INTERESTING MEETING OF THE FORTNIGHTLY CLUB.

Mrs. J. E. Waters was hostess to the members of the Fortnightly club Thursday afternoon at her home on Park avenue, with all members present, including one new member, Mrs. Goode Loftis, and three guests, Mrs. Walter Duckworth, Mrs. Roscoe Nicholson and Mrs. Harry Loftis.

Following the transaction of business, presided over by the president, Mrs. J. E. Loftis, a program of unusual interest and profit was presented by Dr. Charles L. Newland and Dr. Wm. S. Heester, both of whom spoke on the subject of cancer, telling helpful facts concerning its cause, prevention, treatment and cure.

Delicious refreshments, carrying out Hallowe'en suggestions, were served by the hostess at the conclusion of the program. The next club meeting will be held November 14 at the home of Mrs. J. S. Nicholson, with Mrs. H. A. Plummer as program leader.

BREVARD YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY NORTHERN TRIP.

Miss Cornelia Hawkins and James Hawkins returned last week from a trip to several points of interest in the North, visiting Miss Wilma Loetter in New Castle, Pa. They also motored to Maryland, New York, Ohio, and Canada, and visited other places of interest such as Niagara Falls and Lake Erie. They were honored at dinner by Misses Grace and Ruth Porter, who have visited Brevard on different occasions. The young people report a most enjoyable trip visiting among their friends and seeing the sights and wonders in the North.

YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY PICNIC

An enjoyable picnic by several young people of the town was that held at the Fisher farm Wednesday evening. The roasting of weiners and marshmallows around the big camp fire and the bounteous picnic supper, all added to the pleasures of the occasion.

The picnic party included: Misses Beatrice Daniels, Helen Sitton, Odell Nicholson and Geneva Neill; Ralph Lyday, Coach Tilson, Glenn Bussell and Melvin Gillespie. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Poole were chaperones of the occasion.

EASTERN STAR GIVES HALLOWE'EN BENEFIT

Members of the local chapter of the Eastern Star gave a successful and enjoyable benefit Hallowe'en entertainment Tuesday evening in the Masonic Hall.

Attractive decorations in keeping with the occasion being celebrated were in evidence throughout the rooms. An enjoyable program was presented, and the various booths, fortune telling, witches, spoons and other features carrying out the Hallowe'en idea all contributed much toward the pleasures of the occasion.

MATHATASIAN CLUB IN REGULAR MEETING

Regular meeting of the Mathatasian club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Hume Harris. All members were present with the exception of two.

Among the matters of business discussed was the vote of the club to pay fifty cents per member to the foundation fund of the national federation.

The program of the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. J. B. Jones, who gave an interesting review of the recently published book, "God's Stepchildren." A general discussion of the book followed, other members taking part and contributing their various opinions.

Following the serving of refreshments by the hostess, the club adjourned to meet again on the afternoon of November 14 at the home of Mrs. Jones, with Mrs. Roy Long as program leader for the day.

HALLOWE'EN DANCE EVENT OF THIS WEEK.

A Hallowe'en masquerade dance is to be an event of this week, occurring on Thursday night, beginning at 9:30 o'clock, at the Country Club, and promises to be the crowning event of the season.

The social affair is given by the Wandering Six Orchestra, composed of the following members: Rowena Orr, Donald Lee Moore, Philip Price, Harold Kilpatrick, Hayes Shipman and Tommy Patton.

It is expected that many appropriate and attractive costumes will be worn, thereby adding to the enjoyment of the occasion. Bridge will be played by those not desiring to engage in the dancing feature.
