

HULL WINS NORTH STATE DELEGATION

Shipman Is Named Alternate Delegate—M. W. Galloway Named Sergeant-at-Arms

Thos. H. Shipman, president of the Brevard Banking company, was selected in the state democratic convention as alternate delegate to the national convention at Houston, to be held on June 26.

M. W. Galloway, of Brevard, was elected as one of the two sergeant-at-arms in the Raleigh meeting.

Hull forces won the day, electing all eight delegates at large from among Hull supporters, while Smith followers were able to capture only one district delegation, that of the Tenth District. Both delegates and alternates in this district being Smith men.

Conflicting claims are being made by both sides, the Hull men claiming that Smith will have but four convention votes, while the Smith forces are claiming seven votes. North Carolina is entitled to 24 votes in the national convention, and elects 28 delegates to cast this vote.

Following is a list of the delegates at-large and of the district delegates as chosen in the convention:

Hull candidates: Daniels 1,159.70; Wood, 1,084.70; Newland 1,100.20; Jerman 1,091.27; Belk, 1,038.70; Jones, 1,048.97; Fearing 1,066.37. Smith candidates: Gregory 905.65; McKee 818.15; Reynolds 818.15; Biggs 834.29; Long 775.83; Bowie 872.50; Hobgood 854.53.

The twenty district delegates as chosen in the ten congressional conventions were as follows:

First District delegates: W. O. Saunders and E. G. Flannigan (avowed Smith men); Alternates J. Roy Parker and John W. Holden. Saunders and Flannigan casting together one vote, the Smith men claim one vote there, the Hull forces one.

Second district, delegates: D. M. Costello, Ernest Deans; alternates Walter Whitaker; B. F. Shelton, all listed as Hull men and casting two votes.

Third District, delegates: T. D. Warren and D. C. Humphrey; alternates Charles S. Wallace and B. C. Sisk, all Hull men.

Fourth District, R. S. McCain, J. O. W. Gravelly, F. H. Brooks, J. R. Weatherspoon, all Hull men.

Fifth District, R. O. Everett, James G. Hanes, delegates; M. J. Wrenn, J. D. Pipkin, all Hull men.

Sixth District, W. S. Britt, H. H. Carr, J. A. Brown, John C. Thompson, all Hull men.

Seventh District, L. D. Robinson, J. W. Finch, U. L. Spence, J. C. Vann, Robinson and Finch are Hull men.

Eighth District: L. T. Harsell (Smith); R. L. Smith, Jr. (doubtful); Walter Woodson (Smith); George Allen. The two Smith men cast one vote.

Ninth District: James A. Bell and Sam C. Lattimore, delegates; Miss Beatrice Cobb and Charles W. Tillet, Sr., alternates; all Hull supporters except Tillet, who is outspoken for Smith.

Tenth District: J. Quince Gilkey and Charles N. Malone, delegates; W. R. Francis and T. H. Shipman, alternates, all Smith men.

FOUR OFFICERS NAMED BY FIRE DEPARTMENT

At a meeting of the fire department held Monday night, John Smith was elected assistant fire chief to succeed Jerry Jerome, who lives in the country during the summer and therefore cannot serve in this capacity. Four special officers were selected with police powers to handle the crowds when the firemen are called out. Dan Merrill, "Red" Misener, Winston Ashworth and Will Hunt are the four men whose duty it shall be to see to it that no interference is made with the fire company while battling the flames or on the way to the scene of the fire.

SURE! 'TAS HORSE OF ANOTHER COLOR

The following story is told about a big business man of the west—a wealthy ranchman and farmer—of how he nearly became a mail order trader.

This wealthy farmer was in urgent need of a gasoline engine for one of his farms. His foreman noticing an illustration of a likely looking engine in a mail order catalog and which was listed at a reasonable price according to description given, suggested that one be ordered at once by wire.

The "Boss" who was accustomed to doing business in a business like manner, immediately carried out this suggestion by sending the following telegram: "Send engine No. 1336. If good, will send check." In due time he received the following telegram from the mail order house: "Send check. If good will send engine."

PRECINCT WORK IS URGED FOR COUNTY

Delegates and Alternates Selected for State Convention—Rather Warm

Selection of delegates and alternates to the state convention, the adoption of resolutions, and emphasizing plans for precinct organization throughout the county constituted the principal part of the program of the Democratic county convention held last Saturday in the court house.

The following were selected as delegates and alternates, many of whom are in Raleigh attending the state convention:

W. E. Broese, Charlie Mull, Hunter Martin, Thos. H. Shipman, H. H. Patton, Caney Aiken, Mrs. Hugh R. Walker, Mrs. Jordan Whitmire, Mrs. J. S. Silverstein, M. O. McCall, Pat Kinzey, Elam Galloway, Alternates were: L. P. Wilson, Elmer Gillespie, George Bowen, George Lyday, Flem Glazener, Grady Kilpatrick, Harry Clarke, Wallace Galloway, W. B. Henderson, A. Rockwood, Eck Sims, T. S. Wood.

