MISS LEWIS IS CHARMING HOSTESS AT PARTY

Miss Eloise Lewis charmingly entertained with four tables of bridge at her home in North Brevard Wednesday of last week, honoring Miss Mildred Clayton, lovely bride-elect of next week.

The Lewis home was a scene of beauty with quantities of garden flowers tastily arranged throughout the rooms used for playing. As the guests approached the lawn, they were met by little cupid suit pieces of Miss Lewis' as trimmings, and daintily on the lawn. Dainty tally cards with a miniature bride and bridegroom were passed. At the conclusion of the card game, tallies were added with Miss Jackie Clayton receiving high score, while low went to Miss Elizabeth Ramsuer, each being presented with a dainty gift. The guest of honor was given a silver serole. Mrs. Leon English Jr., recent bride, was also given a lovely pewter pitcher. Miss Lewis was assisted in serving by her sister, Miss Mattie Lewis, Miss Eliza Henry and Mrs. Lamar Lewis. At this time the door bell rang and a little pickaninnie entered the door with a red express wagon laden with gifts for the bride-elect.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smathers and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Holt entertained with a lovely bride on Monday evening, honoring Miss Mildred Clayton and Mr. Fred Emerson whose wedding will take place on Tuesday evening of next week at the Methodist church. Guests were invited to make up ten tables. Cut flowers were used in glass and silver baskets throughout the rooms. Little hand-painted wedding bells were used for tally cards. Miss Rowena Orr won high score for the ladies and was presented a bridge set. High score for men was won by Ruffin Wilkins, a double deck of cards.

The bride and groom-elect were given as guest prize a set of hammered brass book ends.

A salad course with iced tea was served. At the conclusion of the card game the guests were invited next door to the Holt home where dancing lasted until a late hour.

MR. PARKER GIVES DANCE AT PARKER HOUSE

Carlton Parker of State college, who is spending the summer months with his mother, Mrs. E. M. Parker, gave a delightful dance at his home, the Parker House, on Thursday evening.

Two large rooms charmingly decorated in red and white were placed at the disposal of the large group of guests. The lights were dimmed, sending soft glowing color through the rooms in a profusion of red and white.

A unique arrangement furnished by George Bromfield, supplied splendid music for the occasion. The hook-up consisted of a clever combination of radio and Victrola which poured forth music excellent in both tone and volume.

Mrs. E. M. Parker in acting as hostess, was assisted by Mrs. J. B. Pickelsimer, Mrs. F. P. Sledge and Mrs. E. W. Sledge of Greensboro, Ala. During the evening frolic a bountiful supply of punch supplied the dancers with pep for their keen enjoyment.

The guests were: Flora Wike, Madeleine Axton, Mordacia Saltz, Roberta Bryant, Martha Vaughn, Almeda Waters, Rebecca Summy, Elizabeth Duckworth, Margaret Miller, Elizabeth Ramsuer, Rowena Orr, Gladys English, Winifred Nicholson, Ruth Waters, Ruth Vaughn, Fannie McGeehee, Martine Pierce, Margaret Patton, Rose Schachner, Mary O. Wilkins, Christine Saltz, Ruth Perry, Mary Louise Croushorn and Louise Townsend; Messrs. Milton Sellers, Henry Erwin, Robert Pierce, Ashe Macfie, Monte Truluck, Harold Whitmire, Ruffin Wilkins, Francis King, Ralph Barrie, Ed English, Elizabeth Hunt, Joe Tinsley, Charles Orr, Albert Lyday, John Chapman, Mark Taylor, Ernest McCall, Mitchell King, Paul Kellar, Ed Wike, Jimmie King, Harry Clayton, Hays Shipman, Frank Henry, Harry Johnson, John McGeehee, Ruffin Wilkins, George Bromfield, Garland Sledge, Glenn Miller, Joe Schachner, Julius Hinton, Frank Smith, Donald Jenkins and the Institute pair, Perry and Skid.

