STOCKHOLDERS IN PRODUCE MARKET TO MEET SATURDAY

All Those Who Purchased Stock in Y. & B. Corporation Urged To Attend

PURPOSE TO PROTECT INTERESTS OF PURCHASERS

To Send Representation To Charlotte — Yarbrough Being Opposed as Receiver

Citizens of Transylvania county who have purchased stock in the Brevard Produce and Creamery company, which is a branch of the Y and B. Corporation, have been called to meet in the Chamber of Commerce rooms in Brevard next Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The Y and B Corporation, headquarters of which is in Charlotte, was placed in the hands of a receiver last week, and J. A. Yarbrough, president of the corporation, was named temporary receiver. Hearing has been set for November 16 for the purpose of determining whether the receivership should be made permanent, and if so, the name of a permanent receiver will be acted upon.

The meeting of local citizens next Saturday morning is for the purpose of taking concerted action on the part of the stockholders in this county in the protection of local citizens, and in the furtherance of the plans of keeping the local cash market open according to the understanding and agreement existing when the stock was bought by local citizens.

It is expected that everyone in the county who bought stock in the concern will be present at the meeting Saturday morning.

The meeting has been called by L. A. Ammon, farm agent, in authority of several stockholders in the concern. The call signed by Mr. Ammon follows:

Since I was active in establishing the Brevard Creamery and Produce company, several have asked me to call a meeting of all those who subscribed to stock in the Y and B Corporation of Charlotte, to meet at the Chamber of Commerce on Saturday at 10:30. The object of determining if the holders wish to send an officiating representative to the meeting in Charlotte on the 16th.

So far as I have heard all is going well, and holders are safe, yet it does not hurt to have someone on the grounds to speak if occasion arises.

The question to come up at Charlotte is whether the receivership shall be temporary or permanent, and whether Mr. Yarbrough shall continue to be "receiver."

Requests to be coming from C. C. Yongue, H. A. Plummer, B. W. Trantham, J. L. Whitmire, Sheriff Sitton, O. H. Orr, and others.

Signed,
L. A. AMMON.

CHARLOTTE CREDITORS OPPOSE MR. YARBROUGH

Following is clipping from Charlotte Observer, showing what is being done in that city about the affairs of the Y. and B. Corporation:

More than 100 farmers and jobbers holding approximately $100,000 worth of stock in Y. & B. Corporation met yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium and signed a petition opposing J. A. Yarbrough, president of the corporation, as its permanent receiver.

The stockholders voted to support Ralph Miller, Charlotte business man, described as a "disinterested party," for the receivership. The hearing will be held in Mecklenburg superior court November 16.

Mr. Yarbrough was appointed temporary receiver in a recent hearing held after stockholders had filed a petition and the Y. & B., in answer, had admitted that it had not funds with which to meet outstanding obligations.

To Represent Creditors

The stockholders voted to retain John M. Robinson, Charlotte attorney, to represent them at the hearing and elected two members of a committee of three which will represent the three groups of creditors who will oppose Yarbrough.

They are G. D. Moody, representing the jobbers, and F. A. Cochrane, representing the farmers. The third member will be elected to represent bankers who are creditors of the corporation.

BIG TURNIPS GROWN BY FARMER BISHOP

Mr. John Bishop again demonstrated his ability as a farmer when he brought to The Brevard News office this week a bunch of fine turnips which he produced on the Institute farm. The largest of the turnips weighed three and one-half pounds, the others in the lot being almost as large.

PATRIOTIC PROGRAM FOR KIWANIS NIGHT

J. M. Glazner will have charge of the program of the Kiwanis club at the meeting Thursday evening, which will be a patriotic meeting in celebration of Armistice Day. It is expected that several members of the club will invite ex-soldiers as their guests at the meeting, which will be held at Mrs. McMinn's at 7 o'clock Thursday evening.

ARMISTICE DAY

I heard a cry in the night from a far-flung host,
From a host that sleeps through the years the last long sleep.
By the Meuse, by the Marne, in the Argonne's shattered wood,
In a thousand rose-thranged churchyards through our land.
Sleep! Do they sleep! I know I heard their cry.
Shrilling along the night like a trumpet blast:
"We died," they cried, "for a dream. Have ye forgot?
We dreamed of a world reborn whence wars had fled,
Where swords were broken in pieces and guns were rust,
Where the poor dwelt in quiet, the rich in peace,
And children played in the streets, joyous and free.
We thought we could sleep content in a task well done;
But the rumble of guns rolls over us, iron upon iron
Sounds from the forge where are fashioned guns anew;
New fleets spring up in new seas, and under the wave
Stealthy new terrors swarm, with emboweled death."

Fresh cries of hate ring out loud from a demagogue's throat,
While greed reaches out afresh to grasp new lands.

Have we died in vain, in vain? Is our dream denied?
You men who live on the earth we bought with our lives,
Will ye stand idly by while they shape new wars,
Or will ye rise, who are strong, to fulfill our dream,
To silence the demagogue's voice, to crush the fools
Who play with blood-stained toys that crowd new graves?
We call we call on the night, will ye hear and heed?"

In the name of our dead will we hear? Will we grant them sleep?

The poem is by William E. Brooks, and can be found in an anthology, "The New Patriotism," edited by Thomas Curtis Clark and Esther A. Gillespie. It is a fitting message for the season of loving and admiring recollection which finds its culminating observance on Armistice day.

FINE PROGRAM AT THE M. E. CHURCH

Services at the Methodist church Sunday night were of an unusually interesting nature, being conducted by members of the senior and intermediate Epworth Leagues, by the Institute League and by the Junior Missionary society, the program presided over by Mrs. R. P. Holliman.

