

LIVE-AT-HOME WEEK BEGINS FEB. 16TH

Governor Cites Fact That 16 1/2 Million Dollars Added to State Last Year

Raleigh, Feb. 5.—The week beginning February 16 has been designated by Governor O. Max Gardner as the second annual live-at-home week in the schools, it was announced today at the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction A. T. Allen.

Material and suggestions for the preparation of programs have just been sent to every high school principal and superintendent. A daily radio program will be arranged with the several radio stations of the state.

"I have designated the week of February 16, said Governor Gardner in his message to the school children which has been sent out by Supt. Allen, "as live-at-home week in the schools. During this week I hope every teacher will place emphasis on the live-at-home program in her classroom work.

"The results of the live-at-home week in the schools last year were exceedingly gratifying. At this time the live-at-home message was carried to 875,000 school children by 25,000 teachers in the 6,000 schools of North Carolina.

"Frankly, the work of the teachers and the school children was in no small measure responsible for our adding $16,500,000 to the value of the 1930 food and feed crops produced in the state. It is hard to estimate the real relief that this work has brought to farmers and farm tenants this winter.

"The public schools of the state last year," Supt. Allen says in his letter to county and city superintendents and principals, "through their activities in connection with the live-at-home program, demonstrated, in my opinion, their economic values as well as their civic and educational worth.

"Agreeable, therefore, to the desire of His Excellency, Governor O. Max Gardner, I am requesting the school forces of the state to cooperate to the fullest extent and to the limit of their strength in the promotion of the live-at-home idea through the activity of the school children."

FARM MAKES MONEY, SAYS UNION FARMER

As the live-at-home campaigners go about the state urging the adoption of better farming methods in 1931, they are constantly finding good farmers who are making a success of their business and are putting aside some cash each season.

Such a person is Z. K. Simpson of Marshville, route 2, in Union county. Mr. Simpson is a young man, only 39; he is married; has five children, and owns the place he bought on credit in 1919. T. J. W. Broom, county farm agent of Union county, says Mr. Simpson bought a farm of 78 acres for $3250 in 1919. A small inheritance of between $600 and $700 from his father was paid on the place and with that start Mr. Simpson began farming. The farm was poor with no improvements, only a small house to live in while he fought for something better.

Today Mr. Simpson has the farm all paid for. In addition he has built a new home costing $3500 cash; a new barn costing $500 cash; a new poultry houses costing $500 cash, and has installed a $4,000 water system for his home, barns and poultry yards. In addition he has $1,500 loaned out, has 22 bales of good cotton in storage and has a nice checking account at the bank.

The details of how he won this from the 78 acres of soil is interesting but hard work and common sense backed the enterprise. He first standardized his fertilizer problem by using 1000 pounds of a 10-4-4 fertilizer per acre for his cotton. In 1930 he made 14 bales on 12 acres; in 1929 he made 16 bales on 13 acres; in 1928 he made 13 bales on 12 acres, and in 1927 he made 23 bales on 18 acres. He rotates his crops, has filled his soil with humus so that the fertilizer is more profitable and he has never run a time bill at the store nor bought feed and foodstuffs. His gross income each year from poultry, surplus milk, and garden stuff is over $5,000 in addition to his cotton and other cash crops.

THE GOD OF ALL COMFORT To Comfort All That Mourn

"The God who exists is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the God who so loved the world that He sent His Son, not to judge the world, but to save it. He is the God who anointed the Lord Jesus Christ to bind up the broken hearted and to proclaim liberty to the captives. And the opening of the prison to them that are bound and to comfort all that mourn."

Please notice that ALL, not a few select ones only, but all. Every captive of sin, every prisoner of infirmity, every mourning heart throughout the whole world, must be included in this ALL. It would not be all if there should be one single one left out, no matter how insignificant or unworthy, or even feeble minded, that one might be. I have always been thankful that the feeble minded are especially mentioned by St. Paul in his exhortations to the Thessalonian Christians when he is urging them to comfort one another, 1 Thess. 5:14.

In effect he says, "Do not scold the feeble minded, but comfort them. The very ones who need comfort most are the ones that our God, who is like a mother, wants to comfort, not the strong minded ones, but the feeble minded.

