... SHOULD HAVE NEW CITY HALL

Our city should have a new city hall, is conceded by our people with conditions here. At that our city is well able to afford such an institution, no one should dare deny.

Young M. Cannon is well and favorably known in Transylvania county, having practiced his profession here for many years, but for the past several years has been located at Pickens, S. C., where he numbers his friends by his acquaintances.

Another thing we sorely need is a water system—one that will not only give us ample water supply, but will furnish ample protection in case of fire.

The making of ghost money, tin-foil shoes to be burned in front of a dead man's shine to provide him with the standard currency of the dead, is an important industry in China.

REV. MR. NICHOLSON GOES TO COLUMBIA

Rev. W. P. Nicholson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who was recently elected a representative from Oconee county to the General Assembly, goes to Columbia to represent his county on January 10th. Many friends here are much elated over his election to the place of responsibility and trust, and confidently expecting the best things of him.

When the wicked rule, the people mourn; when the righteous rule, the people rejoice.

PISGAH FOREST CHURCH

On next Sunday, the pastor of Pisgah Forest Baptist church plans to preach at the morning service on "Some Suggestions for the New Year," and at the evening service on the subject of "Then and Now, and Now and Then."

"DON'T WAKE A SLEEPING DOG"

In conversation with a number of men some days ago, concerning matters of a disagreeable nature, Mayor Mahoney said, "Don't ever wake a fierce sleeping dog, unless you are prepared to handle him." This was an entirely new proverb to us. But the more we think of it, the more we see it to mean— from this saying all of us could take lessons.

When any questionable matter is clearing and quiet, just let it remain so and time, the great AN-AL-ER for all human ailments and disagreements, will heal the matter over, and settle all human differences.

Prof. Showalter publishes that famous song "The Game of Life," some years ago, the first verse is this:

"This life is like a game of cards. With players young and old, Some play for trumps, and some for spades, But many play for gold; It matters not how much each may win, Nor how much each may save, The spade will finish up the game, And dig the players' grave."

GARDEN WITHIN

Our hearts are little gardens Which we must watch, you know. Or else the weeds of unkind deeds And words will start to grow.

She says that seeds of envy And carelessness and greed Should never touch the hearth or such Bad seeds grow fast indeed; And that I'm not too young to start To watch the garden of my heart.

And so I watch my garden From morning until night, Because I mean to keep it clear, An beautiful and bright, An—having mama helping, too— It isn't one bit hard to do.

The above poem contains a real lesson that each one of us should know. We must be very careful not to allow any evil words or thoughts to germinate about our hearts, by saying we are apt to let them develop into large evils.

The poem was written by one of the world's greatest poets, Mr. James Rowland, who once was a miner-boy. He worked in the mines to provide means to secure his education.

Being gifted in poetic thought, he read the endless fields of poetic life into this great cause, his bringing to multiplied thousands the sweet story of Jesus who came down from above to rescue fallen men, and for years he has kept rolling on, day by day. That he might gladden the hearts of the sad and lonely and lay up for himself rich treasures in that heavenly kingdom.

IF EVERYBODY WILL HELP

When we began the Rosman Section in The Brevard News, Mr. Barwick asked us to use a whole page. We could find good live reading material enough. This we have been able to do yet. We are unable to make the section one of possible, pages of T. We were our hope then, and we are our endeavor, to bring our readers with good sayings, articles, and to expect the people and their interests of the proud little city of Rosman.

When we began in all articles and left the matter of news to the editor himself. We are here say—that Mr. James, one of the kindest and most helpful men we happen to know, has been our staff of any paper anywhere. He is interested in the better things, that of Transylvania are. He stands squarely in the onward going of every enterprise of all.
