MRS. ORR HOSTESS TO MATHATASIAN CLUB

The regular meeting of the Mathatasian Club met at the home of Mrs. Oliver H. Orr. Seven members were present and answered the roll call with the names of Southern poets.

Mrs. Charles L. Newland and Mrs. Robert Kimzey were welcomed to the club as new members.

Program committee for next year was appointed by the president. They are: Mrs. O. H. Orr, chairman, Mrs. Harold Norwood and Mrs. Willis Brittain.

Program for the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Harold Norwood. The subject was "The Story of Ernestine Schumann-Heink."

Guests for the meeting were Mrs. Brown from Brevard Institute, Mrs. McCrary and Mrs. Gaines.

The hostess served delicious refreshments, after which the club adjourned to meet April 9th at the home of Mrs. Ralph Zachary with Mrs. J. B. Jones in charge of the program.

EASTER FOOD SALE

The local order of the Eastern Star will conduct an Easter food sale in the Plummer Annex building Saturday, April 4, starting at ten o'clock A.M. the day immediately preceding Easter Sunday. Cakes, pies, candies, eggs and butter, along with a large variety of food will be for sale. Any special orders or reservations can be made by calling Mrs. R. L. Nicholson or Mrs. D. L. English.

ENJOYABLE BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. F. F. Osteen enjoyed a very pleasant birthday surprise Wednesday, March 25, when a number of friends and relatives gathered at her home to enjoy with her a birthday dinner, it being the occasion of Mrs. Osteen's 71st birthday anniversary.

Those present were: Mrs. L. B. Wilson, Mrs. J. M. Bryson, Mrs. J. L. Lance, Mrs. J. P. Wilson, Mrs. Joe Bryson and children, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Blake and children, Mrs. O. H. Harkins and children, Mrs. J. N. Brackens of Asheville, and L. F. Osteen.

WOMAN'S BUREAU MEETING

April meeting of the Woman's Bureau will be held next Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Important and interesting matters will be considered, including discussion of the question of changing the name of the organization, information on flower planting by experts on the growth of flowers, and an unusual feature on the program to be in charge of Mrs. J. B. Jones. An enjoyable and profitable meeting is assured, and a cordial invitation is extended to all ladies of the town to be present.

Renew Your Health by Purification

Any physician will tell you that "Perfect Purification of the System is Nature's Foundation of Perfect Health." Why not rid yourself of chronic ailments that are undermining your vitality? Purify your entire system by taking a thorough course of Celatabs, once or twice a week for several weeks—and see how Nature rewards you with health.

Celatabs purify the blood by activating the liver, kidneys, stomach and bowels. First package, 10 cts. Family package, 37 cts. All dealers. (Adv.)

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB ENTERTAINS

On Wednesday afternoon, March 25, the Home Economics Club of Brevard High School entertained the Seventh Grade girls. The object of this program was to relate the value of Home Economics to the girls in order that they might choose Home Economics as one of their subjects upon entering high school. A very interesting program was carried out, and a large number of the two classes were present. Refreshments were served.

FIDELIS CLASS CAKE SALE

Ladies of the Fidelis Sunday School class of the Baptist church will sell home made cakes, candies and dyed eggs at Davis-Long Drug Store on Saturday, April 4. Special orders will be received by Mrs. Roy Long.

BREVARD MUSICIANS ENJOY SOCIALS

Several of Brevard's talented musicians met at the home of Mrs. A. N. Hinton on Depot street last Thursday evening for a musical and social entertainment. Mrs. Hinton, assisted by Shirley Martin and Wilhelmina Hinton, served light refreshments.

COMMUNITY EGG HUNT SATURDAY

All children up to twelve years of age are invited to an Easter egg hunt on the High School grounds Saturday, April 4, at 3:30 o'clock. The hunt is being sponsored by the Ladies' Sunday School class of the Methodist church and it is hoped that all the children of the community will be present.

Those who expect to attend are asked to meet at the Grammar School auditorium at three o'clock, where singing and games will be enjoyed until time to start the egg hunt. Several prizes are being offered to the one finding the largest number of eggs. A small fee will be charged.

PERKINS-McCHORD

The marriage of Miss Alberta Perkins and Mr. John Hynes McChord of Louisville was solemnized at high noon Saturday March the twenty-eighth in the Harbison Memorial Chapel of the Louisville Presbyterian Seminary.

B. Y. P. U. PROGRAM AT ROSMAN CHURCH

The Toxaway B. Y. P. U. gave an interesting and instructive program Sunday evening at the Rosman Baptist church. The topic of the lesson was "Home Missions," each part being told in a way that showed much study had been spent on the lesson.

After the program the pastor, Rev. J. E. Burt, preached a helpful sermon on the "Significance of the Mountains Mentioned in the Bible." The pastor will preach next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, the subject being "The Christian's Family Tree," and Sunday evening at the 8 o'clock hour the subject will be "The Ministry of Suffering." Everyone is cordially invited to attend all services.