Several speakers urged the importance of thorough organization in the county, which can come only, it is said, as the result of precinct organization.

The bitter feeling on the Al Smith candidacy cropped out at one stage of the meeting, when the charge was made that all the delegates selected to the state convention were Smith men and that only one anti-Smith man had been named, and he was among the list of alternates. After a lengthy discussion, during which Chairman Broese stated that he would be glad to name any Hull man in the court house to take his place as a delegate to the Raleigh convention, and this declaration being followed by other delegates who had been named, the intense feeling abated and the convention proceeded to its business. At one point in the discussion, Chairman Broese stated that he would rather Transylvania county sent no delegates to Raleigh at all than for the democrats to begin fighting among themselves for the presidential question. Mayor T. W. Whitmire and former legislative member, W. H. Duckworth, led the fight for the Hull forces, urging that Hull should have representation on the delegation going to Raleigh.

No changes were made, however, in the committee reports' line-up for delegates and alternates and the state was elected.

JUNIOR MEETING WAS BIG SUCCESS

Crowded Hall Observes 75th Anniversary of the Junior Order

Standing on the stairway, in the hallway, packing the ante-rooms and sitting on the floor, the big crowd that attended the meeting of the Junior Order United American Mechanics last Saturday evening enjoyed the chicken dinner feast and the program that followed. Long before the meeting was called to order, every available seat in the lodge rooms had been occupied by the members and their guests. The meeting was in celebration of the 75th anniversary of the Order, and a huge cake, bearing seventy-five candles, was borne to the center of the table and cut for the occasion.

After the feast several speakers told of the great work that has been done by the Junior Order. Lewis P. Hamlin, executive officer of the local lodge, gave a brief history of the organization, and told of the meaning of the celebration. Rev. W. H. Hartsell was the principal speaker of the evening, and delighted the big crowd with a characteristic speech. Other speakers included W. S. Price, Jr., R. R. Fisher, Julian Glazener, T. C. Henderson, J. P. Mason, H. F. Wright, Henry Ransom, and others.

A feature of the program was piano selections and songs by "Uncle Joe" Orr, which were most pleasing. The Junior Order is committed to support of the public free school system, to strict immigration laws, to teaching the Holy Bible in the schools, and to American ideals and standards. These various principles were thoroughly explained by the speakers, and the addresses were given enthusiastic applause.

NOON-HOUR PROVES FOR KIWANIS MEET

Meeting at the noon hour has proven to be very popular according to the increased attendance at the last meeting of the Kiwanis club. Several visitors were present as guests of the club, bearing out the prediction often made that the noon hour would attract visiting Kiwanians who might be spending their vacation here. An unusually fine program has been arranged for this Thursday, when the members will assemble at 12:15 at the Waltermire Grill.

T. E. L. TO MEET

Regular meeting of the T. E. L. class of the Baptist church will meet next Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George Glazener. All members are urged to attend.

DINNER TOURNAMENT STARTS AT 2 O'CLOCK

On account of the fact that many golfers were in Raleigh attending the state Democratic convention, the dinner tournament scheduled for Tuesday was postponed until today (Thursday). Playing will begin promptly at 2 o'clock and all players are urged to be at the club house ten or fifteen minutes early in order that playing may begin and the tournament staged without any hitch. During the past several days many people have been practicing, and it is expected that this will be one of the most interesting tournaments of the season.

GROWING CERTIFIED SEED POTATOES IN TRANSYLVANIA

(By JULIAN A. GLAZENER) There is a possibility of Transylvania county becoming one of the great potato growing sections of North Carolina. I might even go further and say that the farmers of the county are in position to grow certified seed potatoes which would give them a much higher cash return per acre than ordinary eating potatoes. Naturally there are going to be some doubting Thomases who could never dream of the farmers in this county changing from the growing of corn and rye to the production of seed potatoes, but just remember Shake-speare said, "Our doubts are traitors and make us lose the goods we oft might win by fearing to attempt." One of the most important phases of agriculture today is the marketing of our produce. It requires much thought and planning. We should strive to find out the market demands, the crops we are in position to grow and then put forth every effort to meet the market requirements. Some sections of the county are better adapted for certain crops than other parts are and to try to

FARM AGENT TO BE HERE ON JULY 1ST

P. H. Gaston, With Fine Record Notifies County That He Is Ready To Work

Word has been received from P. H. Gaston, new county farm agent, that he will report for duty on the first Monday in July. Mr. Gaston is considered in the agriculture department as being one of the strongest men in the state, and the county commissioners selected him after thoroughly investigating the records of many applicants for the position. It will be recalled that Mr. Gaston was chosen several months ago, but could not come to Transylvania county until completion of the work upon which he was then engaged.

It is believed that Mr. Gaston's work in Transylvania county will be of untold value, especially in view of the fact that the agriculture department of the Southern Railway company now has two projects in view that mean much to this section. The test growing of sugar beets and the declaration that Transylvania county possesses the finest soil to be found anywhere for the growing of seed potatoes will, under proper supervision, prove of tremendous value to agriculture in the county. Several leading farmers, when informed that Mr. Gaston will be ready for work the first of next month, expressed their satisfaction and declared that his services are sorely needed in the county.

