W. J. Raines of Lake Toxaway was a visitor in our section Monday.

Mrs. Ed Ross gave the young folks a dance Saturday night and report a splendid time.

The Saturday evening prayer service met and was conducted by Mae Bryson from Matt. 18 and was pronounced a success, with attendance of 50 people.

Ed Barton spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barton.

The M & B Lime company has opened their lime quarry, having moved much of the dirt which had filled in during the 40 years since it was last operation. This required much team work and a crew of men who have been going for two weeks or more. Their next aim is a modern kiln which will be built at once. H. C. McKinna, superintendent, announced Saturday that they would have plenty of lime ready in 20 or 30 days.

Julius Barton and sons have discovered a mica mine on their property here and are mining to find the quantity and grade of the valuable ore. It is hoped that it will be a success, as our people are beginning to realize that mining must be our resource for wealth.

Much farm work is being done here and it is expected that the largest crop of many years will be planted.

Mid-week prayer service will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ulys Barton on Feb. 11th.

MOORE BROTHERS DELIGHT WEDNESDAY CLUB

The Brevard Wednesday Club met the afternoon of January 28th at the home of Mrs. A. H. Harris on Broad street. Sixteen members and several guests were present. Responding to roll call with current events, many interesting subjects were discussed. This custom continues to be one of the most enjoyable features of the club meetings.

The club members had the pleasure of having present as their guest Mrs. S. P. Verner, and during the business session Mrs. Verner discussed plans for a more aggressive campaign in the Adult Illiteracy work. One adult pupil taught through the agency of the club, is qualified to receive his diploma, and hope was expressed that the club might take up this work on a larger scale. The program was introduced by Mrs. Frank Jenkins, who gave a most interesting sketch of women, famous as composers or wives of famous composers, giving delightful side lights on the domestic affairs of many world famous composers. The program was then turned over to Mr. Donald Moore and Mr. Alvin Moore, who gave the following numbers:

Scarf Dance, Chaminade; Only a Bee, Strickland; Characteristic of the South, Strickland; Songs My Mother Taught Me, Dvorak; The Lass with a Delicate Air, Arne; Drink to me Only with Thine Eyes, —Salvage Song, Grieg; To Thee My Love, Donald Lee Moore.

This delightful program was thoroughly enjoyed and the club is deeply indebted to these talented young artists.

A SON

Mr. and Mrs. William Rhett Talley of Penrose, announce this week the birth of a son, William Russell Talley.

Hint to Business Men: Remember the roller-coaster, which while sliding down-gathers momentum for the next rise.—Lorain Journal.

MR. NICHOLSON CONNECTED WITH JOINES MOTOR CO.

What this country needs is not a good 5-cent cigar, nor more senators, nor another amendment to the constitution, nor more margin, but— and here's a tip to some manufacturer—what we're all waiting for is an auto body made out of good quality linen so the fenders can be starched fresh every Monday morning.—Farm Federation News.

J. S. Nicholson, one of the best known men of the county, is now connected with the Joines Motor company, Ford dealers. Mr. Nicholson was for some fifteen years employed by the Farmers Supply company, and knows as many people in the county, it is said, as any other man living here. He is a popular salesman, and his friends are confident that he will make a good record selling the popular Ford cars in this territory.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS IN ROUTINE BUSINESS

County commissioners met Monday, and most of the time was devoted to "present relief" cases. No action of any importance was taken, according to the record of the meeting. L. P. Hamlin was allowed pay for the month of December, for work done as solicitor in the county court. Judge English was not allowed any salary for that month, pending investigation of a question concerning office rent. Allowance was made to Solicitor Moretz and Judge English for holding court on the first Monday in January. Many small bills were ordered paid, and the board recessed, to come into session again when called by the chairman to act upon legislation now pending in Raleigh.

MEN BITTEN BY DOG BELIEVED TO BE MAD

Harlee and Sylvester Owen, popular citizens of Gloucester, were bitten Saturday by a dog that is believed to have been mad. Dr. Newland was called, and the dog's head was sent to Raleigh for examination, it being sent away Monday morning.

For the past several weeks the Gloucester community has been infested with mad dogs, and many have been killed, while others have been kept up. Much concern has been felt in the community, and the citizens are now marking time, awaiting until word comes from Raleigh before it can be known whether or not the dog which bit the Messrs. Owen is mad.