LOVELY BRIDE HONORING BRIDE-ELECT

Misses Almata and Ruth Waters and Miss Roberta Bryant entertained at the Waters home on Park avenue Saturday afternoon with a bridge shower honoring Miss Mildred Clayton whose wedding will be a brilliant affair of next week. The entire lower floor was thrown en suite. Decorations consisted of Dorothy Perkins roses, larkspur, snapdragons and sweet peas. Large white wedding bells were used in the living room and sun room. Eight tables were arranged for playing and several tea guests called at five-thirty. Miss Jack Clayton won high score and was presented a lovely guest towel. Low fell to Miss Eliza Henry, who was presented with a dainty gift. The guest of honor was presented a lovely piece of lingerie. Mrs. Harry Sellers, bride of last week, was also presented a gift, a lovely picture. The feature of the afternoon was a shower. Little La Verne Mahaffey of Greenville, S. C., cousin of the Misses Waters, dressed in a red cupid suit with a bow and arrow, entered the room and knelt at the feet of Miss Clayton. She then took the bride-to-be by the hand and escorted her to one end of the porch, where a table attractively decorated with white satin ribbon and candles, were found to be laden with gifts for the bride-elect.

A lovely ice course was then served with the color motif of white and green being carried out in every detail.

IN MEMORY OF Mrs. Elizabeth Earl Galloway

Mrs. Elizabeth Earl Galloway, aged 85 years, died June 3rd, 1931, at her home in Old Toxaway section where she had lived from early childhood. She was the last surviving member of a large and influential family, a daughter of Capt. Wm. J. and Jean Galloway. She was married to Jas. Earl Galloway, a prominent Baptist minister of said section, to which union was born eight children, four girls and four boys, all of whom are living except Nealus, the oldest girl, who died some years ago. The seven living, viz: Zeb, Davis, Ellis, and Morris, and Mrs. A. J. Lee, Mrs. Laura Fisher and Mrs. Wm. Meece, all of whom attended the funeral and burial.

"Aunt Liz," as she was called, was a real type of pre-war times, "A Mother in Israel." She saw and personally experienced the trials and hardships of the entire Civil War days between the States in which war her said husband served in loyal and faithful service during the entire term. She joined the Baptist church when a young woman and was ever a faithful and consistent member of the same.

She lived each day as if it were "the last day," and she lived the last day just as she had lived the past days.

She had been an invalid for the last five years of her life, caused by a fall while at work. But she en-

Next Sunday is regular church service at the Lake Toxaway Baptist church both morning and evening. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. The Junior B. Y. P. U. class will give a program as announced by Mrs. Leonard Thomas, their leader.

During this ordeal with the same fortitude and patience that she had braved the trials and sufferings of the Civil War days.

But on June the 3rd she quietly folded her earthly mantle about her, and passed to her reward "beyond the shore from whose borne no traveler ever returns." On the 4th day of June her funeral was conducted by Rev. Judson Corn at Old Toxaway church—in the presence of her children and friends, and she was buried in the old graveyard on the hill beside her husband who had preceded her eleven years ago; also beside her father and mother and kindred who had long since been buried there, awaiting her coming.

Thus the community has lost a valuable and kind neighbor, the church a faithful member, the children an affectionate and loving mother.

May God in His mercy comfort the bereaved family and temper the chilly winds to lonely children.

A nephew,
T. H. GALLOWAY.

Better EGGS

Bring Better Prices

Below are a few suggestions that we hope will assist you in marketing more eggs and better eggs from your flock:

- Help us to increase the consumption and sale of eggs by selling only those of high quality.
- Keep the nests clean and gather the eggs twice each day.
- Keep the eggs in a well ventilated place where the temperature is under 60 degrees Fahrenheit but not freezing.
- Market the eggs often; if possible before they are 48 hours old.
- Sell only infertile eggs. These may be secured by removing the male birds from the flock.
- Do not sell an egg you would not want to eat.