Do You Know--

(C) That the farmer is considered our most thrifty citizen? That he is a close buyer on everything he purchases for home, farm and personal use? That as a rule he buys the best or that which is represented to be the best? That he is a great reader of all the merchandise offerings in newspaper and catalog? That he likes to read about the new and better things in merchandise and know the goods he buys? That he feels safer in knowing that his money will be refunded promptly if he is not satisfied? That over ninety-five per cent of the mail-order buying of the country is done by the farmer? That the secret of mail-order house's success is simply persistent follow-up advertising? That this persistent follow-up advertising is the life blood of the mail-order business? That it will pay every home merchant to study the mail-order catalog carefully? That the mail-order catalog is full of valuable pointers in regard to attractive advertising copy? That the mail-order method of featuring leaders is one which the home merchant could easily and successfully adopt? That the home merchant who wants to compete successfully with the mail-order house must learn to advertise persistently? That persistent newspaper advertising, together with good descriptive copy, is the only proven means of combating mail-order competition in your community?

By a continued use of advertising you keep up a constant acquaintance with the buying public; you popularize your store and the goods you sell; and you can verify the good business judgment of persistent advertising any time you care to look at the figures in your bank book and compare them with the period in which you did not advertise.

REMEMBER: The mail-order houses have no better bargains than you have, yet they will make sales by their persistent advertising, as against you, won't they if you don't.

HERBERT HOOVER TO BE NOMINATED

Pennsylvania Going to Hoover's Support Crushed Opposition, Said

Everything is in readiness to nominate Herbert Hoover as republican candidate for the presidency, according to late reports coming to The Brevard News Wednesday evening. The fact that Secretary Mellon threw the Pennsylvania delegation to Hoover gives assurance of that gentleman's nomination on the first ballot.

It was said that Hoover opposition crumbled when Pennsylvania went to the former war lord in the food administration unit. Majority of the North Carolina delegation was for Lowden, it is said, while Chairman Jackson and National Committeeman Jones were for Hoover.

EGG PRICES TO BE HIGH ALL THE YEAR

Reports Show That Poultry and Egg Market to Remain Good

(By J. A. GLAZENER) Whenever the demand for anything is greater than the supply, prices soon begin to advance. This is just what the public is now facing when it comes to poultry and eggs. People are eating more eggs today than a year ago. Reports show that the public ate 247,976 more cases of eggs from January to May of this year than was consumed in the same time last year. During this same period this year there were 551,921 fewer cases of eggs received on the markets than a year ago. The government report issued May 12 shows a shortage in cold storage of 1,000,000 cases of eggs as compared with the same date of last year.

The U. S. Market report of May 9, gives a shortage of 16,978,771 pounds of dressed poultry as compared with May 9 of last year. The causes of this shortage may be named as fewer receipts and a greater consumption. The public consumed 10,196,124 more pounds of dressed poultry in the same period of time this year than last year.

With these reports before us any one should be able to see that there will be an advance in prices of poultry and eggs this year.

Next week I shall give some pointers on getting the pullets ready for this fall's production.

SUMMER VISITORS FILLING THE TOWN

Large Numbers of Tourists Already Here—Heat Reaches 93 In Charlotte

Visitors are pouring into Brevard now, and boarding houses and summer homes are filling rapidly. The summer is beginning to "bear down" upon the people in other sections, and hundreds are wending their way to the mountains.

Word from Charlotte brings the news that the thermometer is standing in the nineties, and the old mercury is climbing in other sections, all of which is the starting word for the people to hie themselves to the high hills of Transylvania county.

ROSMAN WOODMEN DECORATE GRAVES

Members of Chestnut Oak Camp, W. O. W., Rosman, decorated the grave of Samuel McCall, at the Union church cemetery last Sunday.

A large crowd was present, among them being many personal friends who had known and loved Mr. McCall during his lifetime. After decoration, Rev. Roland Robinson preached a sermon that was greatly enjoyed. It was the first time that many friends of Rev. Mr. Robinson had ever heard him preach. He has been invited to preach a sermon at Zion church during the summer.

Woodmen decided to meet at Union church on the second Sunday in June next year, at which time a picnic dinner will be served.

CREDIT VS. CASH; HOME VS. CHICAGO

Did you ever go to your local merchant and ask him to give you a quotation on a $25 or $50 order of merchandise? Try that stunt once. It will be 100 to 1 shot you will get concessions you will be surprised at. Understand, this means $25 to $50 cash in hand, just as you would send your money to a Mail Order House.

The chances are that your local merchant is oftentimes handicapped in purchasing power by the fact that he has all his money tied up in giving credit to the people that will come into his place, order a week's supply on credit and when the wages come in at the end of the month send the bulk of it to a Mail Order House. That's hardly a square deal, is it?—(C)
