

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ELECTION FOR YEAR IS CREATING INTEREST

Under the new plan of electing directors for the Chamber of Commerce, ballots are being prepared and will be mailed to the full membership for its consideration at once. This plan calls for election of seventeen members by a committee appointed by the president, and the election of eight members by the membership as a whole. Ballots being mailed to the membership will call for a choice of eight members from the whole list of members, with the exception of the seventeen nominated by the commerce committee.

Following are the names of those elected by the nominating committee:

J. M. Allison, James F. Barrett, James S. Bromfield, Frank D. Clement, Henry E. Erwin, O. L. Erwin, Randall W. Everett, Jerry Jerome, Alex Kizer, Robert E. Lawrence, E. P. McCoy, S. M. Macfie, H. A. Plummer, Thos. H. Shipman, Jos. S. Silverstein, Thos. J. Summey, J. H. Tinsley.

Citizens of the town and county are urged to give full consideration to the importance of this election, because of its tremendous bearing upon the future prosperity and progress of the community. It has been pointed out again and again, and proven times innumerable, that all the progress this community can possibly make is through the combined efforts of its citizens, and the Chamber of Commerce offers the only means through which a concerted effort by the community, for the community, can be made. Hence the importance of giving due consideration to the election of the directors who will do most of the work in bringing people and their money to this community.

Members are urged to vote for their choice for eight directors from the list of names received on the ballot. Delay is dangerous, because the ballots will be tabulated in time for announcement on December 28.

MOODY INSTITUTE HAS GOOD YEAR

With a total attendance of nearly one hundred thousand people, the annual series of Bible conferences conducted by the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, during the summer months in various sections of the United States ranks as the most successful in the Institute's history. From the angles of total attendance and calibre of speakers and leaders functioning at the meetings, the conferences held last summer far eclipsed those of other years.

Some of the most prominent evangelists, clergymen and laymen of the nation occupied important positions in the 12 large conferences held at Lake Geneva, Wis.; Montrose, Penn.; Ocean City, N. J.; Brevard, N. C.; Hendersonville, N. C.; Lake Orion, Mich.; Denver, Colo.; Colorado Springs, Colo.; Manitou, Colo., and Eagles Mere, Penn., and two other locations. The total attendance as revealed by a recent checking of the figures was 93,089 at these gatherings, and the 100,000 mark is thought to have been reached through the attendance at several smaller conferences and evangelistic campaigns conducted by the Moody Institute extension department. Seventy-five leaders and speakers addressed the aforementioned meetings, exclusive of local enthusiasts who aided the Moody representatives.

Officials of the Institute already are laying preliminary plans for next year's conferences, and expect even greater results than those accomplished during the past summer. Various additions to the speakers and leaders corps will include nationally famed theologians and lay-

U. D. C. BODY WANTS HEAT FROM COUNTY

Regular meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was held at the Library Saturday, Dec. 3. A letter from the state president was read asking for contributions for the Soldiers Home and the Confederate Woman's Home. It was decided to send Christmas greetings to the Veterans and widows of veterans of Transylvania county. The number of these is rapidly growing less, but there are now 18 old soldiers and 19 widows of soldiers in the county.

The question of heat for the library was warmly discussed. Since 1920 until sometime last winter, the building has been warmed by the surplus heat from the county buildings, it was pointed out. The U. D. C. feels it is not asking too much in requesting a continuance of this surplus heat, as the library is run for the benefit of the community.

Ten new books are to be bought at once for the library and one each month thereafter.

The librarian reported for November the following:

Total circulation	266
Attendance	174
New members	3
Books added	1
Receipts	$ 4.38
Disbursements	24.20

At the conclusion of the business session refreshments were served by Mrs. J. W. Smith and Mrs. Beulah Zachary. At the January meeting Mrs. O. L. Erwin will have charge of a Lee-Jackson program. Mrs. J. M. Allison and Mrs. J. P. Deaver will be hostesses.

SUMMEY HEARING SET FOR THURSDAY

Much interest is being taken in the habeas corpus hearing, set for 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, when custody of the 14-year-old daughter of Mr. Ott Summey and the former Mrs. Summey will be the issue. The couple have been separated for some time, and the former Mrs. Summey is now Mrs. J. N. Tate of Waynesville. She is suing for the custody of her daughter. Because of the prominence of the family, the case has assumed unusual proportions here.

G. A. Ward, Waynesville lawyer, and Ralph R. Fisher, of the local bar, are representing Mrs. Tate in her fight for custody of the daughter, while Wm. E. Breese, of Brevard, is representing Mr. Summey in his effort to keep the child with him.

BRYAN MEMORIAL BEING ESTABLISHED

Dayton, Tenn., Dec. 13.—Plans for a statewide campaign in the interest of Bryan Memorial University which is being established at Dayton, are now being worked out by B. Gerard Hartzog at the state headquarters at Greensboro, N. C., according to Malcolm Lockhart, national director of the campaign.

Mr. Hartzog, who is a native of South Carolina, and a graduate of Wofford College, was recently named state director for North Carolina and went to Greensboro from the national headquarters here. Having talked to many leading men in the state, Mr. Hartzog reports that the campaign will have enthusiastic support from Mr. Bryan's many friends in North Carolina, and from many other citizens who admired the Compmener and the principles for which he stood throughout his very active life of service.

Bryan Memorial University is being established on a hill overlooking Dayton, where Mr. Bryan died following his great fight there in the interest of fundamentalism. It is the purpose of the Bryan Memorial University association to raise $5,000,000, half for buildings and half for endowment.

Approximately $700,000 has been subscribed to the fund to date. North Carolina is fifth among the twenty-six states from which contributions have come, $34,658.01 having been subscribed by North Carolinians.

That this memorial university is of national interest is evidenced by the fact that campaigns now under way in New York, Florida, Tennessee and Arkansas are equally successful, and contributions have already been received from twenty-six states, though actual campaigns have been conducted in only five of them.
