

T. C. HENDERSON, JULIAN GLAZENER AND DONALD LEE MOORE INJURED IN ACCIDENT

BEING TREATED IN SANFORD HOSPITAL

Party on Way To Raleigh To Attend Annual Convention In the Capitol City

YOUNG MOORE TO PLAY ALL-STATE ORCHESTRA

Serious Injuries Received By All Members of Party—Relatives Gone to Sanford

Superintendent T. C. Henderson, Prof. Julian Glazener and Donald Lee Moore are in the Sanford Hospital at Sanford, suffering from injuries received in an automobile wreck Wednesday afternoon. The three Brevard men left Wednesday for Raleigh, where Messrs. Glazener and Henderson were to attend the sessions of the Teachers and Superintendents convention, and Mr. Moore was to take part in the All-State Orchestra, a place the young man had won through his diligent study of music in Brevard.

Superintendent Henderson is suffering dislocation of the left shoulder, fracture of the bones in the shoulder and cuts about the hands.

Mr. Glazener suffered a fractured knee cap on the right leg, fractured hip and several cuts about the head.

Young Mr. Moore is injured about the knees, both knee caps having been fractured in the smash-up. Details of just how the accident occurred could not be learned before The News went to press late Wednesday evening.

When news of the accident was received it caused much concern, especially among the school children who are fond of both the superintendent and of Mr. Glazener, and especially proud of young Mr. Moore, their fellow-student who had won his right to play in the All-State Orchestra, bringing honor to his school here.

Charles Moore, a brother of Donald Lee, William Glazener of Rosman, a brother of Julian Glazener, and a Mr. Hogsdad left Brevard Wednesday night for Sanford, to be the injured trio.

Later reports coming to Sheriff B. J. Sittion went to the effect that Prof. Henderson's car ran into a bus, completely demolishing the car and causing the injuries to the three men.

CONYERS TO SPEAK AT KIWANIS CLUB

Hon. W. P. Conyers, of Greenville, will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the Kiwanis club this Thursday evening. It is said that Mr. Conyers is one of the foremost orators of South Carolina, and Brevard people who have had the good fortune to hear him are authority for the assertion that the Brevard club has a real treat in store for the meeting tonight.

At the meeting last week Judge Cameron F. MacRae made a most interesting talk, after which he captivated the club members with his violin. It was known to Mr. Wm. E. Breese, who is a close personal friend of the judge, that he was a real violinist. Mr. Breese brought the instrument to the meeting, and at the conclusion of the judge's address, requested the jurist to "either play the violin or fiddle," whichever appealed to him most. The judge asserted he preferred to play the "fiddle," and he did—to the delight of the club.

Earl Lowe, formerly of this place but a citizen of Concord, was present. Dr. Edwards, mayor of Kenilworth, was a guest of Mayor T. W. Whitmore at the luncheon.

NOTICE TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

Several days ago we mailed statements to people in Brevard whose subscriptions to this paper are now due. Several subscribers have not as yet sent in their checks, while some have not even replied to the letter. We hope you do not want us to stop sending the paper to you, yet if you ignore our statements there is nothing else for us to believe but that you do not care to take The News.

Those who received statements and find it impossible to pay just now, are asked to tell us so, and the paper will come right on and you can pay when it is convenient for you to do so. But we must know whether or not you want the paper.

All who can pay are urged to do so at once, as we need the money. If your paper fails to come next week it will be for the reason that you failed to pay, or failed to say anything to us about sending the paper on until such time as you can pay.

Please do not force us to stop your paper. We value your subscription, and feel that you should value The Brevard News.

M'CALL WINS BIG VERDICT IN CASE

Jury Awards Plaintiff $9,500 Damages—Whole Week Consumed By the Case

Transylvania county's special term of Superior court for the trial of civil cases ended last Saturday, with most of the cases on the docket continued to a later date, while several cases were settled by litigants without going into trial.

