

THE PRAYER CORNER

DELIGHTING IN GOD'S COMFORT

The Psalmist says "In the multitude of my thoughts within me Thy Comforts delight my soul"—Psalm 94:19. But I am afraid that among the multitude of our thoughts within us there are far too often many more thoughts of our own DISCOMFORTS rather than of GOD'S COMFORTS. We must think of His Comforts if we are to be comforted by them. It might be a good exercise of soul for some of us to analyze our thoughts for a few days, and see how many thoughts we actually do give to God's Comforts, compared to the number we give to our own discomforts. I think the result would amaze us.

One word I must add in conclusion. If any of my readers are Preachers of the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ, I would like to ask them what they are commissioned to preach.

The TRUE COMMISSION in my opinion is to be found in Isaiah 40: 1, 2: "Comfort ye, comfort ye my people saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her that her warfare is accomplished and her iniquity is pardoned, for she hath received of the Lord's Hands double for all her sins." Comfort ye my people is the Divine Command, DO NOT SCOLD THEM. If it is the Gospel you feel called to preach, then see to it that you do really preach Christ's Gospel and not man's. Christ's Gospel is always good news, and never bad news. Man's gospel is generally a mixture of a little good news and a great deal of bad news, and even where it tries to be good news it is so hampered with ifs and buts, and with all sorts of man-made conditions that it utterly fails to bring any lasting joy or comfort.

The only Gospel that to my thinking, can rightly be called THE GOSPEL, is that one proclaimed by the angel to the frightened shepherds, who were in the fields, keeping watch over their flocks by night: "Fear not," said the angel, "for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David a Saviour which is Christ the Lord." Never were more comfortable words preached to any congregation; and if only all the preachers in all the pulpits would speak the same comfortable words to the people, and if all the congregations who heard these words, would believe them, and would take the comfort of them, there would be no more uncomfortable Christians left anywhere; and over the whole land would be fulfilled the Apostle's prayer for the Thessalonians, "Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts,

A PRAYER

O God, Most Holy, and Most gracious, we would not be selfish in our prayers. We cannot come into Thy Presence without bringing in our hearts the tears, the pain, the longing of our brothers and sisters in Christ. O God, our sympathy with them is but the broken reflection of Thine. Come Thou to the burdened, the wretched, the grief stricken, those who have been made sad by others, and those who have brought sadness upon themselves. May they hear by faith, the still voice of Thy Sympathy. May they feel the beating of Thy Great Heart of Compassion. May they take comfort in the assurance that Thou dost suffer in and with them, and yet abide in everlasting blessedness.

Hear our prayers in behalf of all those who are struggling against the power of evil. Have pity upon the drunkard, restore to him the power of self control. Enable him to obey the behests of reason and conscience. Lay Thy Healing, Soothing Hand upon the victims of nervous tension, of sleepless nights and fruitless days. Give them rest of soul, that the body too may be at rest. Relieve those who are in pain. Grant them patience and courage, and let them not doubt Thy goodness of love. Call the sinning and the suffering into fellowship with Christ that they may find in Him the secret of victory over the evil of the world, that He may rise in their souls, a star burning brightly through the long night unto the perfect day. These blessings we beg in His Name, and for His sake, Amen.

COMMITTEE HUNTING FOR SUFFICIENT MONEY

Brevard News Bureau Raleigh, Feb. 25

The six months state operated school measure has not been in the open the past week, but the Education committee's sub-committee is struggling with ways and means. One bill introduced would provide uniform high school books. Two bills provide for taxes, largely on production, as aids to the school measure.

Two mills per kilowatt hour of electrical energy produced is proposed in one bill. Another would provide a tax of 1 to 5 per cent on electric current and gas bills; 25 cents to $7 per 1,000 on cigars; $1.30 per 1,000 on cigarettes; 5 cents a pound on tobacco and snuff; one cent on every 10 cents on admission to theatres, picture houses and the like; 10 per cent on fees and dues of social, athletic or sporting clubs, when dues are more than $12 a year; 20 cents per crate of 24 bottles of soft drinks; 5 cents per $100 of capital stock issues; 50 cents per $500 on deeds; a small tax on other legal papers.

14 FEEDS... all in one tiny thimbleful. 14 good feeds which are there in just the right proportion. There's the story of a real chick starting feed... Purina Startena Chow. A real story because one thimbleful of feed is all one chick can put into its little crop in one day.

Out of this tiny thimbleful a chick must get so much. That's why the 14 different feeds are there. Cod-liver oil... dried buttermilk... alfalfa flour... granulated meat... wheat germ meal... linseed meal... these and eight other feeds are in every thimbleful of Purina Startena Chow... each one with a real job to do. Mixed over and over... 960 times... every thimbleful alike.

The 1930 national feed survey of 1,834,513 chicks tells you the kind of a job these thimblefuls do. At six weeks of age, 92 out of every 100 Purina-fed chicks are alive and growing. And they weigh an average of one-fourth of a pound more than other chicks. There's the story for you! The proof that the 14 feeds in Purina Startena Chow (mash or all-mash) actually give a chick the many, many things it must get from a thimbleful of feed.
