KIND WORDS WILL CHEER

When you meet with folks who're trying to do

Something worthwhile in the world, do you

Give them a boost with a kind word, or smile?

Do you try to make those folks really feel

That you appreciate their efforts and zeal?

And that you think what they are doing's worthwhile?

When you meet with folks who're doing some work

In an up-to-date way, and refusing to shirk,

The tasks they have been assigned;

Do you ever stop long enough to tell

Those people that you wish them well?

'Twould help them a lot 'mid life's daily grind.

If doesn't take long to speak a kind word,

Yet, no sweeter music on earth has been heard;

For it helps us have courage to resist the wrong.

So, let us all try this in mind to bear,

And remember that folks, are folks, everywhere;

And that kind words will cheer them along.

—Zeb H. Wolfe, "The Plumber-Poet," Easley, S. C.

Tom Tarheel says he never could understand why his neighbor sells all his eggs when a healthy well-fed family is worth more than a few pieces of silver.

The destructive effect of forest fires in the farm woodlot far outweigh any good effects that might be obtained.

IF THE BOSS ASKED YOU

how much you had saved, with the idea of offering you a chance to become part owner in the firm, could you tell him a substantial sum? If you are not in a position to take advantage of such an offer, why not start saving today, and be ready when the opportunity comes.
