A BULLSEYE

We have too many public men whose ambition is more to disturb private business than to develop their own talents in the art of government.

A TRULY AMERICAN PRODUCT

The telephone can be credited with a good deal of the revolutionizing going on in this country today. It has obliterated distance; it has developed neighborliness among farmers, and it has been of inestimable value to the farmer in facilitating his business and saving time.—Waterville, Minn., Advance.

Miss Sallie Lyday entertained a number of her friends with a party Wednesday night. Those present beside the family were: Messrs. Robert Mackey, Joe Mackey of Teckla, Wyoming, McKinley Ross, S. V. Brown, Pickens, Boggs, Raymond Reed, Ralph Holden, Clyde England; Misses Flora Holden, Blanche Brown, Emma Boggs, Mrs. J. R. England, Mrs. Virgil Galloway.

Misses Bell and Sadie Reed of Blantyre, were week-end guests of Misses Carrie and Annie Brown.

Miss Virgil Galloway and children, Howard and Ruby of Gastonia are visiting Mrs. Galloway's mother, Mrs. Lena Newton.

We won't need any more top or our highway during the winter, as there isn't much danger of breaking the speed limit in "17 gear."

A party of young folks of this section visited a pastor, Rev. E. E. Blythe of Blantyre, Friday night.

NOTICE

Under and by virtue of the power of sale, contained in a certain deed of sale, obtained in a certain de a in said from Ida Young to J. E. Today, Chevrolet presents the crowning sixteen years' continuous progress—a great mobile so impressive in appearance, performance, and staunchness that it marks the opening of a new era in luxurious transportation at low cost.

Built on a 107-inch wheelbase—4 inches longer than before—the Bigger and Better Chevrolet is impressively large, low and racy. Its new Fisher Bodies are finished in new Duco colors and offer rich new upholstery and handsome appointments. Its improved valve-in-head engine has numerous impressive features such as alloy "invar strut" pistons, hydro-laminated camshaft gears, mushroom type valve tappets, AC oil filter and AC air cleaner. The chassis also has been redesigned. As a result, the new Chevrolet provides delightful smoothness throughout the entire speed range—a wide margin of power for hills—

Every feature of advanced design demanded in the new automobile is offered in the New Chevrolet! Read this list:
