BREVARD-DAVIDSON RIVER CHURCH
OLD PRESBYTERIAN INSTITUTION

By
(JUDGE ROBERT L. GASH)

We have already told of the re-organization of the Davidson River Church, under the lead of Rev. Robert Hett Chapman, D. D., in March, 1866.

Dr. Chapman was one of the commissioners that met in Augusta, Ga., in 1861, in the General Assembly that separated from the General Assembly U. S. A., and organized the General Assembly in the Confederate States (in 1865 the word "Confederate" was stricken out, and the word "United" inserted instead). Dr. Chapman was one of the commissioners for Concord Presbytery, which then included the entire western section of North Carolina. He was an able teacher, a powerful preacher, and supplied several churches. He was in charge of Davidson River Church from March, 1866, until the winter of 1871.

The church work was active, energetic, and effectual. Among those uniting with the church during his pastorate were M. Jasper Orr, Lambert C. Neill, Isaac T. Lyday, Eli Patton, Mrs. Martha E. Gash, Florida Galloway, Elsona Galloway, John W. Mills, Sallie L. Mills, Joel E. Mackey, George W. Young, Virginia Patton, J. C. Lyon, William E. Deaver, Ichabod Gray, Mrs. M. J. Orr, Rachel Killian, W. C. Connell, Mrs. Agnes Connell, Mrs. Malinda Clayton, J. B. Killian and Julia Mackey. During this time the session was composed of J. W. Killian, Charles Patton and Elizur Patton. They were regular attendants and took active part in the meetings of Concord Presbytery.

In 1869 Concord Presbytery met at this church, and, at this meeting the overture to form Mecklenburg Presbytery was sent up to Synod.

An indirect testimonial of Dr. Chapman's power and ability is found in the fact that a number of preachers of other denominations in Western North Carolina attended his services whenever possible, consulted him as to courses of reading and study, as well as about elocution and pulpit manner and presence generally. A number of them considered Dr. Chapman as a "complete and well-rounded theological seminary"—except on the subject of infant baptism.

Following the pastorate of Dr.

Out Of Luck

Little Frank, who had removed with his family to a new house, was taken to visit the new tenants of the old house, with whom his mother was on friendly terms.

The chief object of interest was a recently arrived baby.

Frank was much taken with the infant, and on his way home remarked: "Mother, it's a pity we moved from that house. If we'd stayed a bit longer we should have got that baby."—Tit-Bits.

Penrose Pen Points

The Girl Scouts of Penrose met last week at the home of Miss Jeanette Talley and presented Mrs. Russell Boyd of Asheville a $5.00 farewell honor badge. Mrs. Boyd was formerly a resident of this community and scout leader. Miss Jeanette Talley made the presentation. Miss Fleeto Freeman, former teacher of Penrose and scout leader, was re-elected for scout leader.

The girls of the group came together to enjoy camp life Wednesday night. They spent 24 hours of enjoyable camp life in Mr. Carl Talley's Keep Kool Kabns under the direction of Mrs. Rhett Talley.

The ladies of the W. M. U. of Enon church staged successfully a pageant Sunday night in the church auditorium. This was an interesting and educational program showing the needs of our missionary work. An offering was taken at the close of the pageant.

Mr. Lowder Lyday of Asheville, met with other members of his family at his father's, Mr. G. T. Lyday, Sunday.

Mr. Lawrence Williams made a business trip to Greer, S. C., last week.

News came last week of the illness of Mrs. W. A. Williams' mother of Hendersonville. She is reported better.

Miss Leslie McGuire has been visiting her brother Boyd in Asheville for several days.

Mr. A. C. Gallimore of Hendersonville, has moved into Mrs. Holliday's cottage for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Ponder accompanied Rev. J. L. Bragg and family to Horse Shoe Sunday, attending the children's day exercises and enjoying a good dinner on the ground.

Our third good rain came Sunday night. Crops are looking good as a rule.

Lightning struck the wiring to Mr. J. F. Middleton's home, doing damage to the radio, window panes and guitar, and slightly shocking the family.

Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Lyday and Dr. Harold Bradley attended the W. M. U. exercises Sunday night here.

The Penrose squad met another Henderson county team, Crab Creek, by name, Thursday on the local field and won by a score of 21-13. The teams were unevenly matched and Penrose played several of the second team in the last innings.

In the Carolina Valley league Fletcher has the place of Oakley now on the schedule. The local squad matched Fletcher rather unevenly here Saturday and lost the game. Before giving our boys the "horse laugh," just think that the veterans they attacked were once untrained themselves. We played some ball if we did lose by a score of 31-2.

The club will play a practice game here Thursday with Valley Hill and meet Fruitland in the regular schedule Saturday at Fruitland.
