NEW FARM LEADERS NAMED BY SENATE

Raleigh, May 6.—The bill to reor-ganize the Department of Agriculture has been passed as amended, requiring a new board of six members, including the Commissioner of Agricul-ture and a representative each of variou farming divisions, livestock, tobacco, cotton, truck and general, appointed by the Governor and approved by the Senate. The State Fair board is abolished, the Board of Agriculture taking it over to operate or lease the fair, as it seems fit. The test farms are to remain under direction of the Board of Agriculture, instead of being plac-cd under State College of Agriculture and Engineering, as formerly contemplated.

ADVERTISING TAX SALES POSTPONED ONE MONTH

Because of legislation enacted in Raleigh last week, the county commissioners were permitted to postpone advertisement of property for sale this week on which taxes for 1930 had not been paid. The old law required the sale of property for taxes on the first Monday in June, which would Monday in June, which would have necessitated the advertising of the property during the month of May. The commissioners ex-pressed hope that every citizen who can do so will pay their taxes this month, so it will not be necessary to advertise the prop-

The new commission will hold its irst meeting this week to take over the State highway activities, and the additional 40,000 miles of county cads to maintain. Other boards, commissions and of-ficers are expected to be named this week by Governor Gardner, including director of purchase and contract and director of personnel. ## SPRINGTIME AND PERMANENT WAVING---

Take a look in the mirror. Has your hair lost its line, and is it all loose ends?

If so, we can make it lovely again with our scientific permanent waving methods. And lovely hair is so essential this spring because so much of it shows with the new hats. We also re-wave the partly grown out permanent wave, matching the new waves with those still in the hair.

Every branch of every beauty work is-most carefully done at our shop. Call today for an appointment.