In the case of McCall vs. Gloucester Lumber company, a verdict of $9,500 was rendered for Mr. McCall. This case consumed practically the whole week, and was a hard fought legal battle. The dispute in the case was based upon a charge by McCall that the Gloucester Lumber company had damaged the plaintiff through failure to carry out the provisions of a contract said to have been made between the litigants a year ago. An unusually large volume of evidence was offered by both sides, in which practically the entire week was consumed.

The defense gave notice of appeal to the Supreme court. R. R. Fisher of Brevard, and G. L. Jones and T. B. Galloway of Asheville, represented Mr. McCall, while Wm. E. Breese and Coleman Galloway of Brevard, and J. S. Adams of Asheville were counsel for the lumber company.

REVIVAL SERVICES TO BEGIN SUNDAY

Special series of revival services will begin at the Brevard Methodist church next Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock hour of worship, and will continue for two weeks, concluding with the evening service on Easter Sunday. The preaching will be done by the pastor, Rev. A. L. Aycock. Services will be held each night at the church at 7:30 o'clock.

Preparatory to the series of meetings, cottage prayer meetings are being held in the homes of the members in various sections of the town this week, and for the past several Sundays the pastor has been delivering sermons along evangelistic lines, and otherwise getting in readiness for the revival. The Brevard Institute will attend the meetings a body every other night, and morning services will be conducted at the Institute by the pastor every morning at the regular chapel hour.

ARBOR DAY WAS OBSERVED HERE

Arbor Day was appropriately observed Friday morning at the Brevard Elementary school when the Woman's bureau sponsored a program fitting to the day at the regular chapel exercises, followed by tree planting ceremonies on the school grounds.

An interesting program was rendered as follows: Song, America, by the school; scripture reading by Prof. M. H. Shore; talk by Mrs. Adeline Garrett on "Trees and Birds"; vocal solo "Trees" by Mrs. J. M. Allison; reading on trees by Mrs. V. A. Crawford; presentation of trees to the school by Mrs. David G. Ward. The president of the Woman's Bureau, Mrs. O. L. Erwin, presided over the exercises, and Misses Robertson and Call assisted with the musical numbers.

Mrs. Garrett, in her instructive and authoritative discussion of trees and birds, stressed the importance of preserving the trees, shrubbery and wild flowers, mentioning four main reasons for not destroying these natural attractions, as follows: Because of their usefulness, their beauty, their benefit to mankind, and their protection for birds. The planting of a tree for each child in a family was urged by the speaker, who suggested also that every child, as well as the grown-ups, pledge not to break for mere pleasure any trees for a year.

At the conclusion of the program held in the school auditorium, the Bureau members present and a few of the school officials witnessed the tree planting ceremonies. Two spruces were planted at one end of each of the two school buildings, one of which was presented to the Primary grades and the other to the Grammar grades. The trees were given the names of Gertrude and Adeline, honoring Mrs. O. L. Erwin and Mrs. Adeline Garrett.

The planting of trees and shrubbery on the school grounds will be carried out on a more extensive scale by the Woman's Bureau at the close of the school term, according to present plans.

DR. T. J. SUMMEY TO GO TO NEW JERSEY

County Hospital Association Host to Dr. Summey and Hospital Associates

DR. G. B. LYNCH TO BE HEAD OF INSTITUTION
Dr. Charles L. Newland To Be Added To Hospital Staff—Mrs. Lynch in Charge

At a call meeting of the standing committee of the County Hospital association, which was held at the home of Miss Martha Boswell on Saturday evening, Dr. T. J. Summey announced that he had signed a year's contract with a New Jersey hospital and that he expected to take up his new work about May next. Dr. Summey's friends throughout the county will rejoice to hear that he will not completely sever his connection with Transylvania hospital and will remain part owner of the hospital and will continue to lend active support to the staff.

Dr. Summey expressed his deep appreciation of the support given to hospital work by the County Hospital association and assured the members present that the hospital is now running on a sound business basis, that its equipment, particularly in the operating room, is of the highest quality and that it would be the constant endeavor of the owners and the staff to add to the efficiency, comfort and attractiveness of the plant.