For this is the glory of a religion of love. And this is the glory of the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ. He was anointed to comfort "all that mourn." The God of All Comfort sent His Son to be the Comforter of a mourning world. And all through His life on earth He fulfilled His Divine Mission. When His disciples asked Him to call down fire from heaven to consume some people who refused to receive Him, He turned and rebuked them and said—"Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of Man is not come to destroy men's lives but to save them."

He received sinners and ate with them. He welcomed Mary Magdalene when all men turned from her. He refused even to condemn the woman who was taken in the very act of sin, but said to the Scribes and Pharisees who had brought her before Him, "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her." And when convicted by their own conscience, they all went out one by one, without condemning her. He said to her, "Neither do I condemn thee, go and sin no more." Always and everywhere He was on the side of sinners. That was what He was here for. He came to save sinners. He had no other mission.

Two little girls were talking together about God, and one said, "I know God does not love me. He could not care for such a tenny tiny little girl as I am." "Dear me, Sis," said the other little girl, "don't you know that is just what God is for, to take care of teeny tiny little girls who can't take care of themselves, just like us." "Is He?" said the first little girl. "I did not know that. Then I don't need to worry any more, do I?"

If any troubled doubting heart, any heart that is fearing continually every day some form or other of evil, should read these lines, let me tell you again in trumpet tones, that that is just what the Lord Jesus Christ is for—to care for and comfort all who mourn. "All," remember every single one, even you yourself, for it would not be "All" if you were left out. You may be so cast down that you can hardly lift up your head, but the Apostle tells us that He is the "God that comforteth those that are cast down," and it is just because you are cast down that you can claim the comforting of Christ. All who mourn, all who are cast down—I love to think of such a mission of comfort

Schaub to Direct Loans to State Farmers Suffering From Drought

North Carolina counties from which applications for loans from the drought relief fund will be accepted at Washington are: Alleghany, Ashe, Caswell, Forsyth, Franklin, Granville, Guilford, Person, Rockingham, Surry, Stokes, Vance, Warren, Watauga, Wilkes, and Yadkin. In these 16 counties drought damage was very serious. In two additional counties, Union and Wayne, farmers suffered heavy losses from hail storms.

Dean I. O. Schaub, director of extension at State College, will supervise the distribution of the fund in North Carolina but actual placing of the loans to individuals will be passed upon by a local county committee before forwarding to Washington. Mr. Schaub held meetings at Henderson and Elkin during the past week for explaining the situation to the county agents and county committees. At these two meetings it was announced that the government is ready to begin distribution of the loans and all applications will be acted upon within 48 hours after their receipt in Washington, provided the applications are properly made out. No one person will be allowed over $600 and the aggregate loan to all the tenants of one landlord will not exceed this sum.

The money will be distributed as loans, and not as gifts, declares Mr. Schaub. All loans will be due on November 31 and are protected by a chattel mortgage on the crop. If the crop has been previously mortgaged or hypothecated in any way, waivers must be secured by the applicant before he will get a government loan. The note securing a loan bears interest at 5 per cent. Loans are paid to the farmers in installments.

The loans will be made for seed for planting, fertilizer for plant food, dust and spray for protecting the crop, feed for the livestock and oil and fuel for the tractor. No farmer who can get local credit or has other source of income will be allowed to participate, says Dean Schaub.

in a world of mourning like ours, and I long to see every cast down and sorrowing heart comforted with this comfort of God. (to be continued)

A PRAYER

Almighty and Everlasting God, whom no man hath seen at any time, who art Spirit, and the Father of our spirits, unto Thee do we come. We would tell Thee all our wants, our sorrows and our sins, that out of the fullness of Thy Grace we may receive healing and forgiveness. We lament our desires covetous of worldly things, the coldness of our affections, the prayerlessness of our lives, the want of relish for Thy law. Forgive us all that our resolves to lead the higher life have been so easily broken, and grant us true repentance that henceforth we may build our lives on the abiding foundation of Thy Holy will as it is revealed in Jesus Christ. Cause us to walk in the paths of purity and sincerity, to renounce the hidden things of dishonesty, and to have no fellowship with the works of darkness. We pant for a purer air, a wider space.

O God, lead us out of the twilight of our own dark narrow souls into Thy Glorious Light, that we may be the children, not of the night, but of the day. Strengthen us that we may finish the work Thou hast given us to do. Comfort us in troubles that wait upon our earthly lot. Guide us through the shadows of time into Thy Blessed Eternity. Amen.
