concluding the business session was the annual election of officers for the ensuing year, the entire official staff being re-elected as follows: President, Mrs. H. L. Wilson; vice president, Mrs. Oliver Orr; recording secretary, Mrs. Roy Long; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Paul C. Benedict; treasurer, Mrs. H. C. Ranson.

MRS. SMATHERS ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

One of the delightful social affairs of the week was the bridge party given by Mrs. Paul Smathers at her home on Franklin street Friday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Paul C. Benedict, who will leave shortly for Washington, D. C.

Six tables were arranged for play, at the conclusion of which thirty refreshments were served. High score was made by Mrs. B. T. Payne of Rockingham, and low score by Mrs. G. F. Smathers, of Asheville. Mrs. Benedict was presented an attractive guest prize.

The rooms were attractively arranged, using a color scheme in pink and white, the little pink Dorothy Perkins roses adding to the effectiveness of the occasion. Sweet pastries were used as favors.

Guests present included: Mrs. Paul C. Benedict, Mrs. W. E. Brown, Mrs. Martin Brown, Mrs. R. B. Lyon, Mrs. W. W. Croucher, Mrs. Hugh Walker, Mrs. T. H. Shipman, Mrs. Walter Duckworth, Mrs. S. M. Macfie, Mrs. Frank Carr, Mrs. Harry Loftis, Mrs. Lloyd Thompson, Mrs. Ray Coble, Miss Marian Youngue, Miss Nina Kate Clayton, Mrs. Roland Whitmire, Mrs. Rush Whitmire, Mrs. Lawrence Holt, Mrs. C. Ashe and Mrs. B. T. Payne, of Rockingham, Mrs. Jiles Curry, Mrs. C. B. Rhinehardt, Mrs. G. F. Smathers, Mrs. John Bunn, all of Asheville.

THE MISSES PEARCE HONOR COUSIN

One of the most enjoyable and largest attended social affairs occurring recently among the younger set was the dancing party Thursday evening given by Misses Margaret and Martina Pearce at their attractive summer home, entertaining in honor of their cousin, Miss O'Brien, of St. Petersburg, Fla.

An old-fashioned square dance featured the occasion, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the seventy-five or more young people present. Punch, cake, sandwiches and nuts were served during the evening.

JOINT HOSTESSES ENTERTAIN INSTITUTE LADIES

Lady members of the Brevard Institute faculty were entertained at an informal reception Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Loftis, who was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Z. W. Nierns, Mrs. W. H. Underwood, Mrs. E. M. Parsler and Mrs. J. B. Pickelsimer. An enjoyable concert was engaged in, after which musical selections were rendered by Miss Lewis and Miss Koth, of the Institute music department, and Mrs. B. E. Nicholson. Refreshments were served by the joint hostesses during the afternoon.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS ENJOY PICNIC

Pronounced by many to be one of the most enjoyable social affairs ever held by the Epworth League was the picnic given by that organization Thursday evening at Maiden Hair Falls. After a delightful climb around the mountains surrounding the falls and other forms of enjoyable recreation, the fifty or more Leaguers in attendance partook of a beautiful picnic supper around the campfire. Weiners and marshmallows were toasted over the fire, stories told and songs sung. Miss Bill Aiken had charge of the entertainment program, assisted by several other members.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES ENJOY SOCIAL

Young lady members of the Sunday School class of Mrs. D. P. Kilpatrick and the young men of Mr. C. M. Douglas' class enjoyed a social gathering in the recreation rooms of the church Monday night. Various games were played and a general good time enjoyed by all present, including the two teachers. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served during the evening.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. York announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jean Crouch, to Mr. Dan Coleman, of Chappell, S. C., the wedding to be an event of the early fall.

Miss Crouch is a popular and charming member of Brevard's younger set, and was a member of the 1927 graduating class of the Brevard high school.

Mr. Coleman is well known in Brevard, having served in the capacity of athletic instructor at the Brevard high school the past year, and has made many friends during his short stay in the community.

FISHER-COWAN

Friends throughout the county were surprised on learning of the marriage of Mr. Jack Fisher, of Rosman, to Miss Elsie Cowan, of Webster, the ceremony being performed in Sylva Saturday, May 28. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cowan, of Webster, and is an attractive and popular young lady of the Sylva section. The groom is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee R. Fisher, of Rosman, and has many friends throughout the county. He is connected with Smith's Barber shop in Brevard.

From Seven a. m. to Eleven p. m.

In order to better serve the citizens and visitors, we have made arrangements to keep our shop open until 11 o'clock at night. These hours will be observed during the month of June. From seven a. m. to eleven p. m. we will have full 24-hour service—day and night.

TAKING A RIDE

Is now one of the most general forms of recreation. We know how unpleasant it is to have your car not start, or that some tires.