Dr. and Mrs. Lynch will remain in active charge of the hospital and Dr. Charles L. Newland, of Jackson, Ky., will be added to the staff. Dr. Newland is at present on the staff of Stuart Circle hospital at Richmond, Va., and he comes to us with the highest recommendations from the Stuart Circle staff and from Dr. Laughinghouse of the State Board of Health.

Dr. Summey pointed out that the usefulness of any hospital is measured, not by equipment and endowment, but by the strength of its staff and that with all the doctors of the county cooperating on the staff, the future of Transylvania hospital seems secure. Reviewing the history of the hospital, Dr. Summey paid special tribute to the financial support given by Dr. Lyday during the first years of operation and called attention to the fact that every doctor in the county was sending patients to the hospital at the present time.

Rev. Wallace Hartsell expressed the deep regret of the County Hospital association, while congratulating Dr. Summey upon the new responsibilities which have come to him, partly as a result of the fine record he has made in our own hospital. Mr. Hartsell's talk was delightfully informal and it faithfully reflected the congratulations and good wishes of the hospital committee.

J. S. Bromfield spoke of the importance of an adequate charity fund end of close investigation of all charity cases. Encouraging reports were made by the Guild and finance committee and a program for Hospital Day was approved.

After the business meeting, Mrs. D. L. English and Miss Boswell entertained the committee in honor of Dr. Summey and the Transylvania hospital staff.

MASONS READY IN RED LETTER MEET

Everything is in readiness for a great gathering of Masons Friday evening, at which time the "Red Letter Educational Night" will be observed. Many members of the Rock Lodge have signified their intention of attending the meeting while it is known that several visitors will be present.

MR. BARNES FREED IN OWENS MURDER CASE

Claude Barnes, well known here having married a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Galloway, was set free in the court at Morganton on Wednesday, where he had been held in connection with the slaying of Claude Owens last January. The brother, Gordon Barnes, was found guilty of manslaughter and given from five to ten years in the penitentiary.

It will be recalled that the trouble occurred in January at Valdese, near Morganton.

Mr. Galloway and Mr. W. C. McCall, of Brevard, attended the hearings, returned from Morganton Wednesday afternoon. People here were glad to learn that Claude Barnes had been cleared of all connection with the trouble.

URGES REDUCTION OF EXPENSES IN COUNTY

Those Who Are Able Should Pay Taxes At Once—Do Away With Some Offices

(By Wm. E. BREESE)

It is indeed unfortunate that the business question of local taxes has arisen during an election year, as there are some people who are apparently unable to view a public question from any other standpoint than the political one, and if a plan is proposed by a democrat it is charged with being a democrat campaign scheme, and if a plan is proposed by a republican, it is charged with being a republican scheme, and the opponents of the proposition encourage this view and lead the proposition down with politics in order to defeat it.

It is true that I am a democrat, but I am not a candidate for any office and what I say is not said for any political purpose, but only from my understanding of what is best for Transylvania county and its citizens. I believe that there should be two strong political parties evenly matched as to strength, and that each party should take positive and firm stands on every public question, so that the citizens and voters could know what they should expect from the party, if it is placed in power, and each party should declare its principles clearly. If a question is properly placed before the people, they will usually decide it properly, and if the party leaders of both our great parties would spend more time in studying the needs of the people, and state what every party will do if placed in power, then they would not have to spend so much time in getting up campaign funds, for I believe that the majority of the people will vote for what is right and

REDS AND BLUES WAGING BATTLE

The battle is on! The lines of division have been drawn!

Fighting captains have been named, and militant, aggressive, scrapping armies of volunteers have taken the vows.

The two armies are to be known as the "Reds" and the "Blues."

Captain Henry Plummer, a seasoned campaigner, is leader of the "Reds."

Captain Mac Allison, a veteran of many contests and so far victorious in every struggle in which he has engaged, is leader of the "Blues."

General Roscoe Nicholson is occupant of the headquarters camp, directing the battle between the two forces.

All of which is a round-about way of telling of the big activities of the Men's Bible class of the Methodist church. Plans for the campaign were made at a meeting held in the church Tuesday evening. The purpose of the campaign is to interest all men of the town in the Bible class, that is, all men who are not now attending such class meeting in any church.

