AS YE DID IT UNTO THE LEAST OF THESE .....

Many people have been heard to ask the question:

"What good is the Kiwanis club?
What has it ever done?"

It is a very natural question for the man to ask who knows nothing about the activities of the club. The members meet at stated intervals, lunch together, try to sing songs, and do much talking and laughing. This is most beneficial to the members, as well as being most enjoyable. It is this outward show, or display, that the man on the outside sees and hears, and he thinks there is but little to it.

Let's see what else the Kiwanis club has done.

Three boys and a girl were suffering from weak eyes. The committee on underprivileged children was notified of the four cases. The youngsters, being members of families not financially able to obtain proper treatment for them, were taken in hand by the Kiwanis club. They were taken to a specialist, who examined and treated their eyes. Then glasses were purchased for the four children.
The physician said that three of the four would have lost their sight, and the other would have been forced to quit school, had they not received attention just now.

If three boys grown into manhood with sight restored and school work completed is better for the community than three blind men, then the Kiwanis club is doing something more than eating and trying to sing "America," "Working on the Railroad," "The Old Gray Mare," and other none too classical numbers. If saving the sight of a little girl means anything, then the Kiwanis club means something to this community.
These are instances of what the club is trying to do. Its membership may not be much on music, but its soul is attuned to the cry of the distressed, and it is trying to teach its members to so live that they may with joy hear the Master say someday:

"As ye did it unto the least of these, my brethren, ye did it unto me."

CHANCES FOR A BAND THIS SUMMER ARE NOT SO GOOD.

One of the great penalties that this community must pay as a result of prevailing conditions, is that of having no band to play during the summer season. The municipal band, which has made music for visitors and homefolk during the past several seasons, not only in the way of enjoyment, but also in making business better. The municipal band has been a great drawing card in Brevard, in its efforts to attract tourists to the community.

With the town and county funds tied up, there is no earthly chance of having the band play this summer, unless some way is found to provide the necessary funds. The band leader, Prof. F. J. Cutter, has all but contributed his services in the past, drawing only a nominal sum for his work. The boys who have played in the band, have done so absolutely without charge to the town or county.

If it would not be asking too much of the boys, The Brevard News believes that a minstrel, staged by Phil Price, Dr. Hardin, Ginnie Wood, and a few others who are natural actors, would bring in an amount of money sufficient to bear expenses of the band for at least two months. These young men have already contributed much of their time and talent to the public good of the community, and it is with some hesitation that we suggest this added work. But the band means so much to Brevard and Transylvania county during the summer season that we are willing to make suggestion which does add extra work upon those who have already worked well.

Suppose this matter is gone into a little further.

Charlotte is having a helluvavtime with a negro who has announced for a place on the city board, on the Communist ticket. The election board says it is helpless in the matter, and must file this negro's name and place same on the official ballot. What do you know about that?

THE GREAT IMPORTANCE
OF SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK

Editor The Brevard News:

First we want to thank and sound a high note of praise to Mr. Barrett for the Sunday School lesson in the paper.

I believe in Sunday School more than the Church because it is there that the child is first instructed in the Bible and taught to value the example laid down in the Book of Books. I know of no agency that has done more to build up God-fearing citizens than the Sunday School.
Having been attendant as far back as memory reaches, I do not hesitate to say that the great benefits of this religious training can hardly be estimated. I am for the Sunday School.

The great ex-President, Calvin Coolidge, said: "The Sunday Schools furnish a great agency by which spiritual ideals are made a part of the life of the younger generation of the people of the United States."

There never was a time in history of American civilization when the work of the Sunday School was more necessary than it is at this moment.

I shall never forget the good I received from Sunday School. Not only are its memories very precious, but the knowledge of the Bible and the religious instruction received there can never be forgotten.

For four years, as superintendent of the Sunday School at Zion church, when in the early days of Rosman, the lessons learned, the blessings earned, shall never be forgotten.

Judge Lewis of the Supreme Court of New York said, "My experience during 23 years on the bench in which time over 4,000 boys under the age of 21 years were convicted of crime before me of whom but three were members of a Sunday School.
That satisfied me of the value of Sunday Schools."

The District Attorney of Mercer County, Pa., said: "In my opinion the Sunday School is the most potent crime prevention agency in American life. Prisons serve to restrain the criminally minded of mature years though they are ineffective at best, but the Sunday School prevents crime by developing Christian character during the formation period of youth."

The Sunday School is as essential in the moulding of character for useful citizenship as the public schools.
And as the people are taxed so extremely high for the public schools and pay so little attention to the Sunday School, shows plainly to me a lack of common sense.

We all enjoy Brother Chapman's Prayer Corner most of anything in the paper. May he live many years yet to write the Prayer Corner for us.

W. N. GILLESPIE.

prologue, will be presented by the Senior class of the Rosman High School April 24th at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. The characters in the order of their appearance are as follows:

Anthony Wheat (Tony), a vision of circumstances—Homer Manly.