The program was in the nature of a missionary service, the young people participating in incidents relating to the foreign home mission schools supported by the Methodist mission board.

Special mention in the program was the Bible story of Noah as told by little Billie Nicholson, who sang in his own words in an interesting manner.

The audience were heard in opinion that little Billie's making of a great deal of noise in the program was continued in the program so early in life.

The talks, musical selections, and national singing added to the interest and profit of the program.

The law also requires the commissioners to keep the money in this sinking fund invested in safe places on interest.

POSTPONE ACTION ON AGENT'S OFFICE TO DECEMBER MEET

Large Number of Petitions and Many Farmers Urge That Work Be Continued

WHITMIRE UNABLE TO ATTEND THE SESSIONS

County To Loan Baptist Church $7000 From Sinking Fund—Other Matters

Quite a large delegation of farmers, officials and representatives of the Chamber of Commerce met with the county commissioners Monday to urge that body to maintain the office of county farm agent in the future. Several months ago the commissioners abolished this office to become effective December 1. Petitions have been circulated freely over the county, urging the commissioners to rescind that order and keep the office functioning.

On account of the serious illness of Mr. Jordan Whitmire, who could not attend the meeting on Monday, and the other four members of the board seemed to be equally divided on the question of the farm agent, so final action was postponed until the first Monday in December, when it is hoped the full board will be present.

It was pointed out by advocates of the farm agent's work that it is an essential factor to the successful operation of the farms of the county. Agriculture is the county's chief asset, and speakers impressed upon the board of county commissioners the great importance of the county farm agent to the county's chief source of revenue, that is farming.

The commissioners accepted the new bond of W. B. Henderson, county tax collector, for the ensuing year.

Several checks sent to the tax collector in payment of the 1926 taxes have been returned to the collector's office, marked insufficient funds. The commissioners ordered that the tax collector notify all such givers of these checks that they have until the fifteenth of the month in which to make them good, and failing to do so, the attorney will proceed to institute action against them.

The board completed plans to lend the sum of $7000 to the Baptist church to be used in its new building. This sum comes from the county sinking fund. The new county government law requires the board of commissioners to keep a sinking fund on hand with which to meet interest of bonds at maturity.

TOWN MAY ACQUIRE GOLF COURSE AS A MUNICIPAL ASSET

Movement Launched at Meeting of Board of Aldermen Monday Evening — Favorable Comment

WOULD BE REVENUE PRODUCING FROM START

And Is Considered Great Advertisement for Inducement of Tourists Coming to the County

Brevard may have its own municipal golf course at an early date.

This matter was discussed at length in the meeting of the board of aldermen Monday night, offers having been made, it is said, by stockholders in the Brevard Country Club, which will enable the community to acquire the golf course and operate it as a municipal course. Many leading citizens who have been approached on the subject are emphatic in their assertions that it would be one of the wisest, most progressive, and at the same time, one of the best paying things that the town could do. The plan offers, it is pointed out, a two-fold benefit to Brevard—first, its great advertising feature to send out to prospective tourists that Brevard has a municipal golf course, which would bring more people to this community than any other one inducement that could be held out to them; second, that it would immediately be a revenue producing asset for the city.

It is expected that several conferences will be held within the next few weeks, and the matter thoroughly discussed and the public made fully aware of all the details in the proposed progressive step.

Many other matters of importance to the town were acted upon, including action looking to the marking of the streets of Brevard, preliminary to free delivery of mail, which will soon become effective here.

STATE 'WAY DOWN IN LIBRARY STANDING

North Carolina Is 47th In This Work — U. D. C. To Work In Raising Standard

An interesting meeting of the U. D. C. was held Saturday afternoon at the library, with Mrs. Beulah Zachary, the president, in the chair. Mrs. Laura Miller, chaplain, conducted the devotionals.

The question of heating the library building was discussed, and Mrs. C. C. Yongue was appointed a committee of one to see the commissioners about getting heat for the building this winter.

It was pointed out that North Carolina is 47th state in the union in the matter of libraries, and members present at this meeting expressed the opinion that the local chapter would do everything possible in helping to raise the state record and would keep the Brevard library open throughout the year, if possible.

The librarian, Miss Edith Hunt, submitted the following report for October: Adult attendance, 182; adult books in circulation, 301; junior attendance, 12; junior books in circulation, 314; new members, 8; new books, 3.

The recently elected U. D. C. officers are as follows: President, Mrs. Beulah Zachary; first vice president, Mrs. David Ward; second vice president, Miss Julia Deaver; secretary, Miss Florence Kern; treasurer, Mrs. R. H. Zachary; chaplain, Mrs. Laura Miller; librarian, Miss Edith Hunt; leader children's chapter, Mrs. H. A. Plummer; assistant leader, Mrs. J. M. Allison.

KITCHEN CABINET SALE ANNOUNCED

"Give a woman a kind husband, a good range and an up-to-date kitchen cabinet, and that woman is made extremely happy." is the way one of the sages of recent ages wrote about the desires of womanhood.

The Houston Furniture company, of Brevard, will begin next Saturday distributing one of these three things that make housewives so happy—the Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet. A page advertisement in last week's News and another in today's paper, tell of the plan of selling kitchen cabinets for only one dollar down.

A few weeks ago the Houston Furniture company conducted this kind of campaign and sold numerous cabinets. It is expected that even more people will buy during this sale than in the last one, although the last sale broke all records of the company up to that time.