It is hoped to increase the membership to at least two hundred.

FISHING SEASON OPENS APRIL 15TH

Raleigh, March 20.—It is unlawful to take fish from the inland waters of North Carolina, but use of fish traps, baskets or nets, state officials pointed out today in broadcasting a general reminder to sportsmen. This trap and basket law is in effect all times, in season and out.

The closed season for fish includes such dates as April 20 to June 10, annually, for large mouth bass; September 1 to April 15, brook or rainbow trout, and June 10 to October 1, annually, small mouth bass (mountain counties only).

The state game and fish law reads that it is unlawful to take more fish per day, of the species named, and of less than the number and size as follows:

Large mouth bass 8, 12 inches; blue or red drem 50, six inches; brook trout 25, six inches; rainbow trout 25, eight inches; rock 10, eight inches; crappie or Chinquapin perch 50.

Word is being circulated through Transylvania county that traps and baskets are being used even now, before the season opens. This is absolutely a violation of the state fish and game law; and no traps are allowed to be used at any time in this county.

DR. LYNCH ATTENDS CLINICS IN N. Y. CITY

Dr. G. B. Lynch, of the Transylvania hospital staff, is in New York city, attending surgical clinics and doing special work in surgery in some of the largest hospitals there. He will also attend clinics in Philadelphia and in Baltimore. Dr. Lynch will be away for six weeks.

REPUBLICANS IN CONVENTION WANT COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT FOR COUNTY

RAXTER HOME IS BURNED TO GROUND

Early Monday morning the home of J. W. Raxter, near Wilson Bridge, was totally destroyed by fire. It is said the fire started from the over-heated pine lumber in the kitchen ceiling. Only an organ and one or two smaller pieces of furniture were saved, the loss on both the house and the furnishings being almost a total loss. It is said Mr. Raxter had quite a sum of money in the house, which was also lost in the flames.

Mrs. Raxter was visiting in Greenville at the time of the fire, while Mr. Raxter and other members of the family had gone to their work at various points, leaving only a young 16-year-old daughter in the house at the time of the fire. It is said no insurance at all was carried on either the house or the furniture.

John McKelvey, a neighbor, was on the scene shortly after the fire had been discovered, and assisted in saving a few pieces of furniture. The fire had gained such headway, however, that but little could be saved. Many people have expressed a willingness to assist the Raxter family in re-furnishing a home.

CRIMINAL COURT BEGINS APRIL 1ST

Joe Revis, charged with the murder of his son-in-law, Ulys Robinson, will be tried for his life at the spring term of Superior court, convening in Brevard Monday, April 2. This will be the chief case of interest docketed for trial before Judge P. A. McElroy.

Robinson was shot on Tuesday evening, January 17, in the mountain home of Revis and Robinson in Hogback township, and died the following Sunday morning at Transylvania hospital where he was brought late Wednesday by Sheriff B. J. Sittion.

In a coroner's inquest held immediately after the death of Robinson, before Special Coroner C. W. Fisher, the jury ordered both Revis and his daughter be held for further investigation of the murder. In the coroner's investigation Revis was not placed on the stand, but his daughter, Mrs. Robinson, wife of the slain man, star witness in the proceedings, stated that her father, Joe Revis, shot Robinson in defense of herself and her father.

A number of witnesses were placed in the stand at the preliminary hearing by the prosecuting attorneys in an effort to show a conspiracy between Mrs. Robinson and her father for the death of the woman's husband, but she was given her freedom by Justice F. E. Shuford at the conclusion of the hearing.

D. L. English appeared for Revis at the preliminary hearing, with County Attorney H. E. Martin appearing for the state and Ralph R. Fisher for private prosecution.

STUDY COURSE OF B. Y. P. U. POPULAR

In accordance with previous expectations, the annual study course of the three organizations of the B. Y. P. U. in progress this week at the local Baptist church is the largest delegation ever in attendance for this purpose, and the successful outcome of the gathering is meeting with high approval on the part of the members and officials participating in this annual study course of South-wide observance in the Baptist denomination.

