MRS. BOUCHER GIVES INTERESTING REPORT

At the regular meeting of the Sarah Taylor Circle, which met at the home of Miss Nan Kilpatrick, on Monday, May 11, Mrs. H. E. Boucher, president of the Circle, and delegate to the Annual Western North Carolina Women's Conference which met in Shelby in April, gave a most interesting account of the Conference. After routine business, Mrs. Oliver Orr had charge of the program. Two guests were present, Mrs. Conely and Miss Bill Aiken. At the conclusion of the meeting, Miss Kilpatrick served delightful refreshments. Mrs. H. E. Boucher will be hostess to the Circle in June.

CHARMING PARTY HONORING BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. Rush Whitmire and Mrs. Roland Whitmire were joint hostesses at a lovely bridge party Wednesday afternoon at the home of the former, honoring Miss Mildred Clayton, bride-elect of June. A motif of green and white was carried out in the appointments, with spring flowers effectively used throughout the rooms. Five tables were arranged for playing. A beautiful hand painted cracker jar was presented to Miss Clayton, for the top score trophy Miss Jack Clayton won a double deck of cards, while a box of linen handkerchiefs were presented to Miss Mary Osborne Wilkins for low score. A lovely plate consisting of strawberry short cake with green whipped cream, and fruit cocktail, furthering the use of the chosen tones, was served after the games. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Mrs. Harrison Pace, of Asheville, and Mrs. Paul Smathers.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY MEETING AT CHURCH

Mrs. Cordia King, president of the Womens Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, which held its regular meeting Thursday in the Ladies Parlor of the church, gave a detailed report of the Annual Western North Carolina Women's Conference, to which she was a delegate. During the business hour that followed, plans were made for entertaining the Conference to be held in Brevard Tuesday and Wednesday, May 19 and 20. An interesting program was given with Miss Denton as the main speaker, her subject being, "The Missionary Work in Poland."

DAUGHTERS OF WESLEY IN SOCIAL GATHERING

Regular meeting of the Daughters of Wesley Sunday School class of the Methodist church was held Tuesday evening in the ladies' parlor, with twenty members present. The business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. A. R. Gillespie, included the transaction of routine business pertaining to the work of the class, following which several games and contests were played under the direction of the program committee chairman, Mrs. B. E. Nicholson. At the conclusion of the social period, a salad course was served by the joint hostesses of the evening, Mrs. J. F. Winton, Miss Frances Denton, Mrs. Brian and Miss Alma Trowbridge.

ZONE MEETING INTERESTING

(Hendersonville Times-News) The Zone meeting of the Woman's Missionary societies of the Methodist church was held in the local church on Wednesday, convening at 10 a.m. This zone includes the counties of Transylvania, Polk and Henderson. Mrs. V. L. Stone, district secretary, presided. Mrs. O. H. Orr of Brevard, was elected permanent chairman and Mrs. W. B. West was made secretary. Mrs. Brown, superintendent of Christian social relations, explained the work of her department in the conference, during the sessions.