Burks, his valet, faithful to the end —Harry Owen.

Marjorie, a very modern young woman—Ruth Morgan.

Aunt Julia, the judge's sister-in-law —Jessie Fisher.

Barbara, a flapper who flaps—Lily Mae Whitmire.

Mooney, the temperamental maid, with nerves—Lula Manly.

Ebenezer—Irona McCall.

Two Little Whittles.

Synopsis

Prologue—Tony Wheat's room in the Bachelor's Inn.

Act 1—Living room in Judge Bunby's house an hour later.

Act 2—Same room, half an hour later.

Act 3—Same old room, the next morning.

Tony Wheat fleeing from the police, hides in the home of Judge Bunby's and allows the family to mistake him for the judge's nephew. He is married much against his inclination to a masked lady, called Anne, by the minister.

The play is said to be full of wit, snappy lines, electrifying surprises and clean comedy situations.

The admission prices are 20 cents for all school children and 25 cents for adults.

Baccalaureate Sermon

Rev. Dr. Hoyt Blackwell, professor of Bible in Mars Hills College, will preach the baccalaureate sermon at the Rosman High School Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock. Dr. Blackwell is a noted preacher and recognized as one of the state's outstanding speakers, and the Rosman people are looking forward to hearing Dr. Blackwell.

THREATENS COURT
ACTION IN MATTER
OF WATER CHARGES

allowed to charge the residents of said Town on dwellings in excess of One Dollar per room per annum for the use of water, yet the pretended ordinance that you published last week would exceed that rate one hundred per cent or more than double.

As a citizen of the Town, I do not object to the Town authorities adopting an ordinance as to water rates but in doing so it must not conflict with the consideration of the deed under which the Town now owns the water works that supplies the citizens of the Town with water.

That the citizens of Brevard may know what is attempting to be done, I trust you will publish this article, and I quote a part of the deed, which is of record in Deed Book No. 23, page 189, which reads as follows:

"Whereas at a meeting of the stockholders of the Brevard Water Company, a corporation created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of North Carolina, a proposition was made to the Town of Brevard by a large majority of the shareholders of said corporation to sell to said Town all of its stock, rights, franchises, privileges and properties at par, provided, that the said Town would guarantee to the shareholders, whose stock was so transferred, that this water rent should never exceed One Dollar per room per annum, and the said Town of Brevard through its Board of Aldermen having accepted said proposition, etc."

From your article of the 16th, it appears the Town Officials claim the Water Department is not self sustaining and I wonder if the reason is the same reason that caused them to lose to the taxpayers the large amount of money that was deposited in the bank without security, the same at the time being in the direct charge and control of a certain member of the Board of Aldermen, and who, I am informed, was chairman of the Finance Committee and who was at the same time a director of the Brevard Banking Company.

I shall not submit to the Board of Aldermen breaching their contract with the citizens of our Town until the Court of last resort says a contract can be breached by one party thereto over the opposition and protest of the other party thereto.

MRS. VERNER HEADS
P.-T. ASSOCIATION Past Year Most Important In the History of Splendid Organization

(Contributed)

The P. T. A. met for its last time Monday afternoon for this school term. The attendance was not as large as one could have wished for, but all there enjoyed a splendid program conducted by Miss Eva Call with the little ones. One can hardly realize what can be accomplished with such small children under skillful training only by attending school meetings. Prof. J. B. Jones led the devotional.

The business part of the meeting was then taken up. The work of the P.-T. A. this year it would seem had almost reached its climax; having no funds and many things to do. As always, the people of Transylvania have met the difficulty by responding out of their pockets with a good will.
Little children have been furnished nourishing, carefully prepared meals with gladness and sympathy on the part of those doing it. The number of lunches served amounted to 3471.

The by-laws say two years is the term of any chairman for the P.-T. A. and all regret to see the retirement of Mrs. H. L. Wilson from that office. She has served untiringly and wholeheartedly for the good of this community, showing strong leadership in accomplishing the things needed to be done by P.-T. A. and cooperating with the teachers and various committees. The teachers also have shown the best possible spirit every way in making the schools a successful term.

The patrons of the school have all shown their interest in many ways.
Especially, the P.-T. A. wishes to thank those who have so kindly furnished milk in conjunction with the lunches. Mr. C. K. Osborne has been more than kind in this way, as all agree milk is the chief food for growing children.

In all consideration the P.-T. A. this year has done its noblest work and all will agree what it means to Transylvania and Brevard.

The new officers elected are: Mrs.
S. P. Verner, president; Mrs. Roy Long, vice president; Mrs. A. B. Galloway, secretary; Mrs. Roland Whitmire, treasurer.

The district chairman, Mrs. Frel of Canton has appointed Mrs. Oliver Orr county chairman of Transylvania county.

default having been made in the pay-been given and said default has not been made good;