The session started Monday night and will continue each night through Friday, at which time the examinations in the various departments will be held for the awarding of certificates and seals. At the opening session 88 young people were in attendance and the following night 100 were present, the total enrollment of the study course including 110.

The three Unions taking part in this annual event include the senior, intermediate and junior departments, with two teachers in charge of each department.

CHICKEN AND EGG CAR HERE FRIDAY

Tomorrow (Friday) the car sent here by the Farmers Federation will be on the siding at the South R. Railway station for the purpose of buying chickens and eggs. This is the second trip the car has made here this year, and if business justifies it, the car will come once each month.

Those bringing eggs are expected to have them crated. All kinds of poultry will be purchased. It is hoped in this to induce the Federation to buy all kinds of farm produce, but on this trip it is planned to buy only poultry and eggs.

HAMLIN ENDORSED FOR CONGRESSIONAL RACE

Severe Criticism of Actions of Opposition Party Voiced In Resolutions and Platform

Republicans of Transylvania county met in the county court house Monday afternoon, and named delegates to the state, congressional and judicial conventions, adopted resolutions of endorsement for many public officials, and adopted the platform upon which the party will wage the coming county campaign. Interesting among the endorsements was that of Lewis P. Hamlin for congress, and instruction of delegates to the congressional convention to vote for Mr. Hamlin.

The convention declared for a commission form of government for Transylvania county, with abolishment of many offices now functioning. Another interesting feature of the platform was a demand that the state finance the public schools.

Following is a copy of the party platform, which was presented by the vote of the convention, to The Brevard News for publication.

The Platform

"Be it resolved that we, the Republicans of Transylvania county in convention met, on this 19th day of March 1928, adopt the following as the platform of the Republican party in the campaign in Transylvania county, in the year of 1928:

"That we, the Republicans of the county of Transylvania, do pledge ourselves to the people of Transylvania county, to give to them a good and efficient administration with the success of the Republican candidates. We believe that only moral, upright men should ever be inducted into office in Transylvania county, and pledge ourselves unto the selection of such men as candidates of our party in our regular convention to be convened hereafter. We have abounding faith in the womanhood of Transylvania county, and trust that the women of Transylvania will exercise the ballot in the coming election, with discretion and in connection we look hopefully for the future of the boys and girls of Transylvania county and respectfully invite them to join the Republican party, the management and operation of which rests upon every voter in the party and we condemn cliques, rings and political combines and especially condemn a ring in the town of Brevard, our county seat, that has imposed a yoke upon the tax payers of Transylvania county, that is

MISS ZACHARY IS GIVEN HIGH HONOR

At a recent meeting of the senior class of the Brevard High School, selection was made of those in the class receiving highest honors, and the following members were chosen for the various honors: Beulah Mae Zachary received highest honor, as valedictorian; Lillian Jenkins second highest as salutatorian; address, Tom Hampton; history, Billy Middleton; will, Vera Jones; prophecy, Adila Do Silverstein; port, Louise Kimzey; class song, Mildred Clayton, Martha Cowan, Anna Jenkins; grammar, Vernon Fullbright. These seniors were selected according to the grades for the four years of high school work.

The following marshalls were selected from the sophomore class: Ethel McEmin, Betsy Hollinshead, Elizabeth Mills, Molly Snelson, J. J. McCall, Fred Miller, Tom Fattou, Ruel Hunt.

LAST WARNING TO ONE-EYED AUTOS

Since the North Carolina law requires that every automobile have two head lights and one tail light in operation at night on the public highways, it is my intention to enforce this law, and I will arrest any driver of a car who is caught violating this state law. This is the last notification that will be given before enforcement of this law goes into effect.

BROTHER OF J. W. COBBLE IS DEAD

Walter Cobble was called to Knoxville, Tenn., Tuesday on account of the death of his brother, William, who died early Tuesday morning. No details of the sudden illness or death could be learned. Mr. Cobble is expected to return to Brevard the latter part of the week.
