PHILATHEA CLASS MEETS

The Philathea Class of the Baptist church held its regular meeting in the church parlor Tuesday evening. The class with their newly elected teacher, Mr. Julian Glazener, made extensive plans for enlarging the class, and special effort is being made to enlist every girl who is not already in Sunday School in this class.

After the business session, a social hour was enjoyed. Refreshments were served by Misses Launa Clayton and Mary Nicholson.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED AT LOVELY PARTY

A beautiful affair of Wednesday was a bridge shower at which Mrs. Jerry Jerome entertained at her home on Probate avenue, in compliment to Miss Mildred Clayton, bride-elect, who will wed Mr. Fred Emerson in June.

Throughout the home quantities of vari-colored garden flowers were artistically arranged in silver vases and bowls. The guests were received by Mrs. Jerome and were given tally cards with miniature handpainted brides and grooms. This enabled the guests to find their bridge partners. At the conclusion of the game, tallies were added and Miss Margaret Miller was presented two lovely guest towels or scoring high, while low score went to Mrs. Paul Smathers. The guest of honor was presented a beautiful silhouette. Following the enjoyable bridge game a salad course was served. Mrs. Jerome was assisted in serving by her mother, Mrs. Flora Hart, and Mrs. R. L. Alexander. At this time Mrs. Jerome entered the room with a basket daintily arranged in pink and white, with a large bouquet of sweet peas and lilies-of-the-valley, on the handle of the basket, tulle fashioned into a large white bow furnished the beauty of the basket, which was presented to the bride-elect, and to her surprise was found to be laden with handkerchiefs.

THREE CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

The friends of F. H. Holden gave him a surprise birthday dinner May 17. Mr. Holden was forty years old the sixteenth of May, while his little son Fleet was four years old the seventh and little Miss Margurit Scruggs was four the fifth, so three celebrated all as one.

The table in the dining room was adorned with all the good things to eat and in the center a large angelfood cake on which stood four pink candles. The guest were placed around the table while the honorees at one side. When the candles were lighted the children were given the honor of blowing them out, Master Fleet boy like puffed them all out first trial but Margurit only succeeded in getting three of hers.

All had a day long to be remembered and hope these three may live to see many birthdays and each one filled with love and service to the bountiful Father who holds their lives in his hand.

Those sharing the joy on this happy occasion were, Mrs. L. R. Scruggs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scruggs and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Scruggs and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Scruggs and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scruggs and little daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Fleet Gallamore.
